Cross Cultural Field Experience Trip (CPY 651)
Kyrgyzstan, March 7-17, 2012
Available to any student enrolled in Graduate Department of Counseling and Interpersonal Relations courses

Trip Summary
A Cross Cultural Field Experience trip is being planned for Kyrgyzstan during Spring Break. Led by Tammy Schultz, this team of 9 people will work in Kyrgyzstan to restore human dignity by using their professional counseling skills. Avenues will include: ministering to the socially disgraced and conducting counseling seminars for long-term workers (both expat and local). Students will be involved in presenting seminars on PTSD, secondary PTSD, and grief.
