

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

Effective: 8/15/17

Administration and Compliance

Policy: Harassment based on protected characteristics, and physical and sexual offenses, assault, stalking, and battery violate federal and state laws as well as policies of Grace College and Seminary, will not be tolerated, and may result in student expulsion or employee termination. All students, faculty, and staff are asked to report to the Title IX Office any conduct by or against any student, employee, volunteer, or third party that violates this policy.

Purpose: This policy is intended to protect and assist those who report assault, battery, stalking and other sexual harassment as defined by this policy. This protection is extended to others involved during the investigation of reports of assault and applies to all stages of the process, from investigation to the disposition of the allegation.

Scope: This policy applies to any allegation of sexual misconduct against any member of the Grace community including all employees and all students, in all divisions (e.g., graduate, seminary, and undergraduate), in all delivery formats (e.g., online or residential), at all locations (e.g., on the Winona Lake campus and at other locations), and their use all of social media and technology (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, texting, email, etc.). Further, it also applies to third parties. Grace reserves the right to determine whether complaints made by an individual who is not a member of the Grace community and is not related to Grace constitute sufficient risk to the Grace community to warrant the investigation of the complaint.

DEFINITIONS

The following terms and definitions apply to this Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Policy.

Assault

An intentional act that causes someone to have reasonable fear of imminent bodily harm. For cases involving actual bodily harm, see "Battery." Aggravated assault is usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Battery

Intentional and wrongful physical contact with a person causing injury or offensive touching. Battery includes rape, whether or not accompanied by force (including "date rape" or "acquaintance rape").

Bullying

Repeated and/or severe, aggressive behavior, that is likely to intimidate, intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally and that is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the First Amendment.

Child Molesting

Per Indiana Code, when a person at least 18 years of age who, with a child under 14 years of age, performs or submits to sexual intercourse or sexual conduct, or performs or submits to any fondling or touching for the purpose of sexually gratifying either person.

Coercion

Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity, including undue inducement or any form of force, fraud, constraint, deceit, or duress (cf. IC 16-41-6-2). Continued pressure to go beyond a certain point of sexual interaction is coercive if the pressure is unreasonable.

Consent

Consent is clear, knowing, and voluntary (or affirmative, conscious, and voluntary) words or actions that give permission for specific sexual activity. Someone who is incapacitated cannot consent. Past consent does not imply future consent. Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Consent can be withdrawn at any time. Coercion, force, or threat of either invalidates consent.

Discrimination

Actions that deprive other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits, or opportunities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, or other legally protected category.

Dating Violence and Intimate Partner Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the statement of the reporting party and in consideration of the length of the relationship, type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the person involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse (VAWA definition).

Domestic Violence

Crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of Indiana, or by another other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction (VAWA definition).

Employee

For the purposes of this policy, an “employee” is defined as regular full-time and part-time employees of Grace Schools and employees of on-campus vendors (i.e., Aramark, Sodexo). Student RA’s are considered “responsible employees” for the purposes of Title IX reporting.

Forcible Sexual Offense

The use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats), and coercion that overcomes free will, overcomes resistance, or produces consent. Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not by definition forced. (See also “Coercion.”)

Harassment

Unwelcome conduct that is based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information. Harassment becomes unlawful when 1) enduring the offensive conduct becomes a condition of continued education or employment, or 2) the conduct is severe or pervasive enough to create a work or educational environment that a reasonable person would consider intimidating, hostile, or abusive. (See also “Sexual Harassment.”)

Hazing

Forcing or requiring another person, with or without the consent of the other person, and as a condition of association with a group or organization, to perform an act that creates a substantial risk of bodily injury (IC 35-42-2-2.5), psychological harm or social ostracism when related to admission into, initiation into, pledging of, affiliating with, or joining any group, club, or activity.

Hostile Environment Caused by Sexual Harassment

A hostile environment is created when sexual harassment is sufficiently severe or persistent or pervasive and objectively offensive that it unreasonably interferes with, denies, or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from Grace’s educational, social, residential, and/or employment program.

Incapacitation

An inability to consent, such as due to the use of drugs or alcohol, when a person is asleep or unconscious, or because of an intellectual or other disability that prevents the individual from having the capacity to give consent. Incapacitation is determined by a person’s decision-making capacity, awareness of consequences, and ability to make informed judgments. Because incapacitation is hard to determine, the question is whether the responding party knew, or a sober, reasonable person in the position of the reporting party should have known, that the reporting party was incapacitated. When in doubt, individuals should assume that the other person is incapacitated and unable to give consent.

Intent

That which is done for the purpose of causing a particular result or with the knowledge that the result is likely to occur. The individual does not have to want the result to occur if he/she is, or should be under all the circumstances, aware that the result is likely to occur.

Intimidation

A person who communicates a threat to another person, with the intent that the other person engage in conduct against the other person's will or that the other person be placed in fear of retaliation for a prior lawful act (IC 35-45-2-1). Implied threats or acts that cause another to reasonably fear harm.

Other Misconduct

The following conduct also violates Title IX if severe and pervasive enough to cause a discriminatory effect on the basis of sex/gender:

- Discrimination
- Hazing (a form of sexual harassment)
- Stalking (a form of sexual harassment)
- Intimate partner/relationship abuse or violence (a form of sexual harassment)
- Threatening physical harm
- Causing physical harm
- Extreme verbal abuse
- Hate speech (on a private campus)
- Bullying/cyberbullying
- Vandalism
- Public exposure (could also be viewed as sexual exploitation)
- Destruction of/damage to property
- Intimidation
- Conduct that may endanger the health or safety of others

Once the report has been filed, the Title IX investigators will determine whether the incident meets the definition of sexual misconduct on the basis of sex/gender.

Privileged Communication and Confidential Sources

Privileged and confidential communication about Title IX matters lies with the following Grace Schools employees:

1. Licensed counselors or interns supervised by one in the Grace College Health and Counseling Center
2. Administrative staff in the Grace College Health and Counseling Center
3. Dean of the Chapel (campus chaplain)
4. Campus nurse
5. Grace College athletic trainer

Confidentiality only extends to these employees when they are functioning in the role for which they were hired, not when they are in another capacity. Other faculty and staff with similar credentials do not have privileged communication related to Title IX complaints because they were not hired to fulfill the role for which they are credentialed.

Employees without privileged communication cannot guarantee confidentiality, but do make reasonable efforts to maintain the privacy of those involved.

There are some situations in which even those with privileged communication may be required by law to bring certain matters to the attention of law enforcement. For example, counselors are required by law to report when an individual is a threat to harm himself/herself/others, including suicidal and homicidal thoughts and child or sexual abuse.

Protected Characteristics

Race, color, national origin, age, sex, or disability in the administration of its educational, scholarship, and loan policies. Race, color, sex (except when it is a bona fide occupational qualification), pregnancy, age, ancestry, national origin, disability, citizenship status, military status, genetic information or other protected class in administration of its employment policies.

Quid Pro Quo Harassment

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature by a person having power or authority over another constitutes sexual harassment when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of rating or evaluating an individual's educational or employment progress, development, or performance. This includes when submission to such conduct would be a condition for access to receiving the benefits of any educational or employment program.

Reporting Party

The person alleging to have experienced a violation of this campus sexual misconduct policy.

Responding Party

The person who is alleged to have violated this campus sexual misconduct policy.

Responsible Employee

According to Title IX, a responsible employee is anyone who:

1. Has the authority to take action to redress the harassment,
2. Has the duty to report harassment or other misconduct to appropriate officials, or
3. Is someone a student could reasonably believe has this authority or responsibility

“Responsible employees” do not have privileged communication at the institution and have a responsibility to report the complaint to Grace’s Title IX Office. Responsible employees at Grace are all regular and part-time employees of the institution including senior administration, deans, chairs, coaches, resident directors, campus safety officers, human resources staff, and other employees. Resident assistants (student employees) are also “responsible employees” because they are mandated to report other instances of misconduct that violate Grace policy.

Retaliation

Individuals participating in a whistleblowing or civil rights investigation are entitled to certain protections as a result of that participation. Retaliation is defined as:

1. Any adverse action, such as intimidation, threats, coercion, or any type of discrimination
2. Taken against an individual participating in a protected activity because of the individual’s informal or formal complaint or participation in a protected activity (subject to limitations imposed by the First Amendment and/or academic freedom)
3. For the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title VI
4. Or because s/he has made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under this regulation

This includes whistleblowing and participation in an investigation of discrimination or sexual misconduct or support of someone involved in an investigation of discrimination or sexual misconduct.

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

Effective: 8/15/17

Administration and Compliance

For the purposes of this policy, retaliation includes but is not limited to intimidation, threats, or harassment by or to any reporting or responding party, witness, or third party or on their behalf.

Sexual Assault

Non-consensual sexual contact

Any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by a person upon another person that is without consent and/or by force. Sexual contact includes intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals; or touching another with any of these body parts; or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; or any other intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner.

Non-consensual sexual intercourse

Non-consensual sexual intercourse is any sexual intercourse, however slight, with any object, by a person upon another person that is without consent and/or by force. Intercourse includes vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger; and/or oral copulation (mouth-to-genital contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact.

Sexual Exploitation

Sexual exploitation occurs when one person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses. It includes voyeurism, invasion of sexual privacy, prostitution, nonconsensual video or audio recording or broadcasting of sexual activity, exceeding boundaries of consent (e.g., allowing others to observe sexual activity without the consent of both parties) and knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted infection or disease.

Sexual Harassment

Any uninvited sexual advances, touching, fondling, or bodily contact, requests for sexual favors, other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, and any other contact that creates or tends to produce a hostile environment based on an individual's sex. Sexual harassment may be conduct that is verbal, written, online and/or physical and includes quid pro quo and retaliatory harassment. It must be sufficiently serious that it unreasonably limits an individual's ability to participate in or benefit from the activities of Grace College and Seminary. Although some offensive behavior may not meet the definition of sexual harassment, such behavior may nonetheless be unprofessional in the workplace, disruptive in the classroom, or violate other institutional policies and could warrant remedial actions and/or discipline. Examples of actions

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

Effective: 8/15/17

Administration and Compliance

that may constitute sexual harassment, whether the harasser is a co-worker, supervisor, student, faculty, member, or vendor, include:

1. Unsolicited, unwelcome, persistent flirtation or advances; demands or requests for dates; sexual favors or social or sexual encounters.
2. Unwanted touching such as patting, pinching, hugging, or repeated brushing against the individual's body;
3. Unsolicited and unwelcome comments or behavior of a sexual nature or that are demeaning to women or men as a group (for example, offensive or vulgar jokes, name-calling, comments about one's body or sex life, stereotyping based on a person's sex, touching, leering, patting, pinching, indecent exposure, physical gestures, or displaying sexually explicit photographs or objects that interfere with a reasonable person's work).
4. Unwarranted displays of sexually suggestive objects or pictures.
5. An explicit or implicit promise of preferential treatment with regard to a person's employment in exchange for sexual favors or activity.
6. The use of one's submission to or rejection of sexual conduct as the basis for making, influencing, or affecting an employment decision that has an impact upon the terms and conditions of the individual's employment (for example, hiring, firing, promotion, demotion, compensation, benefits, or working conditions).

Sexual Misconduct

Sexual misconduct is defined broadly under this policy and includes non-consensual sexual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct with a minor, sexual violence, child molesting, and sex discrimination, which are defined within this policy. Sexual misconduct is a violation of Grace policy, state and federal civil rights laws, and may violate state and federal criminal laws. Sexual misconduct can occur between strangers or acquaintances, including people involved in an intimate or sexual relationship; committed by both men and women; and can occur between people of the same or different sex. (See also "Other Misconduct.")

Sexual Violence

Physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or when a person is incapable of giving consent (for example, due to the individual's age or use of drugs or alcohol, or because an intellectual or other disability prevents the individual from having the capacity to give consent). A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual coercion, unwanted touching, domestic violence, dating violence, and sexually motivated stalking. Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment.

Stalking

Stalking is a course of conduct directed at a specific person that is unwelcome and would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety others or suffer substantial emotional distress, or repetitive and menacing pursuit, following, harassing, and/or interfering with the peace and/or safety of another. For the purposes of this definition:

1. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person or interferes with a person's property.
2. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
3. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Student

For the purposes of this policy, a "student" is defined as any individual who is enrolled at Grace College or Seminary at the time of the alleged sexual misconduct (including those enrolled in off-campus experiences such as student teaching, study abroad, or internships) or during an academic break if there is an expectation of the student's continued enrollment.

Threatening Conduct

Threatening conduct is intimidation, causing physical harm, extreme abuse, or other conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of another person.

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states that no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. Sexual misconduct and discriminatory behavior are examples of Title IX violations and violations are not limited to athletics.

Title IX Protections

Title IX protects students and employees from sexual harassment or violence by any school employee, student, or non-employee third party in a school's education programs and activities. It protects third parties from sexual harassment or violence in a school's education programs and activities.

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

Effective: 8/15/17

Administration and Compliance

Title IX Scope

Title IX protects students in connection with all academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic, and other programs of the school, whether those programs take place in a school's facilities, on a school's bus, at a class or training program sponsored by the school at another location, or elsewhere, and from the continuing effects of off-campus sexual harassment in the educational setting.

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is a broad-based law formulated in 1994 in response to the increasing violence against women in America. The Act is notable for calling attention to the issues of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

REPORTING TIMELINES

Anyone wanting to report misconduct that is the subject of this policy is encouraged to do so within 90 days of the alleged incident.

Although there is no time limit to making a report of sexual misconduct, in order to preserve evidence, maximize Grace's ability to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation, provide remedies and support, determine any disciplinary action, and prevent further harm to those at risk, individuals are encouraged to report alleged misconduct immediately to Graces' Title IX Office.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU HAVE BEEN HARASSED OR DISCRIMINATED AGAINST

Let someone know right away. You can expect your complaint to be taken seriously.

You are not required to approach an individual about unwelcome behavior, but if you feel comfortable doing so, let the individual who is causing the problem know that it is not acceptable conduct and ask him or her to stop. Some individuals are not aware their behavior is offensive, apologize, and stop the offensive behavior.

If you do not feel comfortable approaching the individual, you should contact the Title IX Coordinator or one of the Title IX Investigators.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU HAVE BEEN VICTIM OF OR WITNESSED ANY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Individuals who have been the victim of or witnessed sexual misconduct that is the subject of this policy should take the following immediate steps:

1. For emergency response procedures and resources, students or employees living locally (near the Winona Lake campus) are strongly urged to call 911 immediately following the assault. Local individuals may also call the Winona Lake Police Department (574-267-

8622), the Warsaw Police Department (574-372-9511), or Grace’s Campus Safety Office (574-269-5344). Those not living near the Winona Lake campus should call 911 or their local law enforcement office. (See also “Local Assistance.”)

- a. Victims of sexual assault may request that authorities refer to them using a pseudonym when making a report to law enforcement to preserve confidentiality, but law enforcement will generally require individuals to supply their real name to authorities.
  - b. Interviews with law enforcement professionals will also include options related to filing criminal charges and the pursuit of a restraining or protective order.
2. Reporting parties or witnesses may also notify Grace’s Campus Safety Office, the Grace Counseling Center, or the Student Affairs Office with the understanding that not all employees in these offices have privileged communication or can provide confidentiality.
  3. Seek medical, law enforcement, counseling, and/or mental health help for immediate health, safety, and well-being protections. Medical care is also recommended for preventive treatment, sexually transmitted diseases, and other health services.
  4. To avoid destroying forensic evidence, individuals who have been sexually assaulted should not bathe, shower, or change clothing until evidence can be evaluated and preserved. Medical treatment such as a rape kit may also preserve evidence.
  5. If a reporting party wants the details of the incident to remain confidential, then the report should be made to one of the individuals with privileged communication including the campus’ professional counselors or interns, the chaplain, athletic trainer, or the campus nurse rather than the Title IX Office.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU WITNESSED AN INCIDENT OF HARASSMENT

If you have witnessed behavior that is the subject of this policy, report it as soon as possible to the Title IX Office even if the behavior is directed at someone else.

Witnesses who are also employees of Grace Schools are considered “responsible employees” under this policy and are required to report incidents to the Title IX Office.

Examples of conduct that may violate this policy include sexual and other harassment, sexual violence, and other discriminatory behavior.

RESPONSIBLE EMPLOYEE OBLIGATIONS WHEN RECEIVING A REPORT OF VIOLENCE

First call 911 and the Grace College Campus Safety Office if there is an immediate safety or medical need related to those subject to or witnessing the incident or to the campus community.

Explain to the reporting party that this may be a violation of Grace policy, your responsibility to report it to the Title IX Office, and the limits of confidentiality as they pertain to your role on campus.

Contact the Title IX Office as soon as possible to report the potential campus policy violation.

Responsible employees do not conduct an investigation, but should be prepared to provide all pertinent information from the reporting party to the Title IX Office, which will determine the need for an investigation.

OBLIGATIONS OF GRACE COLLEGE AND SEMINARY

1. As a recipient of federal funding, Grace is required to comply with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972, 10 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. (Title IX). Title IX is a federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including pregnancy and sexual misconduct, in educational programs and activities.
2. When Grace learns directly or indirectly that policy violations related to sexual misconduct and harassment may have occurred, it is obligated to conduct an impartial, fair, thorough, and timely investigation. Such investigations will only occur if Grace has the ability to control the actions of student, non-student, or employee respondents and/or the on-/off-campus experience at the time of the reported incident.
3. Grace will provide the reporting party and the responding party equitable rights during the investigative process.
4. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to Grace's attention, and a responding party is found to have violated this policy, Grace will issue appropriate sanctions to prevent future misconduct.
5. Grace publishes on its web site an Annual Safety Report to meet its obligations under the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990 and the Jeanne Clery Act of 1998. It includes safety policies, procedures, and reports as well as crime statistics.
6. The Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights has interpreted Title IX to require institutions to evaluate evidence of alleged sexual misconduct under a "preponderance of the evidence" standard. A preponderance of the evidence means that the evidence shows that it is more likely than not that the responding party violated this Sexual Misconduct Policy. In the context of the investigation, the responding party will be found responsible for sexual misconduct if the two Title IX Investigators conducting the investigation conclude that the violation more likely than not occurred based upon careful review of all evidence presented. Responding parties are presumed not responsible unless sufficient information is presented to show that it is more likely than not that they are responsible.

7. Grace reserves the right to determine whether a formal investigation of the conduct described in the report is feasible and/or constitutes sufficient risk to the Grace community. Sexual misconduct that occurred a great distance from the Winona Lake campus, at another location operated by Grace, or at a field experience or study abroad site, will likely be more difficult to investigate. Grace may also determine that an effective investigation may not be possible due to the passage of time, because the responding party is no longer a student or employee of the institution, or because the report, if substantiated, does not violate this policy.
8. Independent of decisions made by the reporting party or witnesses, Grace retains the right to investigate in cases of offenses alleged by or against a Grace student or employee and impose disciplinary action if responsibility is determined. If the reporting party also makes a police report, the Title IX investigators may not wait on the outcome of a police or criminal investigation to complete their own investigation.
9. Grace reserves the right to determine whether to pursue a policy violation by students or employees other than the responding party, including a reporting party or witnesses. In order to encourage reports, however, Grace administrators may choose to deal with these policy violations in ways other than disciplinary action.
10. Grace will investigate, to the greatest extent possible, anonymous or confidential reports of conduct violating this policy.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU MAKE A REPORT TO THE TITLE IX OFFICE

1. Verbal or written reports (grievances) of sexual harassment or misconduct or other behavior that is the subject of this policy against students, faculty, staff, or a third party should be reported to the Title IX Office. Reports should include the result the reporting party desires. Reports/grievances will be handled through the procedures outlined in this policy and not by mediation.
2. The identity of reporting parties will only be shared with those who have a need to know during the investigatory process.
3. When an initial report is made to a responsible employee, that employee notifies the Title IX Office, which determines the need for an investigation, consulting with one or more Title IX Investigators as needed. It may also include an initial meeting with the reporting party. If it is determined that a formal investigation is needed, two Title IX investigators are typically assigned to conduct interviews with anyone who may have information pertaining to the report.

4. Informal inquiries and resolution may occur in situations in which the Title IX Office determines that the report does not violate this Sexual Misconduct Policy or both parties involved desire to resolve the situation cooperatively, but the reported behavior nonetheless adversely affects the educational or employment environment. Informal inquiries may include inquiry into the facts, but are not considered formal investigations. They may also involve follow-up to assure effective implementation of the resolution. Some reports will not be appropriate for informal resolution.
5. In the initial meeting with the reporting party, Title IX investigators provide assistance in obtaining needed resources, explain reporting options, and help navigate the reporting process, including maintaining confidentiality pending investigation.
6. Initial meetings by the Title IX investigators with any of the parties involved include consideration of immediate safety, support, or other measures needed to assure the well-being of those affected by the incident and the Grace community as a whole. Immediate steps may include changing housing; changing work or academic schedules; withdrawal from/retaking a class without penalty; accessing academic support such as tutoring; referral to counseling; suspension pending an investigation; referral to disability, immigration, or legal services; or the issuing of no contact and/or campus separation directives. Pending action on the notices of possible violations, Grace will not automatically alter the status of the responding party, including his/her right to be present on campus and attend classes. Exceptions may be made for reasons relating to the physical or emotional safety and well-being of students, faculty, and staff of Grace.
7. If a formal investigation is needed, typically two Title IX investigators gather facts by interviewing the reporting party, the responding party, witnesses, and any others who may have relevant information or as requested by the reporting and responding parties. They may also request copies of texts, images or other content from social media accounts; documents; other physical evidence or information that will help them investigate the complaint. Disclosure of facts will be limited to what is reasonably necessary for the Title IX Office to conduct a fair and thorough investigation.
8. Reporting parties will be advised of the range of possible outcomes of the report and sanctions against the responding party if responsibility is determined.
9. The responding party will be provided a copy of the written complaint or otherwise informed of the substance of the allegation, but this may be delayed until after the responding party provides a statement to the Title IX Investigators. Responding parties have the right to make statements about their own conduct and the conduct of others without harassment.

10. If, in trying to contact the responding party that individual cannot be located, the Title IX Office will document its attempts at notification.
11. If, in trying to resolve the complaint in a timely manner, the Title IX Investigators are unable to schedule an interview with a witness within a reasonable amount of time, the investigators may rely on a written statement from the witness.
12. Both the reporting party and the responding party may request one advocate, advisor, or third party be present during the investigatory interview to provide support; however, they may not participate in the interview process, speak on behalf of the parties, or speak directly to the investigators or to witnesses. Title IX Investigators reserve the right to ask an advocate or advisor to leave the interview if she or he is disruptive to the interview.
13. Attorneys may be retained by the reporting or responding party at their own expense. Although they may consult privately with the parties involved, attorneys may function in a support role only and not speak directly to the Title IX Investigators, witnesses, or other party.
14. The Title IX Investigators make a determination as to whether the responding party violated Grace policy based on a preponderance of evidence (i.e., more likely than not to have happened) then decide sanctions, responsive actions, and/or remedies and support. Further, evidence of a prior consensual dating or sexual relationship between the parties by itself does not imply consent or preclude a finding of sexual misconduct.
15. The Title IX Office makes every reasonable effort to complete its investigation and determine any policy violations within 60 days of receiving the initial report. Institutional breaks and the availability of witnesses may delay that timeline.

NOTIFICATION OF FINAL DECISION

Reporting parties have the right to information, upon request, about the disposition of their reports. Reports of violence, sexual harassment, and sexual assault will receive the final disposition of the outcome in writing.

Grace College and Seminary complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistic Act (Clery Act). Under this act, both the reporting party and the responding are to be informed of the outcome of the investigation.

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

Effective: 8/15/17

Administration and Compliance

If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, the information shall be provided, upon request, to the next of kin of the alleged victim.

Generally, written notice of the outcome of reports of violence, sexual harassment, and sexual assault will be provided to both parties and include, as required by the Clery Act, the following:

1. Name of the responding party
2. Violations for which this individual was found responsible, if any
3. Essential findings supporting the decision on the issue of responsibility
4. Sanction(s) imposed, if any

This notification will not require either party to abide by a non-disclosure agreement, in writing or otherwise, that would prevent the re-disclosure of information related to the outcome of the proceeding. In addition to written notification, the Title IX Office makes reasonable attempts to meet individually with the reporting and responding parties regarding the outcome of the complaint.

Final decisions of formal investigations will generally be determined in the following ways:

1. Substantiated: It is more likely than not that the allegation is true.
2. Unsubstantiated: It is more likely than not that the allegation is untrue. A finding that the allegation is unsubstantiated does not indicate that the complaint was improper, knowingly false, or not made in good faith.
3. Undetermined: It is not possible or there is insufficient evidence to determine whether the allegation is true or untrue.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND PARENTAL NOTIFICATIONS

The Title IX Office does not automatically notify law enforcement upon receiving a report of sexual misconduct, nor does it determine the instigation or pursuit of any criminal investigation if the reporting party decides to file a criminal complaint. The reporting party, therefore, should make the decision about whether to file a report with law enforcement and to pursue prosecution through the criminal court system, but is not required to do either. The Title IX Office or its representative will assist the reporting party in notifying law enforcement if the reporting party requests this assistance.

Reporting parties also have the right to report any criminal activity to campus authorities, including campus safety and student affairs staff. This option is available even if the reporting party chooses not to report the incident to law enforcement.

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

The Title IX Office may independently notify law enforcement, however, if it determines that the safety of the reporting or responding parties, witnesses, or the campus community is at risk regardless of whether the reporting party notifies law enforcement.

The Title IX Office does not automatically notify the parents of either the reporting or responding party, but it may do so if it determines that a student's life, health, or safety is at risk or that the campus community is at risk.

CAMPUS DIRECTIVES AND PROTECTIVE ORDERS

Grace does not issue protective orders; however, it does issue no-contact and campus separation directives.

Reporting parties may seek an order of protection, restraining order, or other similar lawful court order, but is not required to do so. Grace or the local victim's service center can assist parties in understanding their legal options. Information can be requested from Grace's Campus Safety or Title IX Offices. Grace will comply with and enforce lawful protective orders.

REQUESTS FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

If the reporting party requests that their name not be disclosed to the responding party or that no investigation or disciplinary action be pursued, it may limit the Title IX Office's ability to investigate a particular matter including pursuing sanctions against the reporting party.

In such cases, the Title IX Office will determine whether the institution can honor such a request while still providing a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for the campus community, including the student or employee who reported the sexual violence.

Factors used to consider the request for confidentiality include, but are not limited to:

1. Increased risk of additional violence by the responding party, for example:
  - a. Other complaints about the same individual
  - b. History of violence from arrests/records from a previous school
  - c. Responding party threatened further violence
2. Increased risk of additional violence under similar circumstances, such a pattern of violence at a given location, at the same event, or with a certain group
3. Whether sexual violence was perpetrated with a weapon
4. Age of the reporting party or responding party
5. Whether the institution has other means to obtain evidence, such as security cameras or personnel, other students in a classroom, or physical evidence

Policy: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct

6. Ability to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for the campus community

In granting requests for confidentiality, Grace will take steps to reduce the effects of the alleged sexual misconduct and prevent its recurrence without initiating formal action against the alleged perpetrator or revealing the identity of the student complainant. Examples include providing increased monitoring, supervision, or security at locations or activities where the misconduct reportedly occurred; providing training and education materials for students and employees; revising and publicizing the school's policies on sexual misconduct; and conducting climate surveys regarding sexual misconduct.

The Office of Civil Rights (OCR) does not require an employee who has a professional license requiring confidentiality, or is supervised by one, to report incidents of sexual violence in a way that identifies the student without the student's consent. Grace employees who are licensed and have privileged communication should still report general information about an incident of sexual violence without reporting personally identifiable information as well as encourage the student to make a report to the Title IX Office.

OCR recognizes that some people who provide assistance to students who experience sexual violence are not professional or pastoral counselors. They include all individuals who work in on-campus health centers, such as front desk staff and students. Because the OCR believes that students should be able to seek their assistance, it gives schools the latitude not to require these individuals to report incidents of sexual violence in a way that identifies the student without the student's consent. Grace recognizes, therefore, the administrative staff of the Health and Counseling Center as designated confidential sources.

Confidential sources as noted above should inform students of their right to file both a Title IX complaint with Grace and a separate complaint with local law enforcement. In addition to informing students about campus resources for counseling, medical, and academic support, these individuals should also indicate that they are available to assist students in filing such complaints. They should also explain that Title IX includes protections against retaliation, and that school officials will not only take steps to prevent retaliation but also take strong responsive action if it occurs.

In order to identify patterns or systemic problems related to sexual violence, Grace collects aggregate data about sexual violence incidents from confidential sources. These sources report only general information about incidents of sexual violence such as the nature, date, time, and general location of the incident. Confidential sources take care to avoid reporting personally identifiable information about a student and should consult with students regarding what information needs to be withheld to protect their identity.

To seek confidential guidance and support at any time during the process, including prior to making an official report to the Title IX Office, individuals may contact:

1. Counselors employed or interning in the Grace College Health and Counseling Center
2. Administrative staff in the Grace College Health and Counseling Center
3. Grace College Dean of the Chapel (campus chaplain)
4. Grace College campus nurse
5. Grace College athletic trainer
6. Kosciusko Community Hospital, 2101 E. DuBois Drive, Warsaw, 574-267-3200
7. Warsaw Victim Services Center, 600 East Winona Ave, #8, Warsaw, 574-269-9112

Individuals who do not live locally but desire confidential guidance and support should contact the director of Grace's counseling center for assistance in seeking confidential resources.

Because content of discussions with confidential resources is not reported to the Title IX Office, such discussions do not serve as notice to Grace College to address the alleged discrimination or harassment.

SANCTIONS FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Grace reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary in response to a report of sexual misconduct in order to protect the rights and personal safety of students, employees, and others in the Grace community. Sanctions are designed to stop the misconduct, prevent its recurrence, and provide remedies and supports within the mission of Grace College and Seminary and its Title IX obligations.

Such measures include, but are not limited to, modification of living arrangements, interim suspension from campus pending an investigation, and reporting the matter to local police.

Not all forms of sexual misconduct are deemed equally serious offenses, and Grace reserves the right to impose different sanctions, up to and including expulsion (students) or termination (employees), depending on the severity of the offense.

If the Title IX Office determines that the report does not violate the Sexual Misconduct Policy but nonetheless affects the work or educational environment, then an informal resolution may be sought. Options for informal resolution include referral for counseling, separation of the parties, or focused training or education.

---

If the responding party is found responsible, the Title IX Investigators will make the final determination of sanctions, but will consult with others as needed to make this determination. For students found responsible, these consultations may include student affairs staff and faculty advisors. If the responding party is an employee, this consultation may include managers in, or the vice president of, the employee's department.

In determining sanctions for any person found responsible for violating this policy of sexual misconduct, the severity of the incident, any previous disciplinary violations, and any other relevant factors such as use of weapons, forcible injuries, prior criminal history, patterns of behavior, and risk to the campus community will be taken into consideration.

Possible sanctions include but are not limited to the following:

Student Sanctions

- Warning — written or verbal
- Probation
- Student Growth Contract
- Institutional sanctions consistent with the conditions of disciplinary probation (e.g., loss of leadership positions) as well as others such as loss of honors society membership, prohibiting applying for campus employment positions of authority, or not providing letters of reference
- Community restitution
- Off-campus community service
- Restriction of campus privileges
- Required training or education
- Required accountability
- Required counseling
- Academic rescheduling
- Residential re-location
- Rescheduling or termination of campus employment
- Suspension
- Transcript notation
- Withholding diploma
- Revocation of degree
- Expulsion
- Other actions or restrictions

Employee Sanctions

- Warning — written or verbal
- Performance improvement plan
- Community restitution
- Required training or education
- Required counseling
- Reassignment or rescheduling of work, hours, and/or location
- Demotion
- Loss of annual pay increase
- Suspension with pay
- Suspension without pay
- Termination

AMNESTY FROM OTHER CONDUCT POLICY VIOLATIONS

Grace understands that sometimes reports of sexual misconduct include the admission of the use of drugs and/or alcohol by some or all of the parties involved, including witnesses. Reporting parties and witnesses of sexual misconduct making reports that include their use of drugs or alcohol will not be disciplined by the institution for policy violations related to substance use or other community lifestyle violations; however, there may be follow-up discussions with student affairs staff regarding restoration.

Although Grace reserves the right to determine whether to pursue a policy violation by students or employees other than the responding party, including a reporting party or witnesses, in order to encourage reports Grace may choose to deal with these policy violations in ways other than disciplinary action.

Drug, alcohol, or other student life or conduct policy violations, however, will be considered when sanctions are determined for the responding party found responsible for the sexual misconduct. The use of drugs, alcohol, or related substances is not an acceptable defense to a report filed under this policy.

THIRD PARTIES AND VENDORS

When sexual misconduct cases include responding parties who are vendors or other business associates of Grace, the institution reserves the right to end or alter such business relationships in order to protect the safety of the Grace community.

FALSE ALLEGATIONS

Grace College and Seminary takes reports of sexual misconduct very seriously and recognizes the potential consequences on those involved. Individuals who knowingly or with malicious intent provide false information when reporting sexual misconduct or during an investigation of sexual misconduct may be subject to disciplinary action. Reports that are unsubstantiated or undetermined are not assumed to be false.

TITLE IX OFFICE

The Title IX Office is comprised of a trained coordinator and trained investigators.

The Title IX Coordinator is a designated Grace employee assigned to coordinate the institution’s efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination in all operations of Grace College and Seminary as well as retaliation for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX. The Title IX Coordinator has the primary responsibilities of investigation, oversight, and resolution of reports of sexual misconduct.

ADDITIONAL REPORTING OPTIONS

If any of the parties involved raise issues related to potential conflicts of interest of a Title IX investigator, this conflict should be reported to an investigator in the Title IX Office who does not have the conflict.

If the Title IX Coordinator is the person alleged to have violated this policy or has a conflict of interest, the report may be filed with Grace’s president, who will appoint another investigator.

PREVENTION AND EDUCATION

The Title IX Coordinator and Title IX Investigators attend annual training that includes topics such as the law, best practices, investigation skills and considerations, trauma-informed interviewing, and institutional policy development.

All employees receive annual training regarding what Title IX and sexual misconduct are, institutional policies, and procedures about how and when to make a report about sexual misconduct. Grace's on-campus vendors are also trained about Title IX and how to make a report.

Students and student leaders are educated annually to promote the awareness of sexual assault and sexual misconduct, including those that are the subject of this policy; how to report such offenses; and how to provide support to a student who has experienced a physical or sexual offense. Campus safety also provides basic information regarding safety and reporting procedures.

Printed materials about Title IX and accessing help are available to all campus employees and to students. These same printed materials are also available at locations on campus such as the athletics office, student affairs, the health and counseling center, campus safety, career services, the chaplain's office, and with resident directors. They are also available on the portal.

COUNSELING, ADVOCACY, AND SUPPORT ON- AND OFF-CAMPUS

Grace’s Health and Counseling Center, located in the Gordon Recreation Center, provides counseling, support, and assistance for students who experienced conduct that is the subject of this policy regardless of whether the incident happened on campus, was perpetrated by another Grace student or employee, or whether a they choose to make an official report or participate in the institutional disciplinary or criminal process. The institution’s counseling center provides counseling support to local students who experienced sexual misconduct or to others who are local and affected by the conduct.

In addition, the Grace Health and Counseling Center provides more information about local resources for students and witnesses attending the Winona Lake campus and assists in making referrals for employees or commuter, online, and other Grace students who desire counseling, support, or information in their local communities.

Local, off-campus advocates are available through the Victim Services Center in Warsaw, Indiana. They offer crisis counseling, information and referrals, personal advocacy to victims of violent crime and their families, and public education/awareness on violent crime victimization.
