3. Maintain ongoing correspondence with prospective student-athletes and their families and serve as an information resource.
4. Monitor prospective student status and input data into a database to keep track of recruiting details.
5. Give campus tours to prospects.
6. Negotiate incentives to recruit student-athletes.
- c. Handle all fundraising efforts of the sport:
 1. Research fundraising opportunities to determine appropriate projects to initiate.
 2. Develop creative fundraising activities and assure all details are managed appropriately.
- d. Manage the team scholarship program.

4. Student Mentoring and Leadership:

- a. Be a leader among the student-athletes.
- b. Assist with the discipleship of the student-athletes under your care by conducting Bible studies, meeting with players one-on-one, and being available for the team members.
- c. Coordinate in-season or out-of-season trips for team members in order to establish team unity and cohesiveness.
- d. Establish an environment in which athletes can gain self-esteem and develop a positive self-image.
- e. Demonstrate an interest in the classroom efforts and off-season activities of your student-athletes, including periodic monitoring of academic progress of program participants.
- f. Provide leadership that promotes positive attitudes and good sportsmanship.
- g. Work with student athletes in a fair, understanding, and tolerant manner.
- h. Notify in writing all members of the team of policies, procedures, and training rules as they pertain to the team. Provide a copy to the Athletics Director at the beginning of each season.
- i. Be responsible for the conduct of the student-athletes at practices and games.
- j. Promote unity within the coaching staff and within the framework of the athletic department.
- k. Provide ongoing individual support and guidance for team members.
- l. Monitor the academic status of each athlete to assure team members are maintaining eligibility.

5. Supervision:

- a. Supervise regular and student employees to include interviewing, hiring, training, planning, assigning and directing work, coaching, appraising performance, rewarding and disciplining employees, addressing complaints and resolving problems.
- b. Must have a mindset of mentoring employees under supervision. Should be able to lead in a way that sets a good example, promotes teamwork, and encourages a positive, efficient work environment.

6. Other Duties:

- a. Be responsible for awards presentations for your sport.
- b. Establish winning teams within the bounds of good sportsmanship:
 1. Develop teamwork, morale, sportsmanship, courtesy, fair play, academic excellence, and strict adherence to rules of training and conduct.
 2. Promote the attitude among student athletes and coaches that winning is important but is secondary to good sportsmanship and the overall welfare of the athlete.
