ABOUT GRACE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

A Rich History

Grace College Theological Seminary had its beginning as the result of an informal meeting in June 1937. Deeply concerned about the inroads of modern unbelief in higher education, a number of Brethren pastors and laymen came together for earnest prayer and counsel in Ashland, Ohio. The group laid plans for founding an institution of higher theological education where positive biblical standards of Christian faith and life could be established and maintained.

The founding board called Dr. Alva J. McClain to be president of this new institution, Grace Theological Seminary. He brought to this position high attainment of scholarship and wide experience as a successful pastor and master teacher. A competent faculty was convened, and the school opened its first annual session in Akron, Ohio, in the fall of 1937 with a student body of thirty-nine. Grace Theological Seminary received its legal charter on April 8, 1938.

The circumstances under which the school was founded, its clear Christian testimony, and its educational ideals aroused widespread interest among Christian leaders and schools of like precious faith throughout this country.

After the organization of the seminary, Dr. W. E. Biederwolf, Director of the Winona Lake Bible Conference, along with other Christian leaders, encouraged that the seminary be moved to Winona Lake. The administration and board agreed, and the seminary relocated in 1939.

The seminary experienced steady growth, even during the years of World War II. New degree programs were offered, regional accreditation was achieved, and graduates went out to serve the Lord as pastors, missionaries, teachers, chaplains, and leaders in other types of Christian ministries around the world. Faculty members were kept busy, not only as effective classroom teachers and mentors, but also as visiting lecturers in other institutions, in churches, and in Bible conference ministries. The faculty of Grace Theological Seminary has authored scores of books, contributed many articles to scholarly and religious journals, and assisted in the production of Bible translations, such as the New American Standard Bible, the New International Version, the New King James Version, and the New Living Bible.

In 1991 a special consortium was held with Christian ministry leaders from across the United States. As a result, the mission and values of the school were redrafted based on the goal of translating the distinctives and the unchanging doctrinal foundation into the contemporary world in which graduates minister. Shortly thereafter, a major revision in the Master of Divinity curriculum was implemented and the Doctor of Ministry program was added to provide professional education for pastors and other ministry leaders.

The seminary programs are part of the Grace College School of Ministry Studies. Grace College is an accredited four-year liberal arts college with a strong Christian emphasis. It was under the sponsorship of Grace Theological Seminary that Grace College came into existence in 1948.

Grace Theological Seminary is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, the Association of Theological Schools, and the Association of Christian Schools International. Grace Theological Seminary in cooperation with the International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) and is accredited to grant CEU's for qualified training.

An Ideal Community

Grace Theological Seminary is located in the town of Winona Lake, in north central Indiana. Situated near the shores of Winona Lake, one of the largest of the more than 100 lakes in Kosciusko County, the campus is close to a number of scenic and recreational attractions. With Chicago 120 miles to the northwest and Fort Wayne 40 miles to the east, easy access to these metropolitan centers is available by way of U.S. Highway 30. Once the home of evangelist Billy Sunday, William Jennings Bryan, James Whitcomb Riley, and Homer Rodeheaver, the community offers a wealth of history and tradition. It was the site of the historic Winona Lake Bible Conference, which for several years operated under the auspices of Grace College and Theological Seminary. Winona Lake is a part of the Greater Warsaw area, an expanding area with a healthy economy.

Grace offers many opportunities for activities and facilities available to undergraduate, graduate, and seminary students. Seminarians may participate in such activities as Symphony of the Lakes, Symphonic Chorus, plays, intramural athletics, outreach efforts, athletic events, a student union, dining commons, and a sports and recreation center.

For seminarians, Winona Lake, Warsaw, and nearby communities provide opportunities for affordable housing, part-time and full-time employment, and the kind of high community standards typical of the tradition of the Midwestern United States. In addition, the region offers ministry opportunities through local churches, hospital chaplain assistantships, prison ministries, and other organizations.

A Traditional Campus

The William Male Center for Seminary and Graduate Studies houses the seminary, undergraduate Department of Biblical Studies, Korean Studies Program, and Worship Arts Program as well as faculty offices and classrooms, performance areas, and studio spaces.

McClain Hall, a handsome red brick Georgian building named in honor of the founding president, Dr. Alva J. McClain, houses the offices of the President, Advancement, Marketing, as well as classrooms. Built in 1950–51, the structure includes an auditorium seating approximately 550, and the prayer tower.

Indiana Hall, a student service center/residence hall, provides student housing for more than 100 students and administrative offices for Student Affairs, Student Involvement, Center for Career Connections, Academic Services, SPOE(School of Professional Online Education, Student Employment as well as the Student Services Hub including student accounts, registrar and financial aid services.

The Morgan Library, constructed in 1969, is a multilevel facility housing a collection of over 600,000 items and the Learning Center. The library-learning center provides research and writing assistance, group and quiet study spaces, and a wide variety of resources to meet students academic needs. The Morgan Library also houses 2 classrooms, and 3D printing room.

The Library-Learning Center staff includes professional staff, librarians, and dozens of student assistants who are available to help students with their research and writing. Staff can be reached by phone, 574.372.5100 x6290, by email, library@grace.edu, and in person.

The library's website provides access to many of the library and research resources both on and off campus. These include e-books, articles, streaming videos, tutorials, and research tools to make research and writing productive.

Morgan Library is a member of several library consortia which permit onsite access to materials at all academic and seminary libraries in the State of Indiana as well as select seminaries, Bible colleges and Christian universities around the country. Consult the Off-Campus Resource Guide for more information. Interlibrary loan service is also available to Grace students, assuring access to research materials.

The special collections at the Morgan Library include the papers of the American evangelist William A. "Billy" Sunday as well as archives of the Winona Lake Bible Conference, Grace College and Seminary, and the archives of several Charis Fellowship (Grace Brethren) agencies.

Other campus buildings provide facilities for college classrooms, residence halls, administrative offices, Jazzman's Café, Alpha Dining Commons, The Grill, the Gordon Health & Wellness Center and the Manahan Orthopedic Capital Center.

PURPOSE

The School of Ministry Studies seeks to help students to impact the world with the gospel for Jesus Christ. Recognizing the Bible as the authoritative Word of God, the goal of the School is to study it with passion and precision, and to help students prepare for effective ministries.

The School is dedicated to embracing a dynamic spiritual commitment and to engaging thoughtfully with the world around us.

Purpose Statement of Grace Theological Seminary

Grace Theological Seminary is a learning community dedicated to teaching, training, and transforming the whole person for local church and global ministry.

GTS Core Values

1. Biblically Rooted
2. Culturally Sensitive
3. Ministry Focused
4. Academically Excellent
5. Spiritually Transforming

A Spiritual Environment

Intellectual development cannot be the only objective of Grace Theological Seminary for its students. Seminary education must make no less contribution to the student's spiritual life than it does to his or her intellectual growth.

The seminary's faculty and administration recognize that the right kind of spiritual atmosphere can neither be produced nor maintained by human mechanics or techniques. The creation of this atmosphere depends wholly upon the all-sufficient grace of the Lord, flowing through truly regenerated lives—lives that are characterized by walking in His Spirit, submitted to His will, and trusting in His power. Therefore, one of the seminary's primary goals is that all institutional activities be surrounded with an attitude of prayer and devotion centered in Him.

Standards of Conduct

Because of the great responsibility for modeling placed on Christian leaders, all students at Grace Theological Seminary are expected to maintain the highest standards of biblical conviction and conduct. The seminary is not a censoring agency, but expects maturing Christian convictions, concern for the conscience of others, and a willingness to submit to spiritual authority. Although man-made regulations cannot improve on the Christian's standing in Christ, they can strengthen the life and testimony of individuals and the institution. Reasonable standards of conduct therefore are a necessary part of a spiritual community. Accordingly, the seminary's standards of conduct include:

1. The highest standards of Christian conduct in all activities and relationships. In particular, students are expected to maintain proper family relationships and to abstain from improper sexual activities and emotional entanglements.
2. Faithfulness in Christian ministry. Each student is expected to be involved in ministry during his or her time of study on campus. Academic preparation does not take the place of active participation in the local church.
3. Utilization of time to the best advantage by careful study, participation in spiritual activities, faithful attendance in church and at school, and the discerning use of literature, movies, music, television, and the Internet. Because Internet pornography is known to be an increasing problem with students across America, and because immorality happens tragically all too often among spiritual leaders, it is expected that each student will make every effort, through godliness and discipline, to remain morally pure, including forming a same-gender accountability relationship.
4. Abstinance from such practices as gambling, inappropriate social dancing, identification with secret societies, and the use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and tobacco.
5. Avoidance of every form of dishonesty and deceit, including cheating on exams or assignments, failure to meet financial obligations promptly, and negligence in the performance of duties at one's place of employment.
6. Conformity to certain standards of appearance and dress which are maintained in order to strengthen the testimony of the seminary and to promote the general morale of the school.

Details on these matters and other policies are set forth in the Grace College and Theological Seminary student handbook. Grace Theological Seminary reserves the right to discipline or dismiss a student who, in its judgment, does not conform either to the stated regulations governing conduct or to the expressed principles, policies, and programs of the Seminary.

By virtue of their enrollment, students agree to live within the framework of these standards.

Co-curricular Activities

The focus of the mission and educational values of Grace Theological Seminary is pursued by design through the regular curriculum and other co-curricular activities that impact seminary life. These co-curricular activities are intended to further the purpose and objectives of Grace Theological Seminary in an environment of vital Christian fellowship, practical theological study, and ministry skill development. Additional information about these activities, as well as expectations for student involvement, can be found in the Student Handbook. These activities include:

1. Student Socials: at the beginning of the fall semester, the seminary sponsors a gathering for new students and their families as part of the new student orientation activities. This event enables new students and their families to make friends and to fellowship with other seminary student families and with faculty and their families.

2. Chapel: during the fall and spring semesters, chapels are scheduled in order to provide times for leadership development, spiritual refreshment, and worship. Attendance requirements are outlined in the Student Handbook.
3. Days of Worship and Prayer: one day each semester is reserved as a day of worship and prayer. Classes are dismissed for the day and the entire student body and faculty join together in prayer, praise, intercession, and testimony. It is one of the spiritually enriching experiences of the semester.
4. Conference on Mission: recognized missionary executives, authorities, and missionaries are brought to the campus to present the work of their various organizations. This is an annual conference sponsored by the Missions Conference Coordinating Committee. The conference is held jointly with the college student body. Through the conference every student is made aware of opportunities and responsibilities to serve people of any race or culture, locally and globally.
5. Mentoring Groups: students are required to become active, faithful participants of a seminary-sponsored mentoring group during each semester in which they are enrolled for at least one residential class. Groups will meet at various times of the week throughout the semester in an attempt to accommodate students' varying schedules. Any exceptions to this requirement must receive official approval from the Dean of the School of Ministry Studies. Information is available at the Seminary Administrative Office.

Admissions, Expenses, and Financial Aid

General Admission Policies

In addition to the policies listed below, for admission to the Doctor of Ministry program please refer to the Doctor of Ministry section in this catalog for specific admission guidelines that apply.

The basic requirement for entrance into the master's degree programs is a four-year bachelor's degree, or its equivalent (for international students), from a recognized institution of higher learning. Graduates of Bible colleges, liberal arts colleges, and state colleges and universities are encouraged to apply.

Those who are planning to obtain a bachelor's degree in preparation for seminary are encouraged to include both a broad exposure to general education subjects and English Bible courses in their undergraduate studies.

Students able to take Greek or Hebrew language studies at the undergraduate level should note the possibilities for advanced standing that such a course of study offers. Students already having a four-year degree without the opportunity to pursue some of the suggested pre-seminary curriculum are encouraged to do some reading in preparation for seminary. However, the seminary program is designed to allow students to gain a solid biblical foundation for future ministry without pre-seminary educational preparation.

A student who received his or her pre-seminary education at an institution which is not accredited or who achieved less than a 2.5 grade point average in pre-seminary education may be admitted on academic restriction.

Admission Requirement

Since the various curricula and courses of the seminary are designed for those who are capable of undertaking a graduate standard of work, the usual academic requirement for admission is evidence of satisfactory completion of a four-year accredited college or university bachelor's program or the equivalent. Grace has a policy in place for assessing those who have not completed a four-year degree and for those who have a non-accredited four year degree.

In no case, however, will the seminary regard mere academic achievement or high intellectual ability as sufficient to justify admission. There are certain spiritual, moral, and personal qualifications without which any attempt to prepare for the ministry of the gospel can result in nothing but personal tragedy. The seminary administration, therefore, will regard these matters as proper subjects for investigation in all cases and reserves the right to withdraw the privileges of the school from those who after admission may prove to be lacking in these necessary qualifications.

Each applicant is assured of careful consideration regardless of his or her denomination, race, or national origin.

Students who are divorced, remarried after a divorce or married to a divorced spouse will be considered for admission to Grace Theological Seminary. However, additional information and a reference from a pastor acquainted with the situation may be requested.

Application Materials

All students considering entrance to the seminary should make formal application as early as possible in order to get full consideration for financial aid. Financial aid awards are made according to established deadlines. Students applying for financial aid are encouraged to contact the Office of Financial Aid in order to obtain the most recent information on what financial aid is available and the deadlines for financial aid applications.

An online application may be found on the Grace Web site (www.grace.edu/admissions/apply/). An application packet may be secured from the Office of Graduate and Adult Enrollment. The packet includes complete instructions on application procedures. Materials to be submitted to apply for admission include:

1. The application form with all applicable questions answered in full, including an attached written testimony of the student's conversion and spiritual growth over the past few years
2. A Spiritual Reference form
3. In some cases, applicants will need a Ministry Reference
4. Official transcripts from all colleges and/or seminaries attended
5. TOEFL scores (international students only)

In most cases the applicant will be notified of his or her admission status within one week after all application materials have been received by the Director of Seminary Admissions. The Admissions Committee may grant admission on the basis of the credentials named above, may request the applicant to submit additional materials, or ask the applicant to interview with the Dean of the Seminary or another representative of the Seminary.

Advanced Standing

Advanced standing is available at Grace Theological Seminary for students who have prepared themselves in their undergraduate training for seminary studies. Grace recognizes the level of training and study completed at many accredited Bible colleges and Christian liberal arts colleges. Advanced standing will enable students to build on their previous education rather than repeat it. This means that they will spend less time and less money on their seminary training and more time in ministry.

A maximum of 25% of credit hours required for the degree may be earned through Advanced Standing for those entering the Master of Arts or Master of Divinity degree programs (a maximum of 33% is allowed for students in the Accelerated-Program). Classes that are allowed to count for advanced standing will be determined by the faculty and the Dean of Grace Theological Seminary by comparing undergraduate transcripts with the student's chosen program of study. In addition to an examination of the student's transcripts, the following must also take place for advanced standing to be awarded:

- The student must have completed his/her undergraduate studies at an approved school.
- The student must have achieved a "B-" or better in the course for which advanced standing is granted (for Deploy, a "B" or better is required).
- The student must successfully pass the advanced standing examination (when applicable) for selected courses at Grace Theological Seminary.

NOTE: No Advanced Standing may be awarded toward the Master of Ministry Studies Online program.

It is important to note that students applying for advanced standing credit must do so through the Office of the Dean of the Seminary within the first 8 weeks of initial enrollment after they have been officially admitted to Grace Theological Seminary.

Transfer Credits

In the case of transfers from other seminaries with proper academic standards, students will ordinarily be given full credit for work satisfactorily completed up to one-half of the credit hours required for the degree program at Grace in which they are enrolled. Courses transferred in must be substantially equivalent to Grace courses that are part of the student's chosen program, or permission must be granted by the Dean of the Seminary to allow the courses to be used as electives. Credit hours gained through advanced standing reduce the number of transfer hours allowed. The transfer credit limit may be waived for students internally transferring from one Grace College & Theological Seminary program into another Grace College & Theological Seminary program. Any exceptions granted must be for courses of substantially similar academic content and require approval from the Dean and Faculty of the Seminary, as well as the Registrar. Students will be permitted only one program change.

NOTE: The Transfer Credit limit for the Master of Ministry Studies Online program is 9 credits.

In the case where a student has an earned master's degree from another seminary with proper academic standards, credit from that program will be accepted toward the Master of Divinity degree based on the following guidelines:

1. Students with an M.A. degree (including those from Grace College & Theological Seminary) can use up to the 36-hour limit to meet requirements for the M.Div. degree.
2. Students with the M.A. degree can apply credit to other master's programs at Grace College & Theological Seminary only in the amount allowed under the transfer guidelines established (with Deploy requiring a "B" or better for transfer credit).

It is important to note that students applying for transfer credit must do so through the Office of the Dean of the Seminary within the first 8 weeks of initial enrollment after they have been officially admitted to Grace Theological Seminary.

International Students

Students from other countries who have completed a bachelor's degree or its equivalent with a high academic standing are encouraged to apply to the seminary. Such students should be aware, however, that the seminary has limited scholarships and no living subsidies for international students. In addition to the normal application procedures, applicants from other countries must meet the following requirements:

1. A full application is submitted with all the appropriate accompanying material. With the regular materials the student must also supply a certificate showing evidence that he or she has adequate resources for his or her own program of studies in the United States as well as for any dependents, whether they come with the student or remain at home. If the applicant is unable to certify that he or she has personal funding adequate for such purposes, he or she must secure a statement from some responsible organization or individual willing to guarantee the support and care of the dependents, as well as the round-trip tickets and educational and living expenses while in the United States. Grace Theological Seminary will not issue the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) until it receives and approves the completed Financial Certificate guaranteeing these funds, all application materials, and the advance $50.00 payment on tuition and fees.
2. An applicant whose native language is other than English must complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), unless he or she has obtained an accredited bachelor's degree at an English-speaking institution. The TOEFL is a standard test offered at testing centers throughout the world. Information about the test can be obtained by contacting the Educational Testing Service (ETS) directly at: TOEFL Services, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, New Jersey 08541-6151, USA; or contact TOEFL Services on the Web at www.toefl.org, by E-mail toefl@ets.org, or by telephone at 609.711.7500.

Grace Theological Seminary reserves the right to require students to add English courses to their program of study if deemed necessary. A minimum score of 560 (220 computer-based, 83 Internet-based) on the TOEFL is required for admission to Grace Theological Seminary. TOEFL scores should be mailed directly to Grace Theological Seminary by ETS. Our institutional code is 1252. Results will be mailed to the Seminary Admissions Office by placing this code in the appropriate place on the test registration form.

Tuition Deposit

A $100 advance payment on tuition and fees is required of all new students upon receipt of their letter of acceptance and before registration for classes. This payment should be directed to the Office of Graduate and Adult Enrollment. If the student decides to withdraw his or her admission and notifies the Office of Graduate and Adult Enrollment, refunds on tuition will be made according to a schedule established by the Business Office. The Business Office may be contacted for details.

Student Intent

The accepted student will be asked to give their intent to study at GTS. This process will be completed electronically from their Status Portal. This will signify the student's intention to enroll at Grace Theological Seminary and will verify the intended program of study.

Medical Insurance

Students at the time of registration are strongly encouraged to have secured medical insurance coverage for themselves and all dependents. This stands as an ethical obligation of students that may only become apparent at a time of greatest need. Students are urged to handle this matter with the highest degree of integrity. For further information contact the Grace Schools Health Center.

Electronic Media Requirement

Our desire as a faculty and administration is to do a good job of communicating to our students. This is becoming increasingly challenging because of the diverse mix that constitutes our student body (e.g. residential students, non-traditional students, part-time and full-time students). In response, we intend to use modern electronic media (electronic bulletin boards, Web pages, and e-mail) to communicate information to students. As a result, we are expecting students to have access to the Internet (for connecting to electronic bulletin boards and Web pages and for accessing e-mail). Further, we are requiring all students to be familiar with their Grace Theological Seminary e-mail address and to check that address frequently (for mass e-mailings). Students who neglect to check their Grace e-mail account regularly can expect to miss important school and class announcements which can possibly have a negative effect on their program of study. Our desire as a faculty is to provide training for students in the use of electronic tools for Bible study, exegetical investigation, sermon preparation, etc. Therefore, we are requiring that each student have access to a personal computer so that they might use the various electronic tools that are available for a variety of disciplines. In addition, students may be asked to purchase software, in conjunction with certain classes, much as they are asked to purchase books for classes.

Expenses for All Programs

Grace Theological Seminary seeks to provide a quality theological education for all its students. Tuition charges paid by the student cover only a portion of the cost of operating the seminary program. Gifts and grants from individual friends, corporations, and interested churches meet the balance of the expenses. Current tuition rates and fees are available from the Grace Schools Business Office or on the Grace Web site: <http://www.grace.edu/resources/business-office#graduatecosts>

Terms of Payment for Regular Semesters

Grace Theological Seminary provides two payment plans for its courses: (NOTE: These payment options are not available to D.Min/DICS students. D.Min/DICS seminary fees must be paid in full during the week of class.)

Option 1: Pay all semester charges in full two weeks prior to the first day of class of the semester. Payment is made to the Student Services Hub, or you may pay online at portal.grace.edu under the 'Student' tab. NelNet is our online payment service. Visa, Master Card, and Discover credit cards are also accepted.

Option 2: Grace also offers a longer-term payment plans through NelNet. This plan allows the student the option of making up to 5 monthly payments to pay off the balance by semester end. The cost of this plan is a $45 semester enrollment fee. You can also contact NelNet at 800-609-8056. One of the above plans must be chosen since no other payment plans are available.

Please note that interest on my account will be charged each month at the rate of 1.5% (18% annually) on any unpaid balance from the previous month. (Unless contracted through NelNet)

Federal Refund Policy

If a student changes his/her total credit hours for a semester by dropping a class or classes, or officially withdrawing on or before the 60% point in time of the period of enrollment, calculated using calendar days, a portion of the total of Title IV funds awarded a student (Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Stafford Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, but not Federal Work Study) must be returned according to the provisions of the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. The calculation of the return of these funds may result in the student owing a balance to Grace and/or the Federal government. Questions may be directed to the Office of Financial Aid.

Institutional Refund Policy

Full refund on tuition and fees will be given for classes dropped the first week of the semester session. Tuition refunds for students withdrawing entirely from school will be based on the official date of action that was recorded by the Registrar's office. It is the student's responsibility to file the proper paperwork within the week class(es) are dropped in order to receive maximum refund as per the published refund schedule. A student who is dropping a class or withdrawing completely from school must go to the Registrar's Office to complete the proper forms. Upon withdrawing from Grace, a pro-rated refund of both charges and financial aid will occur based on the official date of such action. Federal regulations specify that, should a student withdraw from an institution, any amount of a refund must be returned to the Title IV programs funds first, up to the full amounts received.

Refund Schedule – 7.5 week semester session

Week	% Refund
1	100%
2	50%

Note to residential students taking an Online Course: There are no refunds for online fees after the first Sunday the class begins.

Note to Students receiving student loans: Graduate students must be enrolled at least half-time in order to be eligible for a student loan. Half-time for the seminary means at least three credit hours. A student loan will only be disbursed once it is certain that a student will be enrolled for the minimum credits for half-time. If a student is taking at least three credit hours of class work during the first session of the semester, the loan will be disbursed in week 2 of the first session.

Note to Deploy students: Week 1 and Week 2 refund %s are based on students' start dates.

Student Housing

Students ordinarily must make their own living arrangements, often able to rent houses or apartments in the community. You may check our monthly rent guide on the Grace portal - https://portal.grace.edu/ICS/Campus_Life/ For those who do not desire to cook, meals are available at Alpha Dining Commons. Information may be secured through the Food Services Office.

Student Financial Aid

Loan programs such as Federal Stafford, and the Direct Federal Loan Policy are available to students who qualify.

The application process for financial aid is as follows:

1. Apply and be accepted as a student at the seminary.
2. File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible after October 1st - Grace Theological Seminary Federal School Code is 001800.

Students are notified on a rolling basis of their financial aid eligibility upon admission to the seminary and completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). However, the preferred deadline for fall semester is June 1. Awards are based on the funding available at the time of the award. It is in the student's best interest to apply for admission and financial aid as early as possible. Financial aid awards will not be offered until the applicant has been officially accepted. A student must be enrolled in four or more credit hours per semester to be considered for federal student aid.

In addition, students must be making satisfactory academic progress to receive institutional and/or federal student aid.

Scholarship and Loan Programs

In order to assist worthy and qualified students, Grace Theological Seminary provides supplemental financial support through institutional scholarships and federal loan programs. Students enrolled in master's programs may qualify for Grace Theological Seminary scholarships and grants. Some of Grace Theological Seminary's financial aid programs include:

Grace Theological Seminary Scholarship (GTS) The GTS scholarship program is available to all Seminary students enrolled in a master's degree program of 48 hours or more (M.A. in Local Church Ministry, M.A. in Intercultural Studies and the M.Div.), excluding Deploy students. The scholarship will provide $65 per credit hour for Grace Brethren members and $50 per credit hour for non-Grace Brethren members. (When applied to Deploy, scholarship money is applied monthly and amounts vary.) Eligibility may be affected by other types of financial aid received. It is the student's responsibility to report errors to the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid reserves the right to make adjustments to the scholarship amount in the event of an over-award. Continuing students must be in good standing with GTS financially and academically. A thank you note must be completed in the Advancement Office of each academic year the student receives the benefit. Applications are due by August 24 for the fall semester and January 1 for the spring semester. Application is found on the website.

Shepherd's Endowment Seminary Apprenticeship Scholarship: The Shepherd's Endowment scholarship program is available to Seminary students enrolled in a Master's program of 48 hours or more. It will provide a $50 per credit hour for all students registered for Local Church or Intercultural Apprenticeship courses. It is the student's responsibility to report errors to the Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Financial Aid reserves the right to make adjustments to the scholarship amount in the event of an over-award. Application is found on the website.

GBIF Forgivable Loan Scholarship: Prospective Seminary students interested in serving with the Charis Fellowship are encouraged to apply for a forgivable loan sponsored by Grace Financial, formerly known as the Grace Brethren Investment Foundation (GBIF). Deploy students who receive the GBIF Forgivable Loan Scholarship are ineligible for receiving additional Deploy Scholarships from Grace. Students who receive the GBIF Forgivable Loan Scholarship must commit to serving in a Charis Fellowship ministry for a specified number of years after graduation based; expected years of service is based on the scholarship amounts received. These funds will cover up to a third of a student's total costs for their degree program. Face-to-face or phone interviews can be scheduled with the Seminary Office Manager via email or by phone at 800-544-7223, ext. 6437.

The Deploy Scholarship: All Deploy students are eligible to apply for the Deploy scholarship. Scholarships are awarded based on availability of scholarship funds. Deploy students must remain in good academic standing in order to receive and retain this scholarship. The Deploy scholarship contributes $250/month (up to $1000/semester) toward Deploy students' tuition. This scholarship is prorated by months (billing months) of enrollment, and is applied on a semester basis. The scholarship application is available to Deploy students during the new student paperwork process.

Church Matching Program is a program which provides sponsoring churches with a means of encouraging and assisting students attending Grace College and Theological Seminary. Churches are eligible regardless of denomination or affiliation. Grace Theological Seminary will match the church scholarship dollar for dollar up to $500.00 per student per academic year ($250 per semester), excluding Deploy students who are receiving either the Deploy Scholarship or GBIF Forgivable Loan Scholarship. To be eligible, a student is required to be a half-time student in a two or three year program, taking at least five or more credit hours per semester. The application deadline for the fall semester is August 1 and the spring deadline is December 15. Forms are available on the website.

Terms of Payment for Summer School

All charges for summer school classes are to be paid in full by the first day of the summer school session.

Responsibility for Payments

Because of the various federal privacy laws, Grace Theological Seminary has adopted the policy of dealing directly with the student on all matters relating to a student's account. No direct billings will be sent to any third party unless arrangements have been made with the Business Office.

Service Charge

Any student account with a past due balance will be subject to a monthly service charge of 1.5 percent of the account balance.

Registration for Courses

With the exception of new students, each student is expected to register for the following semester's classes at the designated time (approximately one month prior to the end of the current semester.) For the student who is continuing studies, failure to accomplish registration by the close of the current semester may result in a $100.00 late fee being charged to the student's account.

Drops/Adds of Classes

A student may add a class anytime during the first three days of classes in each session of a semester, though the process and timeline for Deploy students differs from other Seminary programs due to the competency-based nature of the program. Deploy students may add competency modules (courses) throughout the semester. Deploy students who wish to add competency modules mid-semester must work through their Student Support Manager who will then officially register them for additional modules. A student who decides to drop a class (or classes) in which he or she is registered at Grace Theological Seminary, may do so during the first week of each session of the semester. For Deploy students, the drop period different (by the end of week 5 for returning students and by the end of week 10 for new students).

Drops during the first week of class for each session will result in complete erasure of the dropped class(es) from the student's transcript. (Deploy students have a designated drop period beyond this first week during which they can also drop a class resulting in complete erasure of the class from their transcript. Deploy students in their first semester of enrollment may drop competency modules through the end of week 10 without academic policy. All other Deploy students may drop competency modules through the end of week 5 without academic penalty.) Drops by the date designated on the academic calendar as "last day to withdraw from classes with 'W'" will result in a "W" on the student's transcript. Failure to drop a class(es) that is not attended will result in an "F" appearing on the student's transcript for each class(es). Following the first week of classes for each session, there will be no refund of tuition if a class is dropped. See the refund schedule above for more details.

Students wishing to drop a course are always encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office to understand the financial ramifications of the decision. Students bear responsibility for the implications of dropping or withdrawing from courses.

Withdrawal from Grace Theological Seminary

Students who desire to discontinue their studies at Grace Theological Seminary are required to officially withdraw from the Seminary. A Withdrawal Form may be found on the Grace Portal. This completed form should be filed with the Registrar upon the decision to withdraw from Grace Theological Seminary. Official Withdrawal Forms filed during the first week of the semester will completely erase the semester's courses from the student's transcript. (Deploy students have a designated drop period beyond this first week during which they can also withdraw resulting in complete erasure of the semester’s courses from their transcript. This timeline extends to week 5 for returning Deploy students and week 10 for first-semester Deploy students.) Withdrawals filed by the date designated on the Academic Calendar as “last day to withdraw from classes with ‘W’” will result in a “W” for each class of the semester on the student’s transcript. Withdrawing after the last “W” date or failure to submit a Withdrawal Form will result in an “F” for each class in which the student is registered for that semester. Students wishing to withdraw from a course or from the Seminary are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office to understand the financial ramifications of the decision.

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROGRAMS

GENERAL ACADEMIC POLICIES

Grading system

The seminary employs the following grading scale:

100-93% = A	79-77% = C+	62-60% = D-
92-90% = A-	76-73% = C	59-0% = F
89-87% = B+	72-70% = C-
86-83% = B	69-67% = D+	I Incomplete
82-80% = B-	66-63% = D	W Withdrawal

A (93-100) Unequivocally superior work. Evidences a consistent commitment to excellence in work ethic, research energy and technique, attentiveness, and responsiveness in class, thinking capacities, and literacy in the subject matter.

B+ (87-89) Decidedly above average work. Evidences an above average level of interest, work ethic, research energy and technique, attentiveness, and responsiveness in class, thinking capacities, and literacy in the subject matter.

- C+ (77-79) Clearly average work. Evidences an average level of interest, work ethic, research energy and technique, attentiveness and responsiveness in class, thinking capacities, and literacy in the subject matter.
- C (73-76)
- C- (70-72)
- D+ (67-69) Obviously below average work. Evidences a lack of interest, diminished work ethic, minimal research energy and techniques, inattentiveness and unresponsiveness in class, little desire or ability to think about the material and minimal literacy in the subject matter.
- D (63-66)
- D- (60-62)
- F (0-59) Not doing passing work. The student evidences a lack of interest, an absence of effort, no energy expended in assignments, and an insufficient literacy in the subject matter.

The grading scale is offered only as a guideline. It may vary with individual faculty members and individual courses. Faculty members have the prerogative of adjusting grades at their discretion.

*Deploy, Grace’s Competency-Based Master’s Program, utilizes an alternative grading scale that generally follows the percentages of the traditional scale. Module grades are based on the cumulative average of the students’ Mastery Assessments. Students must receive an 83% or above to pass each Mastery Assessment and, thus, the module. Competency grades are based on the cumulative average of all module grades for that particular competency. Students must achieve an 83% or above on each competency in order to pass. See the Module and Competency grading scales below.

Module Grading Scale		Competency Grading Scale
Module Grade	Percent	Competency Grade	Percent
A	100-93	MC (Mastery Completion)	100-90
A-	92-90
B+	89-87	PC (Proficient Completion)	89-83
B	86-83
DN	82 or Below (Requires Retake)	PM (Progress Made)	Passed all modules taken, but has not finished the entire competency.
		DN (Did Not Pass)	Failed to successfully complete or pass all modules taken this semester.

Dropping a Class

A grade of “W” indicates that the student has dropped (withdrawn) from the course before the deadline established by the academic calendar as the last day to withdraw with a “W”. Dropping a class or withdrawal from school after that time automatically results in the grade of “F”. The Dean of the Seminary may grant permission for a grade of “W” after the established deadline due to unusual circumstances. (Deploy students have a designated drop period beyond the first week during which they can drop a class resulting in complete erasure of the class from their transcript. Deploy students in their first semester of enrollment may drop competency modules through the end of week 10—calculated from the start of the semester—without academic penalty. All other Deploy students may drop competency modules through the end of week 5—calculated from the start of the semester—without academic penalty.)

Student Status

Students who enroll in any degree program are expected to register for each succeeding semester until graduation from that program. A student who does not register for classes during any semester regularly scheduled for his or her program must complete a Readmittance Form in order to register for courses following the break in the program.

A student who does not register for classes for two consecutive semesters that are regularly scheduled for his or her program must complete an “Readmittance Form” and may be required to submit an additional “Pastoral Reference Form” in order to register for courses again.

Any student who does not register for more than two consecutive semesters that are regularly scheduled for his or her program must completely reapply to Grace Theological Seminary. (Doctoral students are exempted from these guidelines).

Those students who, for any reason, are breaking their program of study for a limited period of time must bear responsibility to seek pre-registration materials for subsequent semesters, as well as general information about seminary activities. Schedules of classes may be viewed on the Grace Web site. Materials will not be placed in non-active student mailboxes or sent to them by the school. Non-active students, however, remain on the seminary student e-mail list for one semester and will receive some information by that means.

Incompletes

A grade of “I” (Incomplete) may be given at the discretion of the Dean of the School of Ministry Studies only under unusual circumstances to indicate that the work done has been of passing grade, but that a small portion is incomplete for some excusable reason. Excusable reasons include family emergencies or extended, debilitating illness. This mark must be removed by meeting the requirements of the teacher prior to the deadline following the end of the semester (dates are noted on the academic calendar) or the incomplete automatically becomes a failure (“F”). No graduating student may receive an extension or incomplete (“I”) for any course taken during the semester in which he or she intends to graduate. Due to the nature of the Deploy program, Deploy students do not qualify for grades of “I” (Incomplete) except under special circumstances, as granted at the discretion of the Director of Deploy.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Grade points are awarded according to the following scale:

A	4.000*	B-	2.667	D+	1.333
A-	3.667	C+	2.333	D	1.000
B+	3.333	C	2.000	D-	0.667
B	3.000	C-	1.667	F	0

*Points for each semester hour of course work.

A grade point average of 2.0 is required for satisfactory completion of the Certificate or Diploma programs.

Candidates for the Master’s programs must attain a grade point average of 2.5 for the entire course of study. A 3.0 grade point average is required for Deploy and D.Min. degrees.

Repeating Courses

Students may repeat courses taken previously at Grace Theological Seminary. When a course is repeated, the most current grade will be used to calculate the current and cumulative grade point average. However, as a matter of record, the original grade must remain on the student’s transcript. The grade to be replaced by the repeat will be noted with “*R” on the transcript; the repeat grade will be signified by “.” This policy applies only to courses (or their equivalents) being currently offered and may be utilized by both current and former students.

Academic Restriction

Academic restriction applies to first semester students who are admitted with a restricted academic status as a result of a low college grade point average or graduation from an unaccredited institution.

A student on academic restriction is limited to no more than nine credit hours for the first semester. Any hours above nine require the approval of the Dean of the Seminary. If the required grade point average is not met during the initial semester, the student will be placed on academic probation for the following semester.

Academic Probation

A student failing to complete satisfactory work will be placed on academic probation. Academic probation is based on the cumulative grade point average at the end of each regular semester (not including summer school). Academic probation for degree programs is based on the following minimum requirement scale:

Credit Hours GPA

0–9	2.0
10–19	2.25
20–25	2.50/2.37
36–48	2.37/2.50
Over 49	2.50

Deploy and Doctor of Ministry students must maintain for each semester the grade point average required for graduation. Diploma and certificate students must maintain a grade point average of 2.0 or above. Transfer students must obtain the appropriate grade point average for their program during their initial semester to avoid academic probation.

A student on probation is expected to improve his or her grade point average each semester until reaching the minimum required GPA. The student will remain on academic probation provided that his or her grade point average is improving until reaching the minimum required GPA. Failure to make progress toward the minimum GPA standards will require that he or she be placed on final academic probation.

Final Academic Probation

A student on academic probation is placed on final academic probation when his or her grade point average for the semester falls below the established scale. He or she is not permitted to take more than nine credit hours during a semester without written permission from the Dean of the Seminary.

The following students may be placed on final academic probation at the discretion of the Dean of the Seminary:

1. Regularly admitted students who in their initial semester at Grace Theological Seminary obtain a grade point average of less than 1.0.
2. Regularly admitted transfer students who in their initial semester at Grace Theological Seminary obtain a grade point average .500 less than the requirement for their credit hours GPA classification.

3. Any student who accumulates a grade point average that is .500 less than the requirement for his or her credit hours GPA classification.

Students may appeal the decision to the Dean of the Seminary.

At the conclusion of the final probation semester, a student failing to raise his or her grade point average to the appropriate level may be dropped for poor scholarship. Any student who enters the spring semester of their final year on final academic probation should not expect to graduate in the spring semester.

Students who have been dropped for academic reasons are declared ineligible to return to school for one year. If the student is deemed eligible for readmission, the Admissions Committee, in consultation with the Dean of the Seminary, will establish a written agreement between the institution and the admittee. The student is required to earn a designated grade point average as determined by the committee. Whatever the established grade point average, it must be earned each semester by the admittee or he or she may be dropped for the second and final time.

Limited Academic Program

If a student is dismissed from Grace Theological Seminary because of low academic achievement, that student may be placed on a part-time program of six credit hours or less at the discretion of the Dean of the Seminary. In order to be admitted to this limited academic program, the student must appeal to the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary after being dismissed from seminary. During the semester(s) that the student is in the limited academic program, he or she must continue to show academic improvement. If the cumulative grade point average does not show continued improvement, the student will be dismissed at the end of the semester.

Under this program a student can raise his or her grade point average to the level required for readmission to regular status.

Graduating with Academic Honors

Policy: Students are awarded academic honors based on GPA requirements specified for each academic program and if they have completed at least half their degree credits at Grace College and/or Theological Seminary. Adult, graduate, and seminary programs are awarded honors and are recognized as a group at Commencement. Students with GPAs of 3.75 or higher on a 4.0 scale are designated as Honors Graduates.

Application for Graduation

All students are to be in contact with their academic advisor once a semester to review their progress toward program requirements, total hours, and GPA. At approximately the midpoint of the semester prior to the seminary student's final semester, students must make an appointment with their advisor to perform a graduation audit.

Each student pursuing a degree must take full responsibility for meeting graduation requirements. This includes all information in this catalog and the Student Handbook, counseling with an advisor, and being familiar with the policy outlining graduation requirements. All candidates must complete an "Application for Graduation." This form may be found at the Grace Theological Seminary Web site (<http://gts.grace.edu>) and must be filed with the Registrar by the end of the fall semester of the school year in which the student plans to graduate. Applications made after the end of the fall semester will be considered late and a $150.00 late fee will be charged to the student.

Academic and Other Awards

At the annual commencement ceremony in May, exceptional students in the master's programs may be recognized for outstanding achievement. The excellent achievement may be in academics in various areas of the curriculum, interest in missions, or spiritual maturity, leadership, and Christian character. To be eligible a student must have completed at least two-thirds of his or her program at Grace Theological Seminary. Recipients are elected by the faculty.

- 1. The Alva J. McClain Award in Systematic Theology: A cash award and a plaque are given annually to the student who has done the best work in the area of systematic theology during his or her student career at Grace. This award is provided in memory of Dr. Alva J. McClain, Founding President of Grace Theological Seminary and its Professor of Theology from 1937 to 1962.
- 2. The John J. Davis Award in Old Testament: A cash award and a plaque are given annually to the student who has done the best work in Old Testament language and literature during his or her studies at Grace. This award is granted in honor of Dr. John J. Davis, who served as Professor of Old Testament Studies, Executive Vice President and President of Grace College over a span of 38 years.
- 3. The Homer A. Kent Jr. Award in New Testament: A cash award and a plaque are given annually to the student who has done the best work in New Testament Greek during his or her student career at Grace. This award is provided in honor of Dr. Homer A. Kent, Jr., who served as Professor of New Testament and Greek, Vice President and Dean, and President of Grace Theological Seminary over a span of 50 years.
- 4. The Russell D. Barnard Award in World Missions: A cash award and plaque are given annually to the student who has contributed most to the advancement of the cause of missions on the campus during his or her studies at Grace. This award is provided in honor of Dr. Russell D. Barnard, who served as General Secretary of Grace Brethren Foreign Missions for 20 years.
- 5. The Kenneth E. Bickel Award in Expository Preaching: A cash award and a plaque are given annually by the faculty to the student who evidences the greatest proficiency in the art of expository preaching, as demonstrated in the preaching classes that are part of the seminary curriculum.
- 6. The Faculty Award: A cash award and a plaque are given annually by the faculty to the graduate who throughout his or her training has been outstanding in spiritual maturity, leadership, and Christian character, and who best exemplifies the ideals of Grace Theological Seminary. This is considered to be the highest honor that the faculty can bestow upon a seminary graduate.
- 7. Mams Outstanding Student Award: A cash award and plaque are given annually by the faculty to the graduating student who throughout his/her training has been outstanding in spiritual maturity and Christian character.
- 8. Deploy Award for Academic Excellence: This award is given annually to the student who most clearly demonstrates an insatiable passion for learning and a strong aptitude for academic performance. This student effectively embodies the essence of each Deploy competency by integrating its principles and practices into his/her life and ministry.

9. Deploy Award for Exemplary Ministry: This award is given annually to the student who most clearly demonstrates a model for healthy and exceptional biblical ministry. This student exemplifies holistic spiritual maturity and servant leadership and faithfully applies the essence of each competency into his/her ministry context.
10. Deploy Award for Ministry Leadership: This award is given annually to the student who most clearly demonstrates courageous leadership with Christlike integrity and moral authority. This student responds to the rigors and demands of ministry with wisdom, conviction and discernment.

Classification of Students

1. Full-time Students: Full-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for at least six semester hours of credit during a regular semester.
2. Part-time Students: Part-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for fewer than six hours of credit during a regular semester. International doctoral degree students achieve full-time status by taking eight semester hours of credit during a regular semester.
3. Unclassified Students: Unclassified students are those who are not pursuing a program (Master's, Certificate or Diploma) for a degree. Unclassified students are restricted to a cumulative total of no more than 12 credit hours. If an unclassified student desires to take more than 12 hours at Grace Theological Seminary or to pursue a program for a degree, he or she must make formal application to the Seminary Admissions Office. A student who qualifies for the D.Min. program may complete up to two D.Min. classes (six hours) as an unclassified student before he or she has been fully accepted into the program.
4. Auditors: Pastors, missionaries, other Christian workers, and spouses of seminary students who desire to hear the lectures in a course without undertaking the coursework for credit may be admitted as auditors to selected courses by making proper application with the Seminary Admissions Office. Though no credits or grade points are involved, auditors are required to pay the appropriate fees and to meet class attendance requirements. Those who do not meet attendance requirements will receive the "grade" of "W," whether or not they have officially withdrawn.

Auditing is not permitted for some courses. (This policy is at the discretion of the department or professor involved.) For some courses, auditing is permitted only if the student completes the course assignments as specified by the professor. An auditor may enroll for only one semester as a "full-time" auditor (12 hours or more).

A spouse of a student taking a seminary course for credit may sit in classes without registering as an auditor provided that the permission of the instructor has been secured in advance.

Class Scheduling

Many seminary classes are block scheduled so that they will meet only one or two days per week. This system offers an advantage for pastors or others who must commute some distance. This makes it possible to take a significant class load even when it is difficult to be on campus for more than one or two days per week.

Residential students are permitted to take up to a certain number of courses online if they are available (6 MDiv, 4 MA). If a student is interested in registering for an online course they must first contact Lane Lingofelter, Director of School of Ministry Accelerated/Blended Program, lingofla@grace.edu to verify that the course is available for registration. Priority registration will be given to MAMS students currently enrolled in the program, unless the required course is only offered as an online option for residential students. Note: Online classes are charged an additional tech fee per class.

Attendance Requirements

All students are expected to be faithful in class attendance. Students are required to attend chapels, days of worship and prayer, and other seminary meetings as defined in the Student Handbook.

Advising

Each student pursuing a program or a degree will be assigned a faculty advisor. Although the Seminary attempts to provide adequate academic advising, ultimate responsibility for meeting all deadlines and all program and graduation requirements rests with the student.

Course Numbering System

The numbering system for courses indicates their relative sequence and the semester in which the course is usually offered. The alphabetical part of the system indicates the department, program, or subject area as follows:

TH—Christian Theology & Church History

OT—Old Testament Studies

NT—New Testament Studies

PM—Pastoral Studies and Christian Ministry Studies

MI—Intercultural Studies and World Mission Studies

PM 8000 level— Doctor of Ministry Track Courses (D.Min.): Advanced Expository Preaching; Intercultural Studies; Ministry Leadership; Pastoral Studies; Interdisciplinary Studies

DLC— Deploy Masters of Arts in Local Church Ministry Courses

DGM— Deploy Masters of Divinity in General Ministry Courses

DI 8000 level—Doctor of Intercultural Studies Courses (DICS)

Course Schedules

A schedule of courses to be offered in a given semester or summer session is put on the Grace Theological Seminary Web site (<http://gts.grace.edu>) in advance of each registration. The seminary reserves the right to withdraw any scheduled course for which the enrollment is not sufficient to warrant the organization of a class.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Grace Theological Seminary offers degree programs leading to various master's degrees, the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree, and the Doctor of Intercultural Studies (DICS) degree. The master's degrees are the M.A. in Christian Ministry, with concentrations in Local Church Ministry, Intercultural Studies, Chaplaincy, Women's Leadership and Worship Leadership. The M.Div. includes emphases in Pastoral Studies, Intercultural Studies, Exegetical Studies, Chaplaincy Studies, Christian Ministry Studies, General Studies, Women's Leadership, and Pastoral Counseling. Each master's level program requires apprenticeships that are designed to train students in local ministry or intercultural contexts.

Master of Arts in Ministry Studies

The Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry is a 36-hour online program that is built on many courses unique to other seminary degree programs. The ATS accredited online program is designed to provide professional and practical training for those who are pursuing or are already involved in church ministry. This degree will prepare and equip ministry leaders with the necessary personal, professional, and theological training for your unique Christian calling within church ministry or human services. The program goals are designed to augment and support the mission of Grace College and Seminary. There are four different Master of Arts in Ministry Studies Online concentrations: Christian Ministry, Counseling, Women's Leadership, and Technology.

Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies

The Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies is a 48-hour degree program. The curriculum is designed to prepare students for effective cross-cultural and multicultural ministry in international and domestic ministry settings. Courses are offered each summer in May and July to accommodate students in full-time ministry. Advance standing credit may be obtained for up to twelve credit hours of the 48-hour master's program.

Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry

The Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry is a 48-hour program containing the same 24-hour core of biblical and theological studies. It is designed for those students seeking graduate theological training or associate pastoral ministry. It is not intended as preparation for senior pastoral ministry for which Grace Theological Seminary has designed the Master of Divinity program. Advanced standing credit may be obtained for up to twelve credit hours of a 48-hour master's program. We offer Local Church Ministry as well as two additional concentrations: Women's Leadership and Chaplaincy.

Deploy also offers a Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry (MALCM). Deploy uses a competency-based theological education (CBTE) model delivered online and on-site within a ministry context at your local church. This 42-hour program offers certain program distinctives and benefits including: a partnership with your local church, potential for acceleration due to previous education and life experience, three mentors (ministry, formation, and academic) who walk through the program with students, access to the Logos library, and a focus on learning ministry while doing ministry.

Master of Divinity

The Master of Divinity program provides an optimal curriculum in graduate theological study for a preaching and teaching ministry of the Word of God. It is a three-year program requiring 75 hours of study, including a 6-credit-hour apprenticeship. There are eight different Master of Divinity concentrations: General Studies, Pastoral Studies, Pastoral Counseling, Christian Ministry, Exegetical Studies, Intercultural Studies, Women's Leadership, and Chaplaincy Studies. Advanced standing credit may be obtained for up to 18 credit hours of the M.Div. program.

Deploy also offers a Master of Divinity in General Ministry (MDGM). Deploy uses a competency-based theological education (CBTE) model delivered online and on-site within a ministry context at your local church. This 75-hour program offers certain program distinctives and benefits including: a partnership with your local church, potential for acceleration due to previous education and life experience, three mentors (ministry, formation, and academic) who walk through the program with students, access to the Logos library, and a focus on learning ministry while doing ministry.

Doctor of Ministry

The Doctor of Ministry program is designed to bring further professional development to pastors, missionaries, and other Christian leaders who have at least three years of vocational ministry experience after earning a Master of Divinity degree from an approved seminary (or, in exceptional cases, its equivalent). The curriculum is built around eight one-week seminar modules and a professional project. The program is designed to enable pastors and other ministry professionals to complete it without leaving their current ministry. Qualified students may pursue one of the following D.Min. tracks: Advanced Expository Preaching; Ministry Leadership; Pastoral Studies; Intercultural Studies; and Interdisciplinary Studies. Complete information for this program is available in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook. The handbook and application for this program are available online at www.grace.edu/admissions/apply.

Doctor of Intercultural Studies – English Language

The Doctor of Intercultural Studies Degree is intended to prepare individuals for positive and influential leadership, relationships of trust, and biblical ministry in intercultural contexts either in denominational or interdenominational structures through study and applied learning in the socio-cultural and theological disciplines of missiology. It provides students with expertise in intercultural issues and missiological strategies and paradigms for effective biblical ministry and for developing cultural intelligence for relevant problem solving in receptor cultures. Complete information for this program is available in the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Handbook. The handbook and application for this program are available online at www.grace.edu/admissions/apply.

SPECIAL STUDY PROGRAM

DOCTORAL PROGRAMS ONLINE – KOREAN LANGUAGE

Doctor of Ministry Online – Pastoral Studies or Intercultural Studies – Korean Language

The online Doctor of Ministry program at Grace Theological Seminary is designed to enhance professional competence by expanding upon a foundation of theology training and ministry experience, to enable those Korean students who are engaged in vocational ministry to personally and professionally develop strengths, address areas of weakness, and increase overall leadership effectiveness. The curriculum is built around eight online seminars and a major degree project.

Doctor of Intercultural Studies Online – Korean Language

The online Doctor of Intercultural Studies program is designed to bring further professional development to Korean missionaries, and other Christian leaders beyond the Doctor of Ministry degree in the area of cross-cultural leadership training, intercultural communication, and areas of social research. The curriculum is built around ten online seminars and a major degree project. The program is designed to enable Korean ministry professionals to complete it without leaving their current ministry setting.

For further information, contact the office of Korean studies at parkrc@grace.edu or visit the Grace Seminary website at seminary.grace.edu.

Deploy- Competency-Based Theological Education

Pursue Mastery without Pausing Ministry | Deploy uses a competency-based theological education (CBTE) model delivered online and on-site within a ministry context at your local church. Those with prior education and life experience may master competencies and pass assessments faster than the average student allowing completion at an accelerated pace.

This is seminary at the speed of life – a safe pace designed to minimize disruption to ministry, work, and family priorities. To optimize spiritual formation in the lives of participants. It prepares leaders within your church without creating unnecessary vacancies in your staff. It's where a deeply theological education meets the practical learning laboratory of the local church.

At Grace Theological Seminary we're more committed than ever to our history of teaching the doctrines and infallible Truths of Scripture. We recognize that new challenges on the frontlines of ministry require new delivery systems for training leaders who will influence the future of the local church.

We offer two program options: Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry. See Academic Programs (above) to learn more about these degree paths and their program distinctives. Deploy is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (hlcommission.org), a regional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, and The Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Through Deploy, Grace Theological Seminary is a member of the Competency-Based Education Network—a collaborative network for CBE/CBTE institutions.

MASTER OF ARTS IN MINISTRY STUDIES ONLINE PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Purpose of the Program

To assist in the theological training of staff and personnel for leadership in church. The program strikes a balance between foundational theological preparation and real-life ministry training. The program is designed to add to the body of knowledge gained in Grace's undergraduate biblical studies programs and to train those who have not pursued undergraduate training in biblical studies for positions of support and leadership in the local church. Note that graduates of the Department of Biblical Studies may gain advanced standing in Grace Theological Seminary.

Program Description

The MA in Ministry Studies is a 36-hour online program designed to provide professional and practical training for those who are pursuing or are already involved in church ministry. This degree will prepare and equip ministry leaders with the necessary personal, professional, and theological training for your unique Christian calling within church ministry or human services. The program goals are designed to augment and support the mission of Grace College and Seminary.

Program Goals and Assessment

The program goals are designed to augment and support the mission of Grace College, which is:

An evangelical Christian community of higher education which applies biblical values in strengthening character, sharpening competence, and preparing for service

It also supports and promotes the purpose of the School of Ministry Studies, which is:

A learning community dedicated to teaching, training, and transforming the whole person for local church and global ministry.

The goals of the M.A. in Ministry Studies are that those who complete the degree will:

1. Engage a process of critical evaluation of personal character, and cultural awareness needed to effectively lead in a ministry context.
2. Be challenged to sharpen the competencies needed to interpret, understand, and effectively communicate the Word of God in a ministry context.
3. Apply the knowledge gained throughout the program by engaging in real ministry directed learning tasks that demonstrate a preparation for service and apprehension of the principles and practices needed for effective ministry leadership.

Learning Outcomes

Learners will journal the practice of prayer in the context of personal, married, and ministry life recording progress in the discipline of prayer as part of the character of a ministry leader (G1)

1. Learners will develop a biblically consistent theological commitment in light of Christian discipleship, theology and orthodoxy.
2. Learners will demonstrate sound biblical interpretation of a passage of Scripture for delivery in a ministry setting.
3. Learners will construct a personal theology which will be able to be used as a means of demonstrating a firm grasp of the nature of God, man, sin, salvation, ministry, and the future.
4. Learners will demonstrate godly leadership in ministry by gaining a sharpened awareness of current church needs, administration and cultural sensitivity.

On a yearly basis faculty will evaluate the embedded elements of this assessment to determine the effectiveness and level of mastery of those elements to the program. A full assessment program has been developed with rubrics to measure the success of each element contained in the program. Information will be used to better construct learning activities to ensure that each student is prepared for ministry in their particular field.

Schedule

The M.A. in Ministry Studies Online offers four concentrations: Christian Ministry, Counseling, Technology, and Women's Leadership Studies. The M.A. in Ministry Studies uses a modified cohort model. Courses are offered on a two-year rotation beginning in the fall. Students are automatically registered for their first session of classes. Students will self-register for all additional sessions. If students fail to register for at least one session during the fall or spring semester it will be necessary for them to contact the School of Professional and Online Education at 888.249.0533 or online@grace.edu.

Students will complete twelve (12) 3-credit courses for a total of thirty-six (36) credit hours in a "cohort" based model. "Cohort" means that students will join the program along with another group of students and continue with this same group, or cohort, for the entire program. If students' schedules change and they must skip a semester, or wish to take classes at a pace slower than the suggested two-year program, they may interact with other cohorts in the program.

All the online classes are 7 or 8 weeks long. Students who join a cohort in the fall complete two 8-week courses (August - December, 16 weeks), two 8-week courses in spring (January - May, 16 weeks), and two 7-week courses in the summer (May - August, 14 weeks).

Please view the institution's Campus Calendar for more information.

Accreditation

Fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (hlcommission.org), a regional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, and The Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Students agree to show respect for the faith commitment that Grace practices and agree to abide by certain of the institution's community guidelines (avoidance of disrespecting others, sexual misconduct, illegal drugs, gambling, coarse or obscene language, tobacco, alcoholic beverages, and such conduct) while on campus or engaged in Grace activities. The student understands that this extends to any advocacy initiatives in which the individual might participate while a Grace student.

Classification of Graduate Students

Full-time Students: Full-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for at least 6 semester hours of credit during a regular semester.

Part-time Students: Part-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for at least 3 hours of credit during a regular semester.

Auditors: Students who desire to hear the lectures in a course without undertaking the coursework for credit may be admitted as auditors to selected courses by making proper application with the Online Admissions Office. Though no credits or grade points are involved, auditors are required to pay the appropriate fees and to meet class attendance requirements. Those who do not meet attendance requirements will receive the “grade” of “W,” whether or not they have officially withdrawn.

Auditing is not permitted for some courses. (This policy is at the discretion of the department or professor involved.) For some courses, auditing is permitted only if the student completes the course assignments as specified by the professor. An auditor may enroll for only one semester as a “full-time” auditor.

Program Admission and Completion

Graduates of Grace College’s Department of Biblical Studies or other accredited Christian liberal arts schools may qualify to gain advanced standing in the MAMS degree.

Admission Requirements

Students must have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college/university or approval from the Director of the program and the Dean of the Seminary in order to be accepted into the program. Grace has a policy in place for assessing those who have ministry experience and have not completed a four-year degree, and for those who have a non-accredited four-year degree.

Please be advised: Students without a bachelor's degree who complete the Master of Arts in Ministry Studies Online program must be aware that acceptance into some research-based doctorate programs at various colleges/universities may not be granted.

The admission application can be completed online and includes three references.

Official transcripts from all schools attended previously are also required for an application to be evaluated.

A maximum of 9 credit hours may be transferred into the program from graduate programs at other institutions. For transfer credit to be granted, the course or courses must be substantially equivalent to a course or courses in the Grace College MAMS program.

Application Expiration Date

Applications will expire one year from the date the application was received for admission. If the applicant does not enroll in the program within that time period, they will be required to complete a new application.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MIN 5010 Theological Seminar 1

An introduction to theology and its sources. Foundations will be laid in the areas of prolegomena, Bibliology, Theology Proper, Christology, Pneumatology, and Angelology. Three hours.

MIN 5020 Theological Seminar 2

An introduction to theology and its sources. Foundations will be laid in the areas of: Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology. Three hours.

MIN 5100 Bible Study Methods

This course is designed to introduce learners to the basics of biblical interpretation and practical biblical inquiry. This course will cover essential elements of Hermeneutics as well as give practical training in Bible study methodology focusing on the historical-grammatical interpretative method in the inductive Bible study format. Three hours.

MIN 5200 Old Testament Survey

An introduction to the Old Testament with special reference to background, historical setting, literary composition, theology and message. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of background issues which introduce one to the study of various concepts of the Old Testament, the historical milieu of each Old Testament book studied, the purpose and general content of each Old Testament book studied, the use of the Old Testament in modern ministry, and the foundation the Old Testament provides for the New Testament. Three hours.

MIN 5210 New Testament Survey

This course introduces the New Testament with special reference to background, historical setting, literary composition, theology and message. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of background issues which introduce one to the study of various concepts of the New Testament, the historical milieu of each New Testament book studied, the purpose and general content of each New Testament book studied, the relationship between the New and Old Testaments, and the use of the New Testament in modern ministry. Three hours.

MIN 5310 Ministry & Cultural Diversity

This course is intended to provide students with a basic understanding of the elements of culture and how they affect biblical ministry in intercultural and multicultural contexts. It is designed to help Christian workers become more effective in those contexts as their understanding permits them to shape their ministry to penetrate other cultures more deeply and, therefore, apply God's Word more accurately. Three hours.

MIN 5320 Ministry Leadership

Through the use of reading and writing assignments, online discussions, pastoral interviews, and a self-assessment and action plan paper, the following leadership topics will be covered: servant leadership, mentoring, visionary leadership, and leading as a change agent. Eight weeks of course work will be conducted independently and on-line, culminating in a final paper. Three hours.

MIN 5340 Ministry Preaching and Teaching

This course combines both theory and practice. It introduces a functional methodology of organizing and developing the elements of a sermon. It examines issues of bridging exegesis and exposition as well as the application of biblical truth and the effective delivery to listeners. Approximately one-third of the course is devoted to a lab setting where lessons and sermons are videotaped and critiqued. Three hours.

MIN 6010 Spiritual Formation

This course investigates the biblical and personal foundations of spiritual growth known theologically as sanctification. It is designed to help the learner understand the impact of family history, personal development and life experiences on one's theological outlook, emotional maturity, relational patterns, moral decisions and ministry effectiveness. Through personal prayer projects, experiential learning and small group interaction, learners will gain a richer sense of self-awareness in order to open more deeply to the love and truth of God. This integrative course attempts to connect theological truth to life in order to explore God's design for growth and how the individual might cooperate within the context of a developing relational Christian spirituality. Three hours.

PM 5160 Methods of Discipleship

A biblical and theological study of Christian discipleship. Includes insight, strategies, and methods ministers can use in the development of both personal and ministry-wide discipleship relationships and programing. Three hours.

PM 6170 Ministry Administration

A theological and practical analysis of administrative principles and processes as they apply to the effective leadership of church and parachurch agencies. Special attention will be given to a balanced relationship between effective administrative functions and ministry. Three hours.

PM 5570 Communication in Ministry

This course examines the relevant application of communicating spiritual truth from the Word in a variety of ministry contexts. The course will focus on sermon preparation and delivery to various teaching environments that leaders will be engaged in to shape the life of a church and other ministry settings. Three hours.

PM 7120 Local Church Ministry in the 21st Century

This course will seek to explore some underlying dynamics of local church life, along with some of the dominant ministry styles of contemporary North American churches, including both attractional and missional models. Focus will also include church assessment paradigms, a consideration of change strategies, and discussion of prevailing attitudes in our society toward the church.

Women's Leadership

MIN 5110 Equipping other for ministry:

Equipping others for ministry is a part of our calling from God (Eph. 4:11-13). But how do we work with others so that we reach maturity together? This course will help you see that ministry is not just about doing the ministry yourself, but teaching others to join you in various arenas of ministry. You will learn about God's equipping ministry in your own life, and be challenged to imitate His methods of entrusting others with redemptive work through His Spirit. The class will explore various methods of equipping others, including mentoring, coaching and modeling, and will address the challenges of recruiting, training and retaining volunteers or key staff members. Three hours.

MIN 5360 Women in Scripture

Students will explore the value of women as disclosed in special revelation, beginning with Genesis and the "imago dei". They will research the backdrop of the ancient world in order to understand the various roles women played in the OT in revealing the heart of God and His plan for redemptive history. They will investigate ways that Jesus elevated the status of women and how NT passages describe the function of women within the Christian community. Using modern theories on the role of women—complementarian and egalitarian—students will seek to define a biblical approach to contemporary questions about the role of women. In addition, students will analyze current culture and make recommendations for how God's Word speaks into the lives of women today. Three hours.

MIN 5820 Soul Care in Leadership:

This class will examine how to journey with others in the midst of their questions and pain. Instead of trying to fix others in pain, soul care attempts to incarnate the presence of God in the life of another and allow God to use you to be his hands and feet. Part of this process is learning how to listen to the Spirit of God and attend to another in the midst of their journey. The learner will have the opportunity to see and reject patterns of self-talk (based on the flesh) in order to embrace Spirit-led patterns of soul talk. The care of souls is an interpersonal part of ministry leadership that often gets overlooked in our program-driven church context. This class will help to equip ministry leaders in their role as shepherd to the flock entrusted to their care.

MIN 5600 Biblical Foundations of Leadership:

This course looks at the life of Jesus to learn from Him as the Master Teacher, Leader and Discipled. Students will explore Scripture and the lives of other godly men and women to gain a composite picture of leadership that addresses heart issues in the lives of people they will lead. Leadership from a biblical perspective will be countercultural and address issues of pride vs. humility, how we view failure/success and taking initiative in a Spirit-driven process. Students will have the opportunity for hands on integration of theory with practice as they process the course concepts in life with others in a relational context of ministry.

Counseling

MIN 5500 Counseling Theories

In this course, students will examine today's predominant counseling theories in order to develop their own biblical framework in which they will provide counsel to others. The focus of the course is to help discern God's pathway to proper biblical counseling. Three hours.

MIN 5700 Counseling Methods and Techniques

This course will examine the various skills, methods and techniques used by a Christian or Pastoral Counselor to effectively minister to those being counseled. An aspect of the course is how to use the Bible and prayer in counseling, and direction on when to refer to other professionals. Three hours.

MIN 5900 Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling

This course will examine how to effectively engage in pre-marital counseling to help couples prepare for marriage and to help couples who are struggling in their marriage. Various theories, skills and techniques of marriage counseling will be discussed. Three hours.

MIN 6200 Counseling Common Problems

This course will examine how to counsel people who encounter negative emotions such as anxiety, depression, guilt and fear and help navigate these issues from a biblical perspective. The focus will be on how God can help people deal with the emotional side of their lives by looking at Scripture and allowing God to move them into places of spiritual transformation. Three hours.

PM 6160 Biblical Psychology

This course will examine the relationship between the fields of psychology and theology. A theology of “integration” will be presented, along with discussions concerning specific “psychological” topics (i.e. personality, sensation/perception, self-esteem, etc.) from a biblical vantage point. A biblical discussion of depression and anxiety will be an aspect of this course, along with how one would use this material to counsel/minister to others. Three hours.

PM 6060 Legal and Ethical Issues in Pastoral Counseling

This course is designed to develop a broad biblical knowledge base, critical thinking and ethical decision-making skills for pastoral counselors. A focus will be given to a high standard of personal and professional ethics to enhance pastoral counseling that is above reproach. Three hours. Three hours.

Technology

PM 5180 Technology & Media in Ministry

This course addresses the everchanging media technology challenges that ministries face today. This course identifies the ever changing and complex landscape of media technology in a media-centric society and how ministries can use modern media effectively to communicate the life-changing message of Jesus Christ. Three hours.

PM 5190 Worship Arts

This course is designed to address corporate worship within the context of media technology. This course acknowledges the need for technology to accomplish tasks as well as produce creative media rich environments for worship experiences. Three hours.

PM 6070 Creative Communication Strategies

A comprehensive approach to building mission-driven and culturally-sensitive ministry communications. Involves integration of traditional, social, and digital media for providing relevant information, inspiration, instruction, marketing, and promotion to ministry stakeholders. Three hours.

PM 6180 Organizational Tools

A comprehensive sweep of organizational and educational technology for more efficient ministry and effective teaching in 21st Century ministry. Includes identification of ministry-related categories in which technology may be useful, in addition to investigating specific tools (software, hardware, services) that can meet practical ministry needs. Three hours.

PM 6240 Developing Tech Talent

An overview of the biblical importance of equipping and its relationship to ministry teams in the local church. Special attention given to identifying, cultivating, training, and deploying skilled teams of tech leaders for ministry. Three hours.

PM 6840 Tech Ministry Internship

The practical application and integration of technology tools within a ministry setting. Includes some topically-guided course content, in addition to a required practical internship and application hours. This internship may be a paid or volunteer role, and involves direct interaction with an onsite-or-off-ministry-site technology-ministry specialist or media minister. Three hours.

Leadership and Management

PM 7010 Ministry Leadership

Ministry Leadership Through the use of reading and writing assignments, online discussions, pastoral interviews, and a self-assessment and action plan paper, the following leadership topics will be covered: servant leadership, mentoring, visionary leadership, and leading as a change agent. Eight weeks of course work will be conducted independently and on-line, culminating in a final paper. Three hours.

PM 6170 Ministry Administration

A theological and practical analysis of administrative principles as they apply to the effective leadership of church and parachurch agencies. Special attention will be given to a balanced relationship between effective administrative functions and ministry. Three hours.

PM 5070 Equipping other for ministry

Equipping others for ministry is a part of our calling from God (Eph. 4:11-13). But how do we work with others so that we reach maturity together? This course will help you see that ministry is not just about doing the ministry yourself, but teaching others to join you in various arenas of ministry. You will learn about God's equipping ministry in your own life, and be challenged to imitate His methods of entrusting others with redemptive work through His Spirit. The class will explore various methods of equipping others, including mentoring, coaching and modeling, and will address the challenges of recruiting, training and retaining volunteers or key staff members. Three hours.

PM 5040 Interpersonal Communication and Conflict Management

Theoretical principles of interpersonal communication and conflict management skills will be applied to ministry settings in order to equip the learner to work more effectively with a variety of people in diverse settings. Through course material, individual reflection, and small group experiences, learners will explore the biblical foundations of relationships, personal relating style, small group dynamics, and roles and conflict management skills. The focus of this course contains principles for evaluating relational maturity, elements that help and hinder spiritual community and skills for dealing with conflict in healthy ways utilizing effective communication skills necessary for personal and ministerial development. Three hours.

PM 6560 Team Leadership

The student will study the biblical principles that mandate teamwork within organizational structures. Group formation and group development will be analyzed, as well as the intricacies of coaching and mentoring to identify team effectiveness that establishes organizational community. Three hours.

PM 6570 Strategic Thinking and Planning

An in-depth study of how ministry leaders can become strategic thinkers and use creative and systematic processes. The focus will be on developing the practices of strategic planning for ministry effectiveness by using key concepts, tools, and principles of strategy formation. Three credit hours.

MASTER OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

48 credit hours

Purpose of the Program

Since there are a number of students who legitimately desire to pursue theological studies without fulfilling requirements from the Master of Divinity curriculum, Grace Theological Seminary offers a 48-credit-hour program in theological, ministry, and biblical background studies. The following types of students are encouraged to consider this program:

1. Those already having had several years of vocational ministry experience who desire further theological study in order to be better prepared for a pastoral role.
2. Bible college graduates having had Greek and at least 12 credit hours of pastoral ministry-related courses (including an internship).
3. Students desiring additional theological study for their particular non-pastoral ministry field. Students desiring to prepare for vocational pastoral ministry or missionary service are encouraged to enroll in one of the Master of Divinity programs.

Program Description

This degree in Christian Ministry requires 48 semester hours of graduate work including 18 hours of core courses and 30 hours of concentration courses. Students may choose from the following concentrations: Local Church Ministry, Chaplaincy, Expository Preaching, Intercultural Studies, Women's Leadership, and Worship Leadership.

Entrance Requirements

Prerequisites for enrollment in the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program are outlined in the section under admission policies. The candidate must possess a bachelor's degree (or an equivalent in the case of international students) from an approved institution, or apply and be approved according to the process for non-bachelor's students, at the discretion of the Dean. For full details, contact the Seminary Admissions Office.

Academic Requirements

A cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above for the entire course of study is required for graduation. No more than 24 credit hours of graduate study may be transferred from approved schools. Any credits earned through advanced standing will reduce the number of hours that may be transferred. Up to 12 hours of advanced standing may be applied to this program.

Intercultural Studies Concentration in the M.A. in Christian Ministry

48 credit hours

Purpose of the Program

A major part of ministry in God’s work today is in an intercultural setting, either in international missions where it is cross-cultural, or in a person’s home country where it is multicultural. To prepare people for this kind of ministry, Grace Theological Seminary offers a Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies that is intended to equip students for cross-cultural or multicultural ministry. It is not designed to prepare individuals for the senior pastorate.

Program Description

The Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies is a 48-hour degree program. The curriculum is designed to prepare students for effective cross-cultural ministry.

Courses are offered each summer in May and July to accommodate students in full-time ministry. Advance standing credit may be obtained for up to twelve credit hours of the 48-hour master’s program.

Academic Requirements

A cumulative grade point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) or above for the entire course of study is required for graduation. No more than 24 credit hours of graduate study may be transferred from approved schools. At least 18 credit hours must be taken in residency at Grace Theological Seminary’s Winona Lake campus. Up to 12 hours of advanced standing may be applied to this program. Advanced standing credit hours, when combined with transfer credits may not exceed 24 credit hours. Students having had previous theological training may waive theological studies courses and replace them with the electives indicated or additional hours in Area Studies or Missiological Research.

Women’s Leadership Concentration in M.A. in Christian Ministry
48 credit hours

Grace College and Seminary and Women of Grace U.S.A. are partnering to provide this degree opportunity for women who are already in ministry and are looking for quality training to develop their leadership skills. The Women’s Leadership Studies program is for women who desire interaction and challenge from others within ministry. This new program will help women to grow in their personal awareness of strengths and weaknesses as a leader in a Christian ministry setting. This program will also help these women develop both ministry values and skills to make genuine connections with others in order to experience God’s love through spiritual friendships and community. Women in this program will gain leadership skills related to the organization and administration of ministry programs in church, para-church and mission environments while internalizing a biblical worldview of dependency on God.

MASTER OF ARTS IN LOCAL CHURCH MINISTRY (DEPLOY)

Purpose of the Program

Deploy's Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry degree is a graduate-level master's degree delivered within students' ministry context. Deploy is a competency-based education program, and as such, includes both academic and applied learning.

Competency-based theological education has been described by the Association of Theological Schools as being "both an educational philosophy and an academic model that 'begins with the end in mind.'" Deploy, as a competency-based theological education program, was designed to help students become proficient in the competencies that are most important for students to master in order to be successful and have integrity in ministry.

With traditional education, students take courses in a fixed amount of time and learn as much as they are able to in the midst of that time. The fixed variable is time, and the dependent variable is learning. Students walk away from a semester-long course having earned an A, B, C, or D level, and then they move on. In CBTE, the fixed variable is learning while the dependent variable is time. Deploy MALCM students must demonstrate mastery of each competency in their program at either an A or B level. They are able to accelerate through competencies in which they are already proficient, and they are able to spend more time in a given competency until they are able to exhibit mastery.

Program Description

This degree in Local Church Ministry requires 42 semester hours of graduate work. This competency-based theological education program is distinct from traditional master's degrees, as shown below:

Highly Flexible

Deploy is substantially more flexible in its pace and its location than other graduate programs. Students can easily make room for their education, as this program allows students to adjust their pace in response to the ebbs and flows of life and ministry.

Application-Oriented

Deploy measures students' competency based on their knowledge, skills, attitudes, and application of what they have learned. All students will participate in active ministry in the local church throughout their program, allowing them to sharpen skills and put their knowledge to use in real-time. Nothing could be more real or valuable.

Mentor-Supervised

Deploy students consistently have three mentors during their program (a formation, ministry, and academic mentor). Academic mentors are credentialed faculty members who regularly dialogue with students concerning the content and progress on related competencies. Ministry and formation mentors provide regular feedback related to development of ministry skill and the personal, spiritual development of each student.

In Context

Deploy students study ministry as they are engaged in ministry. Many residential seminaries have apprenticeships which provide real-life experience for a portion of students' programs. Deploy students are in the context of ministry throughout their program, constantly growing in both their intellectual and practical understanding and preparing holistically for ministry.

Fits Your Life

Students don't need to relocate or leave their ministry context in order to be equipped for ministry. Deploy students complete their work from anywhere they are located. Deploy works with students to allow them to be fully present at home, in ministry, and beyond.

Utilizes Prior Learning and Experiences

Professional and ministry experience may allow some students to accelerate by demonstrating mastery in particular competencies quickly. Students don't need to wait for the rest of their cohort—they simply prove competency and move on.

In addition, students can apply for Transfer Credit or seek Advanced Standing with previous academic experience. (See Advanced Standing and Transfer Credit Policy for more information.)

Entrance Requirements

Students enrolled in the Deploy Master of Arts in Local Church Ministry program must be involved in a local congregation, as partnership with a local church is a requirement for many Mastery Assessments throughout students' programs. Candidates with a bachelor's degree (or an equivalent degree in the case of international students) from an approved institution are preferred. However, Grace Theological Seminary has made a pathway for students to earn the MALCM degree without a bachelor's degree. For full details on non-bachelor's consideration for the Deploy MALCM degree, contact the Seminary Admissions Office.

Academic Requirements

Deploy students must receive an 83% or above on each Mastery Assessment in order to pass their modules. Students are able to utilize three attempts on each Mastery Assessment to achieve this grade. Failure to do so could lead to academic probation or dismissal from Deploy. Competency grades are based on the cumulative average of all module grades for that particular competency. Students must achieve an 83% or above on each competency in order to pass.

MASTER OF DIVINITY (Residential and Online)

Purpose of the Program

The Master of Divinity program provides a basic three-year curriculum in graduate theological study for those preparing for a preaching and teaching ministry of the Word of God. This program is designed to furnish a broad foundation for people entering the pastorate, church-related counseling ministries, intercultural ministry, Christian education, and related types of Christian service. Students may choose from eight concentrations: General Studies, Pastoral, Pastoral Counseling, Christian Ministries, Intercultural Studies, Exegetical Studies, Women's Leadership, and Chaplaincy Studies.

Program Prerequisite

The candidate must possess a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent in the case of international students, from an approved institution, or be approved through the non-bachelor's process (contact Seminary Admissions to learn more). Students who enter the Master of Divinity program without six earned credits, from an approved institution, are required to take six credits of Greek grammar at Grace Theological Seminary. These six credits are taken as undergraduate credit and do not count toward the student's degree program, but are considered prerequisite coursework. In Deploy, Greek grammar is embedded in the M.Div. program.

Residence Requirements

The candidate must complete the three-year curriculum prescribed by the seminary, comprising a minimum of 75 semester hours of credit, with a grade point average of not less than 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) for the entire period. Students transferring from other schools may be granted a maximum of 36 semester hours of credit, providing that the work conforms to the academic standards and curricular requirements of this seminary.

Up to 18 hours of advanced standing may be applied to this program. Credits earned through advanced standing reduce the number of hours that can be transferred.

Language Requirements

Students may earn advanced standing credit toward New Testament Greek I, II, and III as well as Biblical Hebrew I, II, and III. Competency tests are required to assess the student's proficiency in the languages. Students with previous experience in Greek and/or Hebrew who feel the need to review are encouraged to audit New Testament Greek I and Biblical Hebrew I and then take for credit the subsequent New Testament Greek and Biblical Hebrew courses.

General Studies Concentration of The Master of Divinity

75 credit hours

Students seeking preparation for general ministry, particularly roles that include responsibility for the theological and administrative leadership of a local church in the United States, are encouraged to pursue the Master of Divinity with a general studies concentration. A component of practical field experience is built into the requirements.

The M.Div. in Counseling is designed for those who desire to be involved primarily in a counseling ministry, but who also want a solid biblical and theological foundation upon which to build their perspectives and practices of counseling. This degree program is intended especially for those who desire to minister through counseling under the auspices of the local church. The program is not structured to prepare an individual to fill the position of the senior pastor who carries the primary preaching and administrative responsibilities of a local church, nor is it designed to equip the student for licensure as a professional counselor.

Counseling Practicum

M.Div. students with a pastoral counseling concentration are given the flexibility to design their apprenticeship in a way that fits their future goals best. Either in a local church setting, pastoral counseling or a little of both.

Christian Ministry Concentration of The Master of Divinity

75 credit hours

The Christian Ministry concentration equips leaders preparing to serve in settings that advance the gospel and facilitate growth in Christ, such as churches, Christian non-profits, and para-church organizations. The program challenges learners to think developmentally about how people mature spiritually, how to create effective outreach and discipleship programs, and how to teach for life transformation. The curriculum covers a wide range of integrated content as an acknowledgement that ministry is complex, because people are complex. The Christian Ministry program provides strategic theoretical principles integrated with life application so leaders can invest their talents in God's redemptive work in the world.

Intercultural Studies Concentration of The Master of Divinity

75 credit hours

M.Div. students with an intercultural studies concentration take a 6 credit hour Cross-Cultural Internship (Apprenticeship) as part of the regular 60-hour core curriculum and 15 hours of intercultural studies classes. This helps students to prepare more strategically for cross-cultural and multicultural ministries in missions or urban settings. Many ministries in today’s world, with its mosaic of cultures and worldviews, require tools and understanding that this curriculum in intercultural studies seeks to provide.

Cross-Cultural Internship

The 6 credit hour internship will involve a guided culture discovery program and experience in various ministries. This internship can be completed after all course prerequisites and on-campus course requirements have been met. The requirement may be waived if the student can demonstrate adequate cross-cultural experience or is taking this M.Div. program outside his or her own culture.

Women’s Leadership Concentration of The Master of Divinity
75 credit hours

The Women’s Leadership Studies concentration is for women who desire interaction and challenge from others within ministry. This program will help women to grow in their personal awareness of strengths and weaknesses as a leader in a Christian ministry setting. The Women’s Leadership Studies concentration will also help these women develop both ministry values and skills to make genuine connections with others in order to experience God’s love through spiritual friendships and community. Women in the program will gain leadership skills related to the organization and administration of ministry programs in church, para-church and mission environments while internalizing a biblical worldview of dependency on God.

75 credit hours

The Master of Divinity in Chaplaincy Studies is designed to prepare students who feel called to provide spiritual support and guidance outside the local church context. The degree will provide a solid biblical and theological underpinning as well as a balanced training in pastoral counseling skills and intercultural studies. This will provide a solid foundational training that prepares individuals for ministry in military, hospital, sports, marketplace and prison settings.

MASTER OF DIVINITY (DEPLOY)

Purpose of the Program

Deploy’s Master Divinity in General Ministry degree is a graduate-level master’s degree delivered within students’ ministry context. Deploy is a competency-based education program, and as such, includes both academic and applied learning.

Competency-based theological education has been described by the Association of Theological Schools as being “both an educational philosophy and an academic model that ‘begins with the end in mind.’” Deploy, as a competency-based theological education program, was designed to help students become proficient in the competencies that are most important for students to master in order to be successful and have integrity in ministry.

With traditional education, students take courses in a fixed amount of time and learn as much as they are able to in the midst of that time. The fixed variable is time, and the dependent variable is learning. Students walk away from a semester-long course having earned an A, B, C, or D level, and then they move on. In CBTE, the fixed variable is learning while the dependent variable is time. Deploy MDiv students must demonstrate mastery of each competency in their program at either an A or B level. They are able to accelerate through competencies in which they are already proficient, and they are able to spend more time in a given competency until they are able to exhibit mastery.

Program Description

This degree requires 75 semester hours of graduate work. This competency-based theological education program is distinct from traditional master’s degrees, as shown below:

Highly Flexible

Deploy is substantially more flexible in its pace and its location than other graduate programs. Students can easily make room for their education, as this program allows students to adjust their pace in response to the ebbs and flows of life and ministry.

Application-Oriented

Deploy measures students’ competency based on their knowledge, skills, attitudes, and application of what they have learned. All students will participate in active ministry in the local church throughout their program, allowing them to sharpen skills and put their knowledge to use in real-time. Nothing could be more real or valuable.

Mentor-Supervised

Deploy students consistently have three mentors during their program (a formation, ministry, and academic mentor). Academic mentors are credentialed faculty members who regularly dialogue with students concerning the content and progress on related competencies. Ministry and formation mentors provide regular feedback related to development of ministry skill and the personal, spiritual development of each student.

In Context

Deploy students study ministry as they are engaged in ministry. Many residential seminaries have apprenticeships which provide real-life experience for a portion of students’ programs.

Deploy students are in the context of ministry throughout their program, constantly growing in both their intellectual and practical understanding and preparing holistically for ministry.

Fits Your Life

Students don't need to relocate or leave their ministry context in order to be equipped for ministry. Deploy students complete their work from anywhere they are located. Deploy works with students to allow them to be fully present at home, in ministry, and beyond.

Utilizes Prior Learning and Experiences

Professional and ministry experience may allow some students to accelerate by demonstrating mastery in particular competencies quickly. Students don't need to wait for the rest of their cohort—they simply prove competency and move on.

In addition, students can apply for Transfer Credit or seek Advanced Standing with previous academic experience. (See Advanced Standing and Transfer Credit Policy for more information.)

Entrance Requirements

Students enrolled in the Deploy Master of Divinity program must be involved in a local congregation, as partnership with a local church is a requirement for many Mastery Assessments throughout students' programs. Candidates with a bachelor's degree (or an equivalent degree in the case of international students) from an approved institution are preferred. However, Grace Theological Seminary has made a pathway for students to earn the MDiv degree without a bachelor's degree. For full details on entrance requirements for the Deploy MDiv degree, contact the Seminary Admissions Office.

Academic Requirements

Deploy students must receive an 83% or above on each Mastery Assessment in order to pass their modules. Students are able to utilize three attempts on each Mastery Assessment to achieve this grade. Failure to do so could lead to academic probation or dismissal from Deploy. Competency grades are based on the cumulative average of all module grades for that particular competency. Students must achieve an 83% or above on each competency in order to pass.

Students having taken modules prior to the MDiv revision (from 90 to 75) will be eligible to complete their program based on the revised checksheet but must fulfill the new program checksheet despite their MDiv program possibly being longer than 75 hours.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

30 credit hours

Purpose of the Program

The Doctor of Ministry program at Grace Theological Seminary is designed to enhance professional competence by expanding upon an initial foundation of theology training and ministry experience, to enable those in vocational ministry to personally and professionally develop strengths, address areas of weakness, and increase overall leadership effectiveness.

In order to achieve this purpose, the Doctor of Ministry program intends to purposefully engage learners in an overall program to accomplish growth in the following three program learning outcomes:

1. Implement practices of personal and interpersonal development necessary for effective ministry and leadership.
2. Communicate God's truth and its foundational doctrines with homiletical clarity, biblical accuracy, and contemporary relevance.
3. Evaluate and address in an irenic manner trends and how they impact significant issues within the Evangelical church.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry Program

These requirements are in addition to the General Admission Policies for Grace Theological Seminary found in this catalog.

To be eligible for consideration for the Doctor of Ministry program, the applicant must fulfill the following prerequisites in addition to the general guidelines for application as described in the regular catalog of the seminary.

1. An applicant must have obtained a Master of Arts or a Master of Divinity degree from an approved institution as determined by the D.Min. Committee. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4-point scale) in the applicant's previous academic work is required. A limited number of students may be admitted under academic restriction by action of the D.Min. Committee, but they must maintain the grade point average required for candidacy (3.0) to continue in the program.

Applicants with Master of Arts degrees are evaluated based on the number of hours of the degree as well as cumulative years of ministry experience as follows:

If the applicant has:	GPA Required	Years of Ministry Experience Required	References Required	Additional Requirements
ATS Master of Arts Degree of 60 hours OR ATS Competency Based Master of Arts Degree.	3.0 GPA	2 years	Spiritual Reference	None
ATS Master of Arts Degree of 48 to 59 hours	3.0 GPA	3 years	Spiritual Reference	None
ATS Master of Arts Degree of 36-47 hours	3.0 or MAT	4 years	Spiritual Reference Ministry Reference	Call to Ministry Essay and Spiritual Formation Essay
Non ATS Master's Degree	3.25 GPA and MAT	6 years	Spiritual Reference Ministry Reference	Call to Ministry Essay; Spiritual Formation Essay; Demonstrate Ability to Interpret Scripture; Demonstrate Ability to Adapt Ministry Cross Culturally

2. Applicants must currently be serving in a vocational ministry, with at least three years in full-time professional ministry since completing the M.Div. or its equivalent. Exceptions to this policy will be considered by the D.Min. Committee in the case of applicants who have acquired at least ten years of full-time professional ministry experience prior to and during their M.Div. or its equivalent.

3. In addition, the D.Min. Committee may, at its discretion, require:

- (a) a personal interview with the committee or its authorized representative;
- (b) standardized testing to assist in determining the applicant's potential for work at the doctoral level.

Note: Grace Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin in the administration of its admissions, academic, and employment policies.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Course Numbering System

The Doctor of Ministry courses are numbered from 8000–8990. The letter prefix indicates the program of study: PM 8000 level – Doctor of Ministry Concentration Courses (D.Min.): Advanced Expository Preaching; Intercultural Studies; Ministry Leadership; Pastoral Studies; Interdisciplinary Studies.

The courses that are offered on a regular basis are listed in this catalog. Contact the Registrar's office or access the Grace Seminary Web site: <https://seminary.grace.edu/programs/doctor-ministry-pastoral-studies/> for upcoming seminars.

Program Description

Each student must complete a total of 30 credit hours. This includes eight seminars (three credit hours each) and a Professional Project (six credit hours) at the conclusion of seminar studies. Each D.Min. seminar involves:

1. Completion of 2000–2,500 pages of reading and/or writing assignments in advance of the seminar. Pre-class [course] assignments are available approximately 90 days before the beginning of each on campus seminar. In order to receive pre-class assignments, students should register for the course on the seminary website (scroll down to "How to Register for Doctoral Seminars"): <https://seminary.grace.edu/programs/doctor-ministry-pastoral-studies/>. Then, please contact the Director of Doctoral Programs, Dr. Rock LaGioia and request a syllabus: lagioir@grace.edu.
2. Satisfactory attendance and participation in the one-week intensive on campus seminar.
3. A post-seminar project turned in within 12 weeks of the completion of the seminar.

Professional Project (6 hours)

Prospective students should secure the D.Min. Professional Project Handbook (see <https://seminary.grace.edu/programs/doctor-ministry-pastoral-studies/>) for full details regarding the required D.Min. Professional Project.

Academic Requirements

All general academic requirements outlined elsewhere in this catalog apply to the Doctor of Ministry program. The D.Min. Committee may place any student who receives a grade of less than a “B-” in any seminar on academic probation. A student’s program may be terminated by the D.Min. Committee if a grade of less than a “B-” is earned in two or more seminars. As an advanced ministry degree, the highest levels of academic, spiritual, and ministry expectations will be required. Students failing to meet these objectives of the program may be discontinued in the program.

Transfer Credit from Other Institutions

Grace Seminary DMin students may receive credit for a total of up to two doctoral courses (6 credit hours total) from another ATS-accredited seminary. Any such credit would be extended only after evaluating and comparing those transcribed courses for correspondence to our curriculum and program objectives. Transferrable seminars may be (1) taken prior to arriving at Grace, (2) taken concurrently while at Grace, or (3) a combination of both. Current Grace DMin students seeking to take courses at other institutions as a visiting scholar should seek transfer approval prior to taking such courses in order to guarantee academic credit.

Program Continuation

The D.Min. Continuation Policy ensures godly stewardship of Grace Seminary resources and encourages students to make timely progress toward their goal of graduation. Each semester throughout their program doctoral students are expected to maintain ongoing enrollment. In the event a student does not register for a doctoral seminar/professional project any given semester, he or she will automatically be placed into “Continuing Registration” status.

Since only a limited number of students can be effectively serviced, Continuing Registration status preserves a student’s spot in the program, despite their temporary lapse in enrollment, while allowing them to maintain student status, along with access to faculty, student email accounts, and other campus resources and materials. Continuing Registration status is allowable for no more than one year in order to ensure high graduation rates and to faculty’s full investment in the lives of active students.

Following a year (Summer and Fall) of Continuing Registration, students must either withdraw from the program or communicate in writing to the Director of Doctoral Programs regarding their desire to continue in study, along with a personal degree completion plan and proposed graduation date. If permitted to continue in the program, the student agrees to register for at least one seminar per year for the duration of their program. Failing to do so will result in the requirement to submit a Program Withdrawal Form or face institutional expulsion.

Continuing Registration status incurs a fee of $100 each semester. The Continuing Registration fee may be waived based upon the following circumstances:

1. The student suffers an incapacitating illness or injury.
2. The student experiences a change in ministry requiring a time of adjustment.
3. The student serves as a missionary outside the U.S. precluding attendance on campus except during furlough periods.
4. The student has already taken all of the courses offered in a given semester.
5. Other exceptional circumstances warranting Continuing Registration as determined by the Doctoral Committee.

Program Completion

The Doctor of Ministry has been structured in such a way that the degree may be completed in as little as three years of concentrated study. The Doctoral Committee believes that as little as three and as much as five years is sufficient time to complete the program, so doctoral candidates remain current with course content and latest research.

If not completed in a period of five academic years, a student will be required to submit a Program Withdrawal Form or a One-Year Program Extension Form. If an extension is approved, a $250 charge per semester will be assessed on the student's bill as a means of accountability and the servicing of student records and advising. If not completed after the initial one-year extension, the student shall withdraw from the program. On rare occasions a second and final year-long extension may be requested assuming (a) sufficient evidence for the delay is presented and (b) a substantial plan for timely completion is proposed. During that final one-year extension, the student would continue to be assessed the $250 extension fee, in addition to attending regular and required (in person or online) meetings with the Director of Doctoral Programs or First Reader. No student will be allowed to continue enrollment in the Doctor of Ministry program following the end of the statute of limitations. Students who do not apply for an extension after three years will be asked to submit a Program Withdrawal Form. Students who still have not completed the program after a one-year extension will be asked to submit a Program Withdrawal Form. Students who wish to be readmitted into the program must submit a petition in writing to the Director of Doctoral Programs explaining clearly and concretely how they plan to complete the program in a timely manner. If the Doctoral Committee approves the petition, the student must file a Readmit Form with the Seminary Admissions Office. If readmitted, the student may be asked to register for up to two seminars per academic year or the Professional Project.

Independent Study

D.Min. students are allowed to take one independent study course (3 hrs.) with a Grace Seminary professor. The tuition amount for an independent study course is identical to that charged for a traditional D.Min. course.

Continuing Education

Pastors, missionaries, and other vocational Christian workers desiring to audit a seminar are invited to register as unclassified students and pay the audit fee. Graduates of Grace's D.Min. program may attend classes on an informal basis for $100. A schedule for upcoming seminars may be obtained on the Grace Web site <https://seminary.grace.edu/programs/doctor-ministry-pastoral-studies/> or from the Director of Doctoral Programs.

Provisional Admission Students

A student who qualifies for the Doctor of Ministry program may complete up to two D.Min. seminars (6 hours) as a “provisional admission” student before he or she has been fully accepted into the program.

Full-time Students

Full-time doctoral students are those enrolled in a doctoral level program for at least six semester hours of credit during a regular semester. The exceptions to this F1 visa students must fulfill full-time registration every semester to maintain their visa status. For F1 students that does not apply to summers, only spring and fall semesters.

Tuition and Fees

Current Doctor of Ministry tuition rates may be obtained from the Grace Schools Business Office or from the Grace Seminary Web site <https://seminary.grace.edu/>. D.Min. seminary fees must be paid in full during the week of class.

A non-refundable $250 deposit paid 90 days before the beginning of each seminar (to register and receive pre- course assignments) will be applied toward the tuition. As indicated above, D.Min. students are required to pay the remaining seminar tuition in full during the week of class.

The fee for the Professional Project (seminar) must be paid by the student at the outset of the semester during which he or she registers for the Professional Project (by January 15 of the year of graduation).

Financial Aid

Church-Matching Scholarships are available to D.Min students, as are Federal Student Loans. Please contact Grace’s Financial Aid Office (ext. 6162) for further information.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate from Grace Theological Seminary with the Doctor of Ministry degree a candidate must:

1. Complete eight seminars (24 credit hours) with a grade of “B-” or above in each seminar.
2. Pass an oral review for candidacy, if requested by the D.Min. Committee.
3. Complete the ministry-related Professional Project (six credit hours).
4. Have no outstanding financial obligation to Grace Theological Seminary.
5. Complete the following graduation procedures:
 - Register for PM 8990 Professional Project on or before Jan. 15 of the school year of his or her graduation. The Professional Project will be well underway by this time and is to be completed during the spring semester of the graduation school year of the student. Professional Projects may not be completed during the summer to qualify toward graduation during the same school year. (See complete Professional Project schedule as set forth in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook.)
 - Complete the online “Application for Graduation.” This form may be found on the Grace portal and must be completed by December 15 of the year immediately before the year of the student's graduation. Applications received after this date will be considered late and a $150 late fee will be charged to the student.

- Each student pursuing the Doctor of Ministry degree must take full responsibility for meeting graduation requirements.

It should be noted that there are two possible completion dates for a graduating student: December and May.

Note: Online Doctor of Ministry options are under development. Contact Seminary Admissions to learn more.

DOCTOR OF INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

This program is offered online (38 credit hours)

Primary goals of the Program

Students in the DICS degree program will exhibit a mastery of the various disciplines associated with the program by writing an approved course project at the end of each course. This project will apply their mastery of the discipline to a case study of an existing problem, controversy, or quandary in a real-life context.

Students in the DICS degree program will demonstrate an advanced understanding of the relationship of theological studies to missiology in course projects concerning cross-cultural morality and ethics, cross-cultural conflict management, theology of mission, world and New Testament strategies for mission.

Students in the DICS degree program will demonstrate a complex perception of cross-cultural leadership skills through written projects in the areas of contextualization of leadership and administration in mission.

Students in the DICS degree program will demonstrate an appreciation for and comprehension of the difficulties of cross-cultural understanding and relationships in both professional and ministry situations in research papers dealing with intercultural communication, contextualization, and applied cultural anthropology.

Students in the DICS degree program will demonstrate an understanding of and skill in socio-anthropological research and teaching in a project for the course in social research and the writing of an approved dissertation for the degree. The dissertation research will be a comprehensive study of a problem related to effective mission enterprise in a specified cultural context or area of ministry.

Courses in Module Format for the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Degree

The Doctor of Intercultural Studies program is an advanced degree designed to bring further professional development to Christian leaders, pastors, church planters, and missionaries who have vocational ministry experience and a foundation of theological studies. The curriculum is built around eight-week online modules, reading and writing assignments, and a professional research project. The programs are structured to enable pastors and other ministry leaders to complete the degree without leaving their current ministries. The Doctor of Intercultural Studies program is for advanced studies in the numerous areas of missiology. The Doctor of Intercultural Studies program requires 10, eight-week online modules and an in-depth research project.

Transfer of Credits and Partnership Programs. Grace Seminary DICS students may receive credit for a total of up to one half of the credits from another ATS-accredited seminary. Any such credit would be extended only after evaluating and comparing those transcribed courses for correspondence to our curriculum and program objectives. Transferrable seminars may be (1) taken prior to arriving at Grace, (2) taken concurrently while at Grace, or (3) a combination of both. Current Grace DICS students seeking to take courses at other institutions as a visiting scholar should seek transfer approval prior to taking such courses in order to guarantee academic credit.

Admission to the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program

Basic Academic Requirements

To be eligible for consideration for the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program, an applicant must have obtained a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from an approved institution as determined by the Doctoral Committee. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4-point scale) in his/her previous academic work is required. A limited number of students may be admitted under academic restriction by action of the Doctoral Committee, but they must maintain the grade point average required for candidacy to continue in the program.

Experience Prerequisite

To be eligible for admission to the DICS. Program, the applicant must have completed at least four years in full-time professional intercultural ministry after earning an M.Div. degree or its equivalent. The Doctoral Committee must approve any waiver of these requirements.

Required Statement

Prospective students will also provide a typewritten statement of five to eight pages, including their conversion experience, call to ministry, philosophy of ministry, assessment of personal strengths and weaknesses, and objectives in pursuing a DICS degree. A résumé of all previous positions in Christian ministry will also be required.

Application and References

An application may be secured from the Grace College & Seminary website, <https://www.grace.edu/admissions/>. An application packet may be secured from the Seminary Recruitment Office. The packet includes complete instructions on application procedures. Materials to be submitted to the Graduate Admissions Office include the following:

1. The application form with all applicable questions answered in full, including an attached written testimony of the student's conversion and spiritual growth over the past few years.
2. A non-refundable $25 application fee.
3. One recent photograph of the applicant.
4. A reference form from a mission agency supervisor or Grace Theological Seminary approved local course coordinator.
5. A reflection paper of five to seven pages concerning areas of interest and concern in the field of Intercultural Studies and the applicant's purpose in pursuing and expectations of the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Degree.
6. Official transcripts from all colleges and/or seminaries attended.

International Students

Students who are not U.S. citizens and who have completed a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with a high academic standing are encouraged to apply to the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program. Such students should be aware, however, that the seminary has limited scholarships.

In addition to the normal application procedures, applicants from other countries must meet the following requirements:

1. The applicant is required to secure and complete a pre-application from the Seminary Recruitment Office on which he or she gives preliminary verification of financial ability to meet the cost of the DICS Degree Program, including living expenses. A full application for admission will be processed only when this information is supplied.
2. A full application is to be submitted with all the appropriate accompanying material. With the regular materials the student must also supply a certificate showing evidence that he or she has adequate resources for his or her own program of studies in the United States. Grace Theological Seminary will not issue the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) until it receives and approves the completed Financial Certificate guaranteeing these funds, all application materials, and the advance $100.00 payment on tuition and fees for the first course. For all summer modules, all international students will have to be accepted to Grace Theological Seminary by January 15th. I-20 forms will be issued by February 1 for students to be registered for classes by March 15th.
3. Where practical, the applicant will be requested to attend an interview with a designated missionary or seminary representative in his or her home country. A confidential report from this interview will become a part of the required application credentials.
4. An applicant whose native language is other than English must complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), unless he or she has obtained an accredited master's degree at an English-speaking institution.

The TOEFL is a standard test offered at testing centers throughout the world. Information about the test can be obtained by contacting the Educational Testing Service (ETS) directly at: TOEFL Services, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, New Jersey 08541-6151, USA; or contact TOEFL Services on the Web at www.toefl.org, by E-mail toefl@ets.org, or by telephone at (609) 711-7500).

Grace Theological Seminary reserves the right to require students to add English courses to their program of study at their own cost if deemed necessary. A minimum score of 560 (220 computer-based, 83 Internet-based) on the TOEFL is required for admission to Grace Theological Seminary. TOEFL scores should be mailed directly to Grace Theological Seminary by ETS. Our institutional code is 1252. Results will be mailed to the Graduate Admissions Office by placing this code in the appropriate place on the test registration form.

Interview Requirement

The Doctoral Committee may, at its discretion, require a personal interview with the Committee or its authorized representative and/or standardized testing, to assist in determining the applicant's potential for work at the doctoral level.

Prospective applicants who meet the above prerequisites are encouraged to write or e-mail the Seminary Recruitment Office for a Doctor of Intercultural Studies Handbook and a Doctor of Intercultural Studies Application Form.

Tuition Deposit

A $250 advance payment on tuition and fees is required of all new DICS students upon receipt of their letter of acceptance and before registration for classes. If the student decides to withdraw his or her admission and notifies this office, refunds will be made according to a schedule established by the Business Office. The Business Office may be contacted for details.

Medical Insurance

Every student at the time of registration is strongly encouraged to have secured medical insurance coverage for himself or herself and all dependents. This stands as an ethical obligation of students that may only become apparent at a time of greatest need. Students are urged to handle this matter with the highest degree of integrity. For further information contact the Grace Schools Health Center.

Program Requirements

The courses for the DICS Degree Program are offered on a regular basis and are listed in this catalog. Contact the Director of the Doctoral Programs or access the Grace Theological Seminary Web site <https://seminary.grace.edu/programs/doctor-intercultural-studies/> for upcoming seminars.

Program Description

Each student must complete a total of 38 credit hours. This includes ten prescribed seminars (three credit hours each) and an in-depth Research Project at the conclusion of his or her seminar studies. Each seminar unit involves:

(a) Completion of reading and/or writing assignments in advance of the seminar. Pre-course assignments are available approximately 90 days before the beginning of each seminar.

(c) A post-seminar project turned in within 12 weeks of the completion of the seminar.

KOREAN ONLINE DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

ONLINE DOCTOR OF MINISTRY - KOREAN
30 credit hours

Purpose of the Online Doctor of Ministry Program

The online Doctor of Ministry program at Grace Theological Seminary is designed to enhance professional competence by expanding upon a foundation of theology training and ministry experience, to enable those Korean students who are engaged in vocational ministry to personally and professionally develop strengths, address areas of weakness, and increase overall leadership effectiveness. The curriculum is built around eight online seminars and a major degree project.

Admission to the Online Doctor of Ministry Program

These requirements are in addition to the General Admission Policies for Grace Theological Seminary found in this catalog.

To be eligible for consideration for the Doctor of Ministry program, the applicant must fulfill the following prerequisites in addition to the general guidelines for application as described in the regular catalog of the seminary.

1. An applicant must have obtained a Master of Arts or a Master of Divinity degree from an approved institution as determined by the Doctoral Committee. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4-point scale) in the applicant’s previous academic work is required. A limited number of students may be admitted under academic restriction by action of the Doctoral Committee, but they must maintain the grade point average required for candidacy (3.0) to continue in the program.

Applicants with Master of Arts degrees are evaluated based on the number of hours of the degree as well as cumulative years of ministry experience as follows:

If the applicant has:	GPA Required	Years of Ministry Experience Required	References Required	Additional Requirements
Master of Arts Degree of 60 hours OR Competency	3.0 GPA	2 years	Spiritual Reference	None

Based Master of Arts Degree.
Master of Arts Degree of 48 to 59 hours	3.0 GPA	3 years	Spiritual Reference	None
Master of Arts Degree of 36-47 hours	3.0 or MAT	4 years	Spiritual Reference Ministry Reference	Call to Ministry Essay and Spiritual Formation Essay

2. Applicants must currently be serving in a vocational ministry, with at least three years in full-time professional ministry since completing the M.Div. or its equivalent. Exceptions to this policy will be considered by the Doctoral Committee in the case of applicants who have acquired at least ten years of full-time professional ministry experience prior to and during their M.Div. or its equivalent.

3. In addition, the Doctoral Committee may, at its discretion, require:
 (a) a personal interview with the committee or its authorized representative;
 (b) standardized testing to assist in determining the applicant’s potential for work at the doctoral level.

Note: Grace Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin in the administration of its admissions, academic, and employment policies.

ONLINE DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Online Course Numbering System

The online Doctor of Ministry courses are numbered from 8000–8990. The letter prefix indicates the program of study: PM 8000 level Pastoral Studies Concentration or DI 8000 level Intercultural Studies Concentration. The courses that are offered on a regular basis are listed in this catalog.

Online Doctor of Ministry Program Description

ONLINE DOCTOR OF INTERCULTURAL STUDIES - KOREAN

38 credit hours

Primary Goals of the Online DICS Program

1. Students in the online DICS degree program will exhibit a mastery of the various disciplines associated with the program by writing an approved course project at the end of each course. This project will apply their mastery of the discipline to a case study of an existing problem, controversy, or quandary in a real-life context.
2. Students in the online DICS degree program will demonstrate an advanced understanding of the relationship of theological studies to missiology in course projects concerning cross-cultural morality and ethics, cross-cultural conflict management, theology of mission, world and New Testament strategies for mission.
3. Students in the online DICS degree program will demonstrate a complex perception of cross-cultural leadership skills through written projects in the areas of contextualization of leadership and administration in mission.
4. Students in the online DICS degree program will demonstrate an appreciation for and comprehension of the difficulties of cross-cultural understanding and relationships in both professional and ministry situations in research papers dealing with intercultural communication, contextualization, and applied cultural anthropology.
5. Students in the online DICS degree program will demonstrate an understanding of and skill in socio-anthropological research and teaching in a project for the course in social research and the writing of an approved dissertation for the degree. The dissertation research will be a comprehensive study of a problem related to effective mission enterprise in a specified cultural context or area of ministry.

Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies Degree Program Structure

The Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies program is an advanced degree designed to bring further professional development to Christian leaders, pastors, church planters, and missionaries who have vocational ministry experience and a foundation of theological studies. The curriculum is built around reading and writing assignments and a professional research project. The program is structured to enable pastors and other ministry leaders to complete the degree without leaving their current ministries. The Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies program is for advanced studies in the numerous areas of missiology and it requires 10 modules and an in-depth professional research project.

Admission to the Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program

Basic Academic Requirements

To be eligible for consideration for the Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program, an applicant must have obtained a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from an approved institution as determined by the Doctoral Committee. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4-point scale) in his/her previous academic work is required. A limited number of students may be admitted under academic restriction by action of the Doctoral Committee, but they must maintain the grade point average required for candidacy to continue in the program.

Experience Prerequisite

To be eligible for admission to the Online Doctor of Intercultural Studies Program, the applicant must have completed at least four years in full-time professional intercultural ministry after earning an M.Div. degree or its equivalent. The Doctoral Committee must approve any waiver of these requirements.

Required Statement

Prospective students will also provide a typewritten statement of five to eight pages, including their conversion experience, call to ministry, philosophy of ministry, assessment of personal strengths and weaknesses, and objectives in pursuing an online DICS degree. A résumé of all previous positions in Christian ministry will also be required.

Application and References

An application may be secured from the Grace College & Seminary website, <https://www.grace.edu/admissions/>. An application packet may be secured from the Seminary Recruitment Office. The packet includes complete instructions on application procedures. Materials to be submitted to the Graduate Admissions Office include the following:

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Christian Theology & Church History

The purpose of the theological courses in this department is to equip students to ascertain by inductive study, to formulate, and to present in systematic form the fundamental truths of the Christian faith as revealed in the Word of God. The general theological method is both exegetical and systematic. The main textbook and final authority is the Bible itself.

TH 5010 Systematic Theology I

An introduction to theology and its sources. Foundations will be laid in the areas of Prolegomena, Bibliology, Theology Proper, Christology, Pneumatology, and Angelology. CPY 5010. Three hours.

TH 5020 Systematic Theology II

A survey of the following basic areas of Theology: Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology. CPY 5020. Three hours.

TH 5075 Apologetics

The purpose of this course is to provide students with an introductory survey to the defense of the Christian worldview in its contemporary context. The course will cover areas such as: the biblical and theological justification for the apologetic task; issues surrounding apologetic methodology; strategies for effective presentation and argumentation; the development of a positive case for Christianity; common objections against the Christian worldview; and a critique of prevalent ideologies and worldviews. This course will address philosophical, historical, scientific, and cultural issues surrounding the defense of Christianity in the contemporary world. PHI 3000. Three hours.

TH 5090 Hermeneutics

Designed to present the history of and to acquaint the student with the main principles of biblical interpretation, and to introduce background material about the historical, cultural and linguistic milieu out of which the Bible came. It includes case studies in order to practice developing biblical insights for confronting today's problems. TH 5110. Three hours.

TH 5120 Bible Study Methods

This course is designed to introduce learners to the basics of biblical interpretation and practical biblical inquiry. This course will cover essential elements of Hermeneutics as well as give practical training in bible study methodology focusing on the historical-grammatical interpretative method in the inductive bible study format. MIN 5100. Three hours.

TH 5140 Biblical Backgrounds

Students will seek to understand how people thought, communicated, and lived in the ancient world during the OT, NT and Intertestamental Periods. Special emphasis will be placed on key people groups and political, cultural, theological, and literary developments that form the background to the Bible. Students will learn to use insights from geography, cultural anthropology, archaeology, sociology, philosophy, politics, literature, and history for the interpretation of Scripture in light of the history and culture of the people to whom it was addressed. BBL 3140. Three hours.

TH 5170 Theological Seminar 1

This course is an introduction to theology and its sources. Foundations will be laid in the areas of prolegomena, Bibliology (The Bible), Theology Proper (God), Christology (Christ), Pneumatology (The Spirit), and Angelology (Angels including demons and Satan). MIN 5010. Three hours.

TH 5180 Theological Seminar 2

This course is designed to introduce learners to theology and its sources. Foundations will be laid in the areas of systematic theology dealing with Anthropology (the nature of man), Hamartiology (sin), Soteriology (salvation), Ecclesiology (the Church), and Eschatology (future events). MIN 5020. Three hours.

TH 5280 History of Doctrine and the Church

An overview of the development of doctrine in the church from the Apostolic Fathers through the 21st-century. The focus will be on church confessions, major theological movements and controversies, and important theologians. Three hours.

TH 5290 Historical Development of Doctrine

An overview of the development of doctrine in the church from the Apostolic Fathers through the 20th century. The focus will be on church confessions, major theological movements and controversies, and important theologians. MIN 5300. Three hours.

TH 6100 New Testament Theology

An overview of the history, methodology and content of New Testament theology as a foundation for understanding how the Old and New Testaments relate to one another in the context of the church and the Christian life. Special attention is given to major New Testament themes, the use of the Old Testament in the New Testament and the continuities and discontinuities between the Old and New Testaments. Three hours. BIB 4385.

TH 6150 Ethics. This course is an introduction to the principles and techniques of rational decision making in morality. It includes a survey of ethical theories, a review of the basic principles of critical reasoning, and applications of both to moral issues. Three hours.

TH 6810–6830 Readings in Theology

From one to three credit hours may be earned for guided independent reading. A focused area of study within the disciplines of this department is chosen with the approval of a faculty member. Generally, a minimum of 800 - 1,000 pages per credit hour, an annotated bibliography, and one book review will be the final result. All proposals must be submitted in writing to the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary after departmental approval has been obtained. One to three hours.

TH 6910–6930 Independent Study in Theology

From one to three credit hours may be earned for guided independent study. A focused area of study within the disciplines of this department is chosen with the approval of a faculty member. Generally, a reading report and a fully documented research paper will be the final result. All proposals must be submitted in writing to the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary after approval has been obtained from the department. One to three hours.

TH 7100 Advanced Systematic Theology

Building on a foundation of basic orthodox systematic theology, students will explore the issues that create tensions within a theological system. Particular attention will be focused on contemporary theological questions relating to topics such as inspiration, the nature of God, personal eschatology, etc. Students will be expected to prepare position papers, which are to be defended in class. Prerequisites: TH 505 and TH 506 or their equivalents. Three hours.

Old Testament Studies

Since the Old Testament, like the New, is divinely inspired, it must be given serious attention as an indispensable source for doctrine, correction, and spiritual growth. Its narratives provide hundreds of examples of God's dealings with humankind, and by this we gain important insights into the heart of God and His expectations for His people. Its poetry exhibits the joys and agonies of those who pursued godliness, and its prophecies reveal God's concern for Israel in ancient times as well as the future. The Old Testament is critical to the work of the pastor or Christian leader in preaching, teaching, discipling, counseling, and dealing with the challenges of administration.

The seminary, therefore, requires all M.Div. candidates to acquire the ability to translate the Hebrew text of the Old Testament, to gain some practical work in the field of scientific exegesis, and to study the methods and results of biblical archaeology, literary criticism, and ancient near eastern backgrounds. The ultimate goal of these disciplines is not for mere intellectual entertainment, but to enable the student to present the theological, historical, and practical truths of the Old Testament through expository preaching and teaching.

OT 5065 Old Testament Survey - Course offered online only

An introduction to the Old Testament with special reference to background, historical setting, literary composition, theology and message. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of background issues which introduce one to the study of various concepts of the Old Testament, the historical milieu of each Old Testament book studied, the purpose and general content of each Old Testament book studied, the use of the Old Testament in modern ministry, and the foundation the Old Testament provides for the New Testament. Three hours.

OT 5000 Old Testament Introduction

An introduction to the Old Testament with special reference to background, historical setting, literary composition, theology and message. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of background issues which introduce one to the study of various concepts of the Old Testament, the historical milieu of each Old Testament book studied, the purpose and general content of each Old Testament book studied, the use of the Old Testament in modern ministry, and the foundation the Old Testament provides for the New Testament. Three hours.

OT 6010 Old Testament Theology

An overview of the content, history, and theology of the Old Testament as it serves as a foundation for understanding the New Testament, for the church and the Christian life. Special attention is given to the development of Old Testament theology and major Old Testament themes. Students with no prior background in Old Testament studies may be required to complete assignments that will provide a survey of the Old Testament. Three hours. MIN 5205, BIB 4215.

OT 6040 Biblical Hebrew I

This course introduces the student to the essentials of biblical Hebrew with emphasis on phonology, morphology, syntax, and vocabulary. The student will learn how to pronounce and read biblical Hebrew, the form and function of the noun and verb, the basic syntax of Hebrew words, phrases, and clauses. Three hours.

OT 6050 Biblical Hebrew II

This course further considers elements of Hebrew grammar at the beginning level with a focus on the regular verb, vocabulary, and intermediate syntax. The student will build on the foundation laid in OT 604, Biblical Hebrew I. Prerequisite: OT 6040. Three hours.

OT 6060 Biblical Hebrew III

This course further considers Hebrew grammar and vocabulary at the intermediate level with a focus on the remaining stems and the Hebrew weak verb. Designed to prepare the advancing Hebrew student for exegetical study by a detailed consideration of Hebrew syntax and the reading and translating of selected texts. Prerequisite: OT 6050. Three hours.

OT 6910–6930 Independent Study in Old Testament

From one to three credit hours may be earned for guided independent study. A focused area of study within the disciplines of this department is chosen with the approval of a faculty member. Generally, a reading report and a fully documented research paper will be the final result. All proposals must be submitted in writing to the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary after approval has been obtained from the department. One to three hours.

OT 7020 Old Testament Research Project

Careful exegetical research into an issue or problem relating to the Old Testament text or its interpretation or application. The research is to be written up in a 25 page formal paper. For topic approval and writing guidelines, the student must contact the chair of the Department of Old Testament Studies. Three hours.

OT 7040 Hebrew Exegesis I

This course is a practical study of the procedures for doing sound exegesis in the various portions of the Old Testament. The method will include the study of syntax, words, poetics, textual criticism, biblical theology, and practical exegetical exposition in the different genres of the Hebrew Bible. The student will be introduced to the electronic tools available to aid in the preparation of sound, biblically-based sermons/lessons. The course is designed to help the student prepare for the future use of the skills in the ministry of the Word. Prerequisite: OT 6050. Three hours.

OT 7050 Hebrew Exegesis II

An exegetical study of selected portions of the Hebrew Old Testament in the original language designed to show its theological, expository, and practical values. Prerequisite: OT 7040. Three hours.

OT 7420 Advanced Hebrew Exegesis

Further exegetical study of selected portions of the Hebrew Old Testament including wisdom literature and poetry, designed to show their theological, expository, and practical values. Prerequisite: OT 7050. Three hours.

OT 7510–7530 Independent Study in Hebrew

Three hours of credit may be earned for guided independent study in Hebrew. The course must be approved in writing by an Old Testament professor and the Dean of the Seminary. Prerequisite: OT 7050. Three hours.

New Testament Studies

The purpose of the Department of New Testament is to equip students to work in the Greek New Testament—exegetically and theologically—in order that they might accurately interpret and apply the New Testament. Special emphasis is devoted to developing proficiency in the art of exegesis. Students receive instruction in Culture, Literature and History of the NT World, New Testament Greek grammar and syntax, textual criticism and literary analysis, resolving historical/grammatical/lexical/theological issues, and biblical theology, all of which enables students to move from exegesis to biblical exposition and culturally relevant application.

GRE 1010 New Testament Greek I

This course introduces the student to the essentials of biblical Greek with emphasis on phonology, morphology, syntax, and vocabulary. The student will learn how to pronounce and read biblical Greek, the forms and functions of the various parts of speech, and the basic syntax of Greek words, phrases, and clauses. Zero hours.

GRE 1020 New Testament Greek II

This course further introduces the student to the essentials of biblical Greek with emphasis on phonology, morphology, syntax, and vocabulary. The student will grow in the ability to pronounce and read biblical Greek, the forms and functions of the various parts of speech, and the basic syntax of Greek words, phrases, and clauses. Students will also begin study of Greek grammar and vocabulary at the intermediate level. It is designed to prepare the advancing Greek student for exegetical study by a detailed consideration of Greek syntax and the reading and translating of selected texts. Prerequisite: GRE 1010. Zero hours.

NT 5320 New Testament Survey - Course offered online only

This course introduces the New Testament with special reference to background, historical setting, literary composition, theology and message. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of background issues which introduce one to the study of various concepts of the New Testament, the historical milieu of each New Testament book studied, the purpose and general content of each New Testament book studied, the relationship between the New and Old Testaments, and the use of the New Testament in modern ministry. MIN 5210. Three hours.

NT 6020–6040 Independent Study in Greek

This course is a guided independent study in biblical Greek. The course must be approved in writing by a New Testament professor and the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary. Prerequisite: NT705. One to three hours.

NT 6810–6830 Independent Study in New Testament

Independent studies are designed for advanced New Testament Greek students who wish to do independent research on some aspect of New Testament studies not treated in other courses. Evaluations are based upon reading reports and a fully documented research project proportionate to the number of credit hours desired to be earned. One to three credit hours may be earned in any one subject of study. All proposals must be submitted in writing to the Vice President and Dean of the Seminary after approval has been obtained from the chair of the Department of New Testament Studies. Prerequisite: NT 7040 or equivalent. One to three hours.

NT 7020 New Testament Research Project

Careful exegetical research into an issue or problem relating to the New Testament text or its interpretation and application. The research is to be articulated in a major research paper (length determined by the professor). For topic approval and writing guidelines, the student must contact the Professor of New Testament Studies. Three hours.

NT 7040 Greek Exegesis I¹

This course is a practical study of the procedures for doing sound exegesis in the various portions of the New Testament. The method will include the study of syntax, words, poetics, textual criticism, biblical theology, and practical exegetical exposition in the different genres of the Greek New Testament. The student will be introduced to the electronic tools available to aid in the preparation of sound, biblically-based sermons/lessons. The course is designed to help the student prepare for the future use of the skills in the ministry of the Word. Prerequisite: GRE 1020. Three hours.

NT 7050 Greek Exegesis II

An exegetical study of selected portions of the Greek New Testament in the original language designed to show its theological, expository, and practical values. Prerequisite: NT7040. Three hours.

NT 7420 Advanced Greek Exegesis

This course examines further the exegetical study of selected portions of the Greek New Testament (as determined by the professor), designed to show their theological, expository, and practical values. Prerequisite: NT7050. Three hours.

Pastoral Studies

The Department of Pastoral Studies seeks to channel the student's academic training received in the other departments of the seminary into effective pastoral ministry—whether demonstrated in the pulpit, in the pastor's study, in board meetings, or in the educational programs of the church.

In all areas, the Word of God must be applied to the lives of those to whom God has graciously given it. It must be delivered to the lost through the work of evangelism; it must be given to God's redeemed people through educational programs designed for nurture and equipping; it must be applied to special personal needs in the pastor's office.

This department, therefore, is a part of the "how to" segment of the seminary program, instructing the student in appropriate perspectives and attitudes for ministry. This department also seeks to provide instruction in the needed skills and methods for applying God's Word to life with wisdom and effectiveness. Believing firmly that the local church is the center of God's operations in the world, we focus every part of the instructional program on the ministry of the local church. Experienced pastors are used in the classroom and as mentors in order to enhance ministry skills and effectiveness.

PM 5040 Interpersonal Communication and Conflict Management

Theoretical principles of interpersonal communication and conflict management skills will be applied to ministry settings in order to equip the learner to work more effectively with a variety of people in diverse settings. Through course material, individual reflection, and small group experiences, learners will explore the biblical foundations of relationships, personal relating style, small group dynamics, and roles and conflict management skills. The focus of this course contains principles for evaluating relational maturity, elements that help and hinder spiritual community and skills for dealing with conflict in healthy ways utilizing effective communication skills necessary for personal and ministerial development. MIN 5005. Three hours.

PM 5080 Pastoral Ministry Skills

A biblical, theological, and practical consideration of the pastor's call, character, and ministry responsibilities. Instruction will focus on pastoral skill development in areas such as leadership, public speaking, worship service coordination, pastoral care, disciple-making, administering the ordinances, and conducting weddings and funerals.

PM 5560 Exegetical Resources and Tools

This course provides the student with the knowledge and skills necessary for the accurate studying and applying of Scripture as a key to their vocational ministry. In this course the student will be introduced to the necessary tools, both online and printed, as well as various methods and tools necessary for a comprehensive and faithful study of Scripture.

PM 6010 Spiritual Formation

This course investigates the biblical and personal foundations of spiritual growth known theologically as sanctification. It is designed to help the learner understand the impact of family history, personal development and life experiences on one's theological outlook, emotional maturity, relational patterns, moral decisions and ministry effectiveness. Through personal prayer projects, experiential learning and small group interaction, learners will gain a richer sense of self-awareness in order to open more deeply to the love and truth of God. This integrative course attempts to connect theological truth to life in order to explore God's design for growth and how the individual might cooperate within the context of a developing relational Christian spirituality. MIN 6010. Three hours.

PM 6210 Expository Preaching and Teaching

This course is designed to provide instruction and experience in the process of communicating God's truth to people through the avenues commonly referred to as "teaching" and "preaching". It introduces a functional methodology of organizing and developing the components of sermons, and examines issues related to the bridging of exegesis and exposition. It also explores some of the elements of how to "connect" with contemporary audiences and maintain their attention. Learning will be accomplished through (a) classroom instruction, dialogue, and group activities and (b) a preaching/teaching lab experience. This lab experience is intended to provide an environment where the student may gain benevolent feedback while perfecting skills in the oral presentation of biblical truth. Prerequisite: TH5090. Three hours.

PM 6220 Advanced Preaching Seminar

This is a 3 credit hour course that is dedicated to building upon the instruction and experience gained through PM 6210 Expository Preaching and Teaching (which is a prerequisite). It will address an array of sermonic issues—content, form, delivery—and especially will seek to identify ways of handling different biblical genres and different sermon focuses (e.g., evangelistic, doctrinal, etc.). The course will also encourage experience in creative methodologies of preaching, methodologies designed to impact 21st century listeners. Prerequisite: PM 6210 Expository Preaching and Teaching. MIN 5345. Three hours.

PM 6340 Ministry Preaching & Teaching

This course is designed to provide instruction and experience in the process of communicating God's truth to people. It introduces methodology of organizing and developing the components of sermons and examines issues related to the bridging of exegesis and exposition. It also explores some of the elements of how to "connect" with contemporary audiences and maintain their attention. Learning will be accomplished through digesting class lectures, reading textbooks, discussion of teaching, methodology, constructing and delivering sermons, processing the feedback of others and engaging in self-assessment. MIN 5340. Three hours.

PM 6460 Ministry Philosophy for the Church – Course offered online only

This course seeks to promote appropriate ministry perspectives especially as applied to the local church in North America. Two main areas will receive attention: 1) the attitudes and responsibilities of a servant leader of the local church, and 2) a philosophy of local church ministry. In addition, a variety of specific applications of New Testament ecclesiology are discussed and applied to contemporary life and ministry. MIN 5350. Three hours.

PM 6600 Principles & Practice of Prayer

This course will take an in-depth look at prayer as God's means of leading and strengthening faithful servants for His work among Christians and non-Christians of this age. Christian ministry depends on an intimate walk with God for stability and ongoing effectiveness of the ministerial servant, for spiritual formation in the lives of those to whom we minister, and for the strategic planning necessary for effective missional ministry. Not only will the theology and instructions about prayer be examined, but it will be practiced in meaningful ways throughout the seminar. (PG) PM 8250, MI 6600, MIN 6600. Three hours.

PM 6910–6940 Independent Study in Pastoral Ministries

A limited number of credit hours (a maximum of four) may be given for independent study done outside the context of a classroom course. Special outside seminars with additional reading and reporting as assigned by the supervising professor can be used in this regard. One to four hours.

PM 7000 Leadership in the Local Church

Through the use of reading and writing assignments, pastoral interviews, and a self-assessment and action plan paper, the following leadership topics will be covered: servant leadership, mentoring, visionary leadership, and leading as a change agent. Three hours.

PM 7010 Ministry Leadership

This course is designed to strengthen leadership skills for ministry. A study and interaction with these topics will implement that purpose: servant leadership, mentoring, visionary leadership, and leading as a change agent. The methods will include reading and writing assignments, online discussions, pastoral interviews, a self-assessment and an action plan paper. The course work will be conducted independently, culminating in final papers. The prof will address the topic of the week. MIN 5320. Three hours.

PM 7120 Local Church Ministry in the 21st-Century

This course will seek to explore some underlying dynamics of local church life, along with some of the dominant ministry styles of contemporary North American churches, including both attractional and missional models. Focus will also include church assessment paradigms, a consideration of change strategies, and discussion of prevailing attitudes in our society toward the church. A substantial component of the course will include involvement in an off-campus experience designed to expose the student to urban ministries. Three hours.

PM 7325 Practical Ministry Apprenticeship: Evangelism, Discipleship, and Missions

The apprenticeship is designed to foster growth in the student's readiness for leadership and servant ministry in a local church, ministry organization or mission. The apprentice will work under the mentorship of an experienced ministry professional who, in cooperation with Grace Seminary, will give assignments, evaluate the student's fulfillment of assignments and meet regularly with the apprentice. The student will provide to Grace Seminary evidence of having accomplished a specific number of competencies, the number depending on the credit hours being granted for the apprenticeship. The student will be required to complete a small amount of academic work (books read, papers written, etc.), the amount to be commensurate with the credit hours being granted for the apprenticeship. Three hours.

PM 7610–7630 Degree Project

By means of this special course, the student will complete work designed to inaugurate or substantially revise an area of ministry in which he or she is personally interested. A prospectus must be submitted to the project coordinator prior to the beginning of the semester during which the project will be studied and completed. It must provide the information required in the "Guidelines for Degree Projects" available from the seminary professors of pastoral ministry. One to three hours.

Women's Leadership Studies

PM 5040 Interpersonal Communication and Conflict Management

Theoretical principles of interpersonal communication and conflict management skills will be applied to ministry settings in order to equip the learner to work more effectively with a variety of people in diverse settings. Through course material, individual reflection, and small group experiences, learners will explore the biblical foundations of relationships, personal relating style, small group dynamics, and roles and conflict management skills. The focus of this course contains principles for evaluating relational maturity, elements that help and hinder spiritual community and skills for dealing with conflict in healthy ways utilizing effective communication skills necessary for personal and ministerial development.

MIN 5005. Three hours.

PM 5070 Equipping Others for Ministry

This course will help you see that ministry is not just about doing the ministry yourself, but teaching others to join you in various arenas of ministry. You will learn about God's equipping ministry in your own life, and be challenged to imitate His methods of entrusting others with redemptive work through His Spirit. The class will explore various methods of equipping others, including mentoring, coaching and modeling, and will address the challenges of recruiting, training and retaining volunteers or key staff members. MIN 5110. Three hours.

MI 5250 Understanding and Engaging Culture

This course examines culture. It explores the roots of culture as a foundational and overarching expression of humanities vocations as “imaging” of God in Scripture. The subsequent harmonies and dissonances between historical expressions of culture and Christianity are analyzed and discussed. Also, contemporary expressions of popular digital culture, film, video and music, will be selectively surveyed with an eye to developing the capacity to constructively and critically engage culture as Christians. Three hours

PM 5340 Women in Scripture

Students will explore the various roles women played in the OT against the backdrop of the ancient world. They will investigate ways that Jesus elevated the status of women and how NT passages describe the function of women within the Christian community. Using modern theories on the role of women—hierarchical, complementarian, and egalitarian—students will seek to define a biblical approach to contemporary questions about the role of women. MIN 5360. Three hours.

PM 5550 Biblical Foundations of Leadership

This course looks at the life of Jesus to learn from Him as the Master Teacher, Leader and Discipled. Students will explore Scripture and the lives of other godly men and women to gain a composite picture of leadership that addresses heart issues in the lives of people they will lead. Leadership from a biblical perspective will be countercultural and address issues of pride vs. humility, how we view failure/success and taking initiative in a Spirit-driven process. Students will have the opportunity for hands on integration of theory with practice as they process the course concepts in life with others in a relational context of ministry. MIN 5600. Three hours.

PM 5730 Soul Care in Leadership

This class will examine how to journey with others in the midst of their questions and pain. Instead of trying to fix others in pain, soul care attempts to incarnate the presence of God in the life of another and allow God to use you to be his hands and feet. Part of this process is learning how to listen to the Spirit of God and attend to another in the midst of their journey. The learner will have the opportunity to see and reject patterns of self-talk (based on the flesh) in order to embrace Spirit-led patterns of soul talk. The care of souls is an interpersonal part of ministry leadership that often gets overlooked in our program-driven church context. This class will help to equip ministry leaders in their role as shepherd to the flock entrusted to their care. MIN 5820. Three hours.

Pastoral Counseling Studies

PM 5330 Counseling Theories

In this course, students will examine today’s predominant counseling theories in order to develop their own biblical framework in which they will provide counsel to others. The focus of the course is to help discern God’s pathway to proper biblical counseling. MIN 5500. Three hours.

PM 5520 Counseling Methods and Techniques

This course will examine the various skills, methods and techniques used by a Christian or Pastoral Counselor to effectively minister to those being counseled. An aspect of the course is how to use the Bible and prayer in counseling, and direction on when to refer to other professionals. MIN 5700. Three hours.

PM 5800 Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling

This course will examine how to effectively engage in pre-marital counseling to help couples prepare for marriage and to help couples who are struggling in their marriage. Various theories, skills and techniques of marriage counseling will be discussed. MIN 5900. Three hours.

PM 6160 Biblical Psychology

This course will examine the relationship between the fields of psychology and theology. A theology of “integration” will be presented, along with discussions concerning specific “psychological” topics (i.e. personality, sensation/perception, self-esteem, etc.) from a biblical vantage point. A biblical discussion of depression and anxiety will be an aspect of this course, along with how one would use this material to counsel/minister to others. Three hours.

Intercultural Studies and World Missions

The Department of Intercultural Studies and World Mission is aimed at instilling in the heart of every student, a world vision and a passion for reaching that world. The curriculum is prepared to meet the needs of both experienced missionaries desiring graduate study as well as eager recruits preparing for cross-cultural ministry. Four things characterize this program: vision for global ministry, prayer and the recognition of dependence on God’s strength, skill development for effective intercultural ministry, and teamwork to multiply spiritual energies.

MI 5010 Biblical Theology of Missions

A course on the biblical basis and theological framework for world mission showing how that endeavor is the purpose of God as he reaches out to his creation. God is a missional God and all theology has a missional purpose since it concerns the God of mission and the mission of God. The course develops the concepts of how theological categories are inherently missiological and missiological categories intensely theological. DI 8530, MIN 6100. Three hours.

MI 5120 Eastern World Religions

In this course the belief systems of major religions originating and concentrated in the Eastern world are studied with a view to understanding why the tenets make sense and drive behavior for the adherents. How each religion affects the host culture and how the culture affects the religion will be explored. The inadequacies of each belief system will be discussed in light of the adequacy of Christianity, but an introductory understanding of biblical theology is assumed. Religions covered in the course include Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Chinese Popular Religion (Taoism and Confucianism, with reflections of Taoism in Native American Religion), and Shintoism. These will be introduced with a short Theology of Religions. Three hours.

MI 5130 Middle-Eastern World Religions

In this course the belief systems of major religions originating and concentrated in the Middle East are studied with a view to understanding why the tenets make sense and drive behavior for the adherents. How each religion affects the host culture and how the culture affects the religion will be explored. The inadequacies of each belief system will be discussed in light of the adequacy of Christianity, but an introductory understanding of biblical theology is assumed. Religions covered in the course include Judaism, Islam, Baha’i, Zoroastrianism (Zarathustrism), and African Animism. These will be introduced with a short Theology of Religions and comments on why various religions have similarities with others. Three hours.

MI 5250 Understanding and Engaging Culture

This course examines culture. It explores the roots of culture as a foundational and overarching expression of humanities vocations as “imaging” of God in Scripture. The subsequent harmonies and dissonances between historical expressions of culture and Christianity are analyzed and discussed. Also, contemporary expressions of popular digital culture, film, video and music, will be selectively surveyed with an eye to developing the capacity to constructively and critically engage culture as Christians. Three hours

MI 5300 Encountering Islam

This course will cover the origins of Islam as well as its beliefs and practices from both the Qur’an and the Hadith literature and traditions. The life of Muhammad and the Qur’an itself will be studied from the standpoint of original Muslim sources. Faith and practice in modern-day Islam in its various forms, Islam’s response to Christianity, and Christianity’s response to Islam will be explored. Students will research and present findings on issues in Islam. Practical ways to reach out to Muslims will be discussed. DI 8200, IM 8300. Three hours.

MI 5540 Ministry & Cultural Diversity

The goals for this course are (1) to give Christian ministry students as awareness of the nature of cultural systems and how they affect ministry in multi-cultural settings and (2) to give them insights, methods, and skills for adapting their perspective and activities for a relevant ministry to those of other cultural backgrounds. MIN 5310. Three hours.

MI 6030 Intercultural Communication

A study of the principles and processes of communicating effectively with people from a second cultural context. The course focuses on functional perception and how cultural worldview, beliefs, and values affect that through the personal perception of each individual. The shaping of the message, style of communication, and communication networks for each cultural context are explored with a view to penetrating each culture as deeply as possible with the Gospel. The dangers of ethnocentrism and some current methods of contextualization are discussed. PM 5490, PM 8620, DI 8030, IM 8620, MIN 6400. Three hours.

MI 6060 Applied Cultural Anthropology

The nature of man and how his culture affects him are explored with a view to how this, in turn, affects ministry in intercultural contexts. Worldview assumptions and resulting values, beliefs, behavior, and attitudes are studied as to how they affect the person in his perception and understanding of the physical and spiritual world around him and, ultimately, his understanding of the Gospel. Social organization is examined as to how it affects ministry strategy and the nature of culture change is investigated with a view to evangelism. MIN 6300. Three hours.

MI 6080 Teamwork and Leadership Training in Missions

The student will study the biblical principles that mandate teamwork in the world mission task concentrating on the unity of the Godhead as the ultimate model for all unified human relationships. Attention is given to God’s model of reproducing reproducers as His intended normative approach to leadership. The transcultural application of the relationship of Father, Son and Holy Spirit will be carefully studied. Three hours.

MI 6090 Principles of Contextualization

This course prepares the student to fit evangelism, church planting, church development, and relief ministries into the social and cultural context of the receiving people. It majors on preparing missionaries to plant Christianity in the soil of the targeted people group so it will grow up within their context rather than to spread a veneer of Christian values over that culture. The contextualization of methodology, theology, and forms and expressions in the local church is discussed. The danger of Western values being expressed in Bible interpretation and the importance of taking into consideration the religious worldview and the definitions used in the receiving culture are discussed. Emphasis is given, as well, to the differences of the cultural context within which the biblical text was written. Prerequisite: MI 6060. Three hours. DI 8040.

MI 6600 Principles and Practice of Prayer

This course will take an in-depth look at prayer as God's means of leading and strengthening faithful servants for His life and ministry. A large section at the outset of the course is dedicated to studying the prayer life and prayer teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. Additionally, significant questions and issues about prayer are given careful study. Students are expected to establish a prayer partnership during the class to apply what they are learning. PM 6600, PM 8250, MIN 6600. Three hours.

MI 7160–7190 Missiological Research

Missiological research is in-depth study in an area in the field of missiology. It is reserved for upper-level students upon approval of the department chairman and is pursued under his supervision. A research paper, accounting of time, and a reading report with annotated bibliography are required. Prerequisite: MI 606. One to four hours.

MI 7210–7230 Readings in World Religions and Ideologies

This is a guided independent study course designed to give the student an overall knowledge of the religious contexts of the world that the Gospel must penetrate. As a major part of most cultural worldviews, religions, and religious themes will be studied by the student in detail with a view to their function in the society where they are found. Students will search for bridges for communication of the true Gospel in each religious context. Attention will be given to Animism, Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, and their variant forms, as well as many smaller religious systems. One to three hours.

MI 7290 Intercultural Apprenticeship

The Intercultural Apprenticeship is a guided experience and study program in a cross-cultural setting. It involves a culture discovery program for gaining insights into the target culture and understanding the people in their actual situation. It provides exposure to the culture in various areas and experience in various levels of evangelism, discipleship, and church development within this new environment giving the student practical, intercultural encounters for the exercise of the student's theoretical learning. Students also take a distance education course in mission history while in the cross-cultural context and can become a part of the ongoing history in that particular country. Prerequisites: MI 6060 and MI 6030. Six hours.

MI 7300 Cross-Cultural Internship/Apprenticeship

Achieving competence in a second culture can only come about if intercultural training is combined with experience in that culture that is concerned with discovery of the cultural system and building relationships of trust. It is the goal of the Cross-Cultural Internship to provide that experience and practice. The concepts covered in the courses of Applied Cultural Anthropology and Intercultural Communication will become operational in the actual context of the new culture providing for intentional adaptation. Complete culture discovery guidelines are provided and put into practice under the oversight of an experienced mentor in that cross-cultural context. Twelve hours.

MI 7920–7940 Cross-Cultural Internship

The mission internship is a guided experience and study program in a cross-cultural setting. It involves a culture discovery program for gaining insights into the target culture and understanding the people in their actual situation. It provides experience in various levels of evangelism, discipleship, and church development within this new environment giving the student practical, intercultural encounters for the exercise of the student's theoretical learning. Prerequisite: MI 606. Two to four hours.

Deploy Course Descriptions

Note: DGM (MDiv) and DLC (MALCM) – Credits are credit equivalencies

DGM 5050 | DLC 5050 Orientation and Student Success

Students will be competent to enter the Deploy program, demonstrating understanding of its distinctives, tuition and billing, financial aid, student support services, academic policies, and enrollment and withdrawal information. Students will be competent to use key website throughout their Deploy program, including the Learning Management System (Canvas), the Portal, and Nelnet. Students will also demonstrate an ability to succeed in Deploy by doing reliable research and writing at a graduate level. Students will demonstrate this by knowledge and practice of: 1) proper format (Turabian), 2) guidelines to proper citation methods (preventing plagiarism), 3) grammatical structure and syntax, 4) compositional skills (thesis statement, topic sentence, providing evidence for claims, persuasion, clear structure, introduction and conclusion), 5) acquiring information from appropriate academic resources (e.g. scholarship: peer reviewed, edited/published materials). Zero hour prerequisite course.

Students will be competent to understand and cooperate with God in the sanctification process. In order to be competent in this process, the student will grow in acquiring double knowledge: knowledge of God and knowledge of self. This knowledge deals with the root of heart issues out of which flow either the fruit of righteousness (leading to life) or the fruit of unrighteousness (leading to death). The biblical mandate to put off the old man and put on the new man is fundamentally a matter of the heart, not of behavioral modification. Therefore, signs of growth include 1) rejecting lies, which includes brokenness and repentance over sin, while, 2) embracing the truth of one's life in Christ, lived out through pursuing transformation of the mind through the hungry intake of the Truth. The mind set on the Spirit will produce the fruit of the Spirit. The student will also need to understand the common stages related to spiritual formation and be able to identify key markers in each phase of the journey, including God's use of consolation and desolation to promote growth. The spiritual disciplines become tools to open oneself to God; and in the process, what's in one's heart will be revealed. Competence in double knowledge recognizes that spiritual disciplines enable a person to humbly position themselves to hear God speak and to invite Him to do His transforming work. Practicing the spiritual disciplines requires significant effort, but as Dallas Willard says, God is opposed to earning, not effort. What happens in the disciplines such as solitude, reading God's word, praying (including intercession, petitions, listening, and worship), or fasting only have value in as much as they foster an intimate and dependent relationship with God. Three hours.

DGM 5200-5202 | DLC 5200-5202 Thinking Critically in Ministry was previously offered but has been removed from the program. It's learning outcomes have been reallocated into modules within DGM/DLC 5800 and 5900. MA students will take DLC 5904 and 5905 in lieu of DLC 5200-5202, or be permitted to seek course substitution to fulfill their degree requirements. MDiv students are not permitted to seek course substitution to fulfill their degree requirements in light of the MDiv program's overall reduction from 90 to 75cr.

DGM 5300-5303 | DLC 5300-5303 Becoming a Mature Disciple

Students will be competent in the process of becoming a mature disciple who is loving God and loving others. Students will learn to relate to God in a healthy manner. This involves a fully devoted heart that embraces Christ as King, where the pilgrim gives Him full authority and allows Him to prioritize his/her value system. In order to relate to God in this way, the mature disciple will grow in understanding the role of the human heart, the complexity of this biblical concept, and the realities of how the heart is shaped. The problem with a sinful heart is that it desires self and sin rather than God and His way. Even as a Christian, one needs to be aware of the sinful tendencies that are still at work in the redeemed heart, so that the life of Christ may be fully appropriated. Three hours.

DGM 5400-5202 | DLC 5400-5202 Research and Writing was previously offered but has been removed from the program. It's learning outcomes have been reallocated into modules within DGM/DLC 5800 and 5900. MA students will take DLC 5804 in lieu of DLC 5400-5402, or be permitted to seek course substitution to fulfill their degree requirements. MDiv students are not permitted to seek course substitution to fulfill their degree requirements in light of the MDiv program's overall reduction from 90 to 75cr.

DGM 5500-5503 | DLC 5500-5503 Practicing Biblical Hermeneutics

Students will be competent to understand and apply hermeneutics. The student will be competent to demonstrate a basic understanding of the history and contemporary practice of biblical interpretation and its foundational principles and tools while maintaining a commitment to the reliability of the Bible as demonstrated by its authority, inerrancy, and inspiration. Students will apply these principles and tools to their own personal study and application of Scripture and in ministry related projects to improve the student's ability to prepare and deliver hermeneutically sound preaching and teaching materials in their ministry context. Three hours.

DGM 5600-5603 | DLC 5600-5603 Understanding Biblically Healthy Churches

Learners will be competent to understand and articulate the nature of biblically healthy churches. The student will need to be able to translate the nature of biblically healthy churches into their current social context; and be able to implement strategies to establish healthy churches in different contexts. Those strategies must include viable approaches to the teaching of God's word, corporate worship, evangelism (same culture and cross culture), discipleship and multiplying leaders. Three hours.

DGM 5700-5703 | DLC 5700-5703 Exercising Flexibility in Ministry

Learners will be proficient to exercise appropriate flexibility. The student will become aware of personal preferences and learn to deal with them in a way which avoids the tendency toward legalism, and instead, demonstrates grace-filled respect; discerns the difference between flexibility and people pleasing; and distinguish the difference between conviction driven leadership and high control-low trust-driven leadership. In addition, in the spirit of the Apostle Paul's words, "I have become all things to all men that I might save some," the student will develop a growing level of cultural flexibility which flows from a knowledge of and respect for diverse cultures through an exposure to different people groups. Three hours.

DGM 5800-5812 | DLC 5800-5804 Applying Biblical Exegesis

Students will be competent in Biblical Exegesis. The student will be competent to use an exegetical method to accurately interpret genre, language, and literary structures to understand the redemptive/historical/sociocultural context of the Bible, and do proper theological analysis while using the best available resources. MDiv: Twelve hours. MA: Four hours.

DGM 5900-5906 | DLC 5900-5905 Articulating Biblical Theology

Students will be competent to articulate and apply Biblical Theology. The student will be competent to describe and articulate the history, methodology, and content of Biblical Theology. Special attention is given to the progressive revelation and development of Scripture's main storyline, key themes, continuity and discontinuity between the Old and New Testaments, and a gospel-centered, Christ-focused, canonically-sensitive approach to reading and interpreting the Bible as they relate to one's personal life, the lives of Christians, and local ministry context. MDiv: Six hours. MA: Five hours.

DGM 6000-6015 Utilizing Biblical Languages

Students will be competent to apply the basics of phonology, morphology, syntax, and vocabulary of biblical Greek and Hebrew to their study of Scripture. This competency will cover the essentials of Biblical Greek and Hebrew with an emphasis on phonology, morphology, syntax, and vocabulary. The purpose is to understand Biblical Greek and Hebrew for the purpose of translating and doing exegesis in the Hebrew Old Testament and Greek New Testament. MDiv Only: Fifteen hours.

DGM 6100-6106 Applying Foundational Doctrines

The student will be competent to evaluate, synthesize, articulate, and apply foundational doctrines in the different areas of Systematic Theology including: Bibliology, Theology Proper, Christology, Pneumatology, Angelology, Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology as they relate to one's personal life, the lives of Christians, and the local ministry context. MDiv Only: Six hours.

DGM 6200-6203 Understanding the Development of Doctrine

Students will be competent to understand and articulate an overview of the development of doctrine in the church. The student will be competent to understand the development of doctrine in the church from the Apostolic Fathers through the 21st century. This includes church confessions, major theological movements and controversies, and important theologians. The student will demonstrate the ability to apply insights gleaned from historical theology to one's own Christian life, local ministry context, and current challenges for theology and the Church. MDiv Only: Three hours.

DGM 6300-6303 | DLC 6000-6003 Embodying the Love of God

Students will be competent to show love and compassion to others. Those who are learning competence to show love and compassion have experienced the initiating love of God at an in-depth level for themselves. Relating to others in love requires discerning and demonstrating appropriate ways to nurture growth in the life of another. They are committed to becoming an exceptional listener by soliciting feedback from others as they develop empathy. They exercise the freedom to both nurture and confront, to rescue and release, and to discern when to reach out and when to wait. They are not motivated by a Messiah complex [unrealistic valuation of their own importance and ability to save people, but are compelled by love (2 Cor. 5:4)]. They are developing boundary-setting habits in order to prioritize loving their family, while showing compassion to those within and outside the church. They learn from those who have established a track record of loving "hard to love people" within their sphere of influence. They follow the example of Christ whose rhythm of life included loving extravagantly and being replenished deeply through intimate times with His Heavenly Father and selected disciples. They seek out authentic friendship and spiritual community for mutual encouragement. Three hours.

DGM 6400-6403 | DLC 6100-6103 Embracing Cultural Diversity

Students will be competent to understand cultural diversity. The student will understand cultural diversity as a learner who observes, listens, reads, and carefully studies his/her audience. Able to discern the difference between cultural absolutes and biblical absolutes. Appreciative of how culture affects our understanding and application of the biblical text in our own and other cultures. Translates understanding of cultural diversity into appropriate and culturally relevant, biblical ministry within diverse contexts. Three hours.

DGM 6500-6503 | DLC 6200-6203 Articulating Personal Theology

Students will be competent to articulate their own theology in light of their denominational/church affiliation. Students will understand and be able to articulate and explain their own theological convictions as they relate to their denominational or church affiliation, and complete the necessary preparations for ordination, or as if they were pursuing ordination. Three hours.

DGM 6600-6603 | DLC 6300-6303 Resolving Leadership Conflict

Learners will become competent to grasp and adapt to leadership pressures, conflict, and criticisms that are inherent in transformational ministry. This competency requires a leader to understand personal leadership tendencies due to family background and other personal influences (people and experiences), taking steps toward building on the strengths and being released from unhealthy patterns. A leader is fundamentally a Christ follower, who is teachable and solicits wisdom from relevant resources. This type of leader is learning to avoid the tendency to discount one's own voice, giftedness and Spirit-led convictions. Doing so, prevents pitfalls such as plagiarizing sermons, idolizing Christian celebrities, and attempting to clone successful programs without discernment. A growing leader learns to manage his/her own life by exercising self-control that intentionally pursues whatever is pure, true, noble, right, lovely and admirable and avoids compromising situations. Competent leaders learn to face and process criticism and conflict in redemptive ways. Three hours.

DGM 6700-6703 | DLC 6400-6403 Communicating God's Truth

Students will be competent to communicate God's truth in diverse contexts and by various methods based on a thorough understanding of the content, intent, and structure of the biblical text. Mastery of this competency leads to a clear, authoritative, and contextual delivery of the biblical message. This encompasses an accurate knowledge of the audience. This also includes the integration of biblical truth into the life of the speaker. Learners who master this competency will be able to teach others to do likewise. Three hours.

DGM 6800-6803 | DLC 6500-6503 Initiating Transformational Change

Students will be competent to be a change agent who leads churches (or ministries) to become or remain biblically healthy by articulating Christ-centered values and vision, developing strategies that unify churches around these values and vision, and initiating transformational rather than merely transactional change. Three hours.

Doctor of Ministry

DI 8030 Intercultural Communication

A basic understanding of this foundational element in all intercultural ministries is developed in the class and in assigned reading. Communication itself is discussed in its various facets, and then each facet is considered as to how it creates meaning in other cultures for real communication. Social, cultural, linguistic, and psychological barriers to good communication in a second culture are considered. Other areas covered are intercultural education and leadership training. Three hours.

DI 8140 Cultural Anthropology for Ministry

This course provides basic understandings in cultural anthropology for effective cross-cultural and multicultural ministries. It shows the importance of knowing anthropological concepts to gain and maintain that effectiveness and gives the student an understanding of culture with its behavior, values, beliefs, and the assumptions that lie behind them. Among other concepts, the course covers social systems, role and status, rites of passage, enculturation, acculturation, and culture shock. Also discussed are cultural values on time, thinking, decision-making, morality, individualism, conflict, logic, and ambiguity. It deals with the complexities of culture change and how worldview affects that change. Students will discover many of their own cultural values through the course, an essential element in understanding and working with a second culture. Three hours.

DI 8150 Contextualization for Ministry

This course prepares the student to fit evangelism, church planting, church development, and relief ministries into the social and cultural context of the receiving people. It majors on preparing missionaries to plant Christianity in the soil of the targeted people group so it will grow up within their context rather than to spread a veneer of Christian values over that culture. The contextualization of methodology, theology, and forms and expressions in the local church is discussed. The danger of Western values being expressed in biblical interpretation and the importance of taking into consideration the religious worldview and the definitions used in the receiving culture are discussed. Consideration is given, as well, to the differences of the cultural context within which the biblical text was written. This course also prepares pastors for multicultural situations in preaching and teaching ministries. MI 6090. Three hours.

DI 8160 Church Planting and Growth

An intensive study of the biblical definition of a local church and how that becomes the goal in church planting. New Testament early church forms and methods of expansion are investigated. An examination of the spiritual foundation and the principles and methods of evangelism and discipleship is undertaken with a special emphasis given to the training of nationals and the transfer of leadership to them.

DI 8280 Doctoral Research Methods

Essential techniques of qualitative and quantitative research are taught and practiced. The appropriate uses of social research are explored through research reports and case studies. Students use practice exercises to demonstrate their ability to conduct research, interpret the results, and apply findings to practical situation in ministry settings. Three hours.

DI 8520 World Religions

In this course the belief systems of major religions are studied with a view to understanding why the tenets make sense and drive behavior for the adherents. How each religion affects the host culture and how the culture affects the religion will be explored. The inadequacies of each belief system will be discussed in light of the adequacy of Christianity, thus, an introductory understanding of biblical theology is assumed. Three hours.

IM 8150 Mission Strategy

This course will provide examples of the application of strategic planning from the New Testament, in particular from the ministry of the apostle Paul. Throughout the course we will attempt to keep our focus on the supreme purpose of human history, the calling out and perfecting of the Bride of the Lord Jesus Christ. A clear vision of the glory of the Church is our main asset for effective ministry. MI 6140. Three hours.

IM 8300 Encountering Islam

This course is intended to give the student an understanding of the true nature of the religion of Islam. It has become the second most influential religion in the world, next to Christianity itself. In our day

Islam has taken on the reputation of a terrorist organization that is only a short way from holding the world hostage to its demands. How much is true? Where does this emphasis come from? What does Islam say about itself? And what should our response be? DI 8200, MI 5300. Three hours.

IM 8960 Research in Intercultural Ministry

Students in the D.Min. program may receive permission to do independent study relating to a specific intercultural situation. A research paper including related ministry materials will be the final product of the study. Only one independent study of this nature may be considered as meeting the requirements of the D.Min. program. Three hours.

PM 8010 Practice of Ministry Leadership

A study of the biblical and theological concepts of ministry of leadership. Special emphasis upon an analysis of administrative and leadership functions and the practical implementation of management principles, the development of leaders and team-building in the local church. Three hours.

PM 8100 The Effective Communicator

The goal of the course is to increase a speaker's ability to develop messages which are: True to the biblical text; Clear and well-organized; Interesting to listen to; Specifically relevant to the listener's needs. Students will learn (a) how to determine the specific applications of a biblical passage and (b) how to help listeners follow the unfolding of the message. These practical skills will be developed through instruction, examples, group interaction and personal use. PM 7130. Three hours.

PM 8130 Old Testament Preaching and Teaching

This course focuses on some of the basic themes of the Old Testament and how to present them powerfully from the pulpit or in teaching situations. Appropriate hermeneutical strategies will be applied to different genres of the Old Testament. Attention will also be given to the application of these truths to personal spiritual growth. Specific Old Testament problems will be analyzed and discussion will be centered on how to use these problems positively in ministry. This is a practical course that deals with the tools and concepts that help preachers prepare sermons. OT 7000. Three hours.

PM 8260 Current Theological Issues

This seminar coordinates study and discussion of current theological issues and trends that are impacting the church. Special attention is given to the application of these issues and trends to real life settings. This course is team taught. Theology. TH 7101. Three hours.

PM 8370 Change and Conflict Management

An examination of advantages and disadvantages of pastoring an established church; how to assess and implement changes for continuing progress in growth and ministry. Special focus on how to rally support from other leadership and then the church people. Three hours.

PM 8410 High Impact Expository Preaching Method

A study of the High-Impact Expository Preaching (HIEP) Method. Attention will be focused on developing a deep understanding of the impact of anointed expository preaching using a Bible-centric, skill-based, and outcome driven method. Three hours.

PM 8420 High Impact Expository Preaching Lab

A practical preaching lab requiring a step-by-step application and mastery of the High-Impact Expository Preaching (HIEP) Method. Learners will demonstrate growing expertise in Bible-centric, outcome-driven preaching in both the individual aspects of the HIEP method, in addition to expository preaching as a whole. Three hours.

PM 8430 High Impact Expository Exegesis

An exegetical approach in which students will learn to accurately mine the biblical text for the sermon's central proposition as well as the subsequent outline and content, using the High Impact Expository Preaching (HIEP) Method. Three hours.

PM 8440 Multi-Sensory Preaching

An application of current educational psychology and brain research in the field of homiletics. Involves the recognition and engagement of listeners' senses in the congregational preaching context to drive life transformation through engaging learners' attention, comprehension, retention, and application of God's Word. Three hours.

PM 8510 Foundations for Ministry

Required of all D.Min. students, this course is designed to prompt students to rethink the foundational values that drive them and to gain personal feedback from those closest to them. The instructors will seek to help participants reflect upon needs for personal growth and ministry skill development, as well as issues for appropriate theological investigation and cultural relevancy. Opportunities will be given to assess strengths and weaknesses, including the use of testing tools and the development of a plan for enhancing areas of potential growth. (PG) PM 7311. Three hours.

PM 8530 Strengthening Spiritual Vitality

God's grace is expressed not only in salvation but also in the Christian life-in forgiving, accepting, enabling, sustaining, equipping and empowering the believer. This course examines the true meaning of grace, the need for grace (even for believers), the effectiveness of grace in developing Christ-like character and the relationship of God's grace and the believer's practice of spiritual disciplines in Christian growth. Subjects to be covered include: living by grace, preaching grace-based messages, creating a grace environment in the local church, understanding grace as a motivation for both sanctification and Christian service, and the importance of the practice of spiritual disciplines. PM 6530. Three hours.

PM 8610 Pastoral Counseling

This course considers various needs that occur in the context of pastoral ministry and offers insights to understand the complexity of people's emotional and spiritual problems in the church. The psychological approaches with Biblical and theological perspectives provide effective solutions for those people in need.

PM 8630 Leadership and Growth Pipeline

A biblical and organizational analysis of the leadership and growth needs of ministries, resulting in the development of a discipleship-based strategy for sustainable outreach, evangelism, catechesis, assimilation, formation, and leadership production, as evidenced by demonstrable numerical growth. Three hours.

PM 8670 Team Staffing, Mentoring, and Coaching

A biblical and theological overview of ministry leadership as it pertains to coordinating the work of the ministry through volunteer and paid ministry staff. Special attention given to providing advanced strategic equipping in hiring, positioning, equipping, overseeing, mentoring, and coaching ministry professionals. Three hours.

PM 8830 Advanced Shepherding

An advanced biblical, theological, and practical consideration of the pastor's role and responsibilities as the shepherd of God's flock. Special focus on effective pastoral care including disciple making strategy, conflict resolution, ministry to the suffering and grieving, interpersonal relationship skills, spiritual formation in small groups, and pastoral counseling. Three hours.

PM 8840 Ministry Vision and Strategy

A theological overview of management and leadership principles involved in the identification and execution of a God-given ministry vision and strategy. Includes attention to identifying the knowledge, skill sets, tools, and competencies required for effective visioning, vision-casting, and strategic planning required to move an organization to mission-vision-goal fulfillment. (3 hours)

PM 8850 Ministry Alignment and Execution

A theological analysis of biblical and organizational principles effective in the planning, organization, resourcing, and execution of ministry goals. Special emphasis to be given on expertly motivating and mobilizing a well-organized and empowered team of highly-equipped people to reach the multifaceted goals of a church or Christian ministry. Three hours.

PM 8950 Research in Pastoral Ministry

Students in the D.Min. program may receive permission to do independent study relating to a specific pastoral situation. A research paper including related ministry materials will be the final product of the study. Only one independent study of this nature may be considered as meeting the requirements of the D.Min. program. Three hours.

PM 8990 Doctor of Ministry Professional Project—All Concentrations

D.Min. candidates must successfully complete a major ministry project at the conclusion of their course work. This project should involve an actual ministry situation or program need and incorporate significant theological and theoretical research. A project report of 125–200 pages must be submitted. For deadlines, consult the Doctor of Ministry Handbook. Six hours.

Doctor of Intercultural Studies

DI 8030 Intercultural Communication

A basic understanding of this foundational element in all intercultural ministries is developed in the class and in assigned reading. Communication itself is discussed in its various facets, and then each facet is considered as to how it creates meaning in other cultures for real communication. Social, cultural, linguistic, and psychological barriers to good communication in a second culture are considered. Other areas covered are intercultural education and leadership training. IM 8620, MI 6030, MIN 6400, PM 5490, PM 8620. Three hours.

DI 8080 Modern Trends in Global Mission (Online Seminar)

This course examines recent developments in Christian mission against a four-fold backdrop. First, God's divine governance of his world is a foundational reality to be acknowledged. Second, under God's ultimate reign the world changes, as do its various contexts. Third, God specially directs and empowers his redemptive mission throughout the earth. Fourth, historically Christian mission efforts have arisen within settings determined by the three facets just listed. Modern mission trends can thus best be examined by keeping in view this four-fold backdrop of God's governance, changing world contexts, Spirit-led mission, and mission history. MI 6210. Three hours.

DI 8140 Cultural Anthropology for Ministry

This course provides basic understandings in cultural anthropology for effective cross-cultural and multicultural ministries. It shows the importance of knowing anthropological concepts to gain and maintain that effectiveness and gives the student an understanding of culture with its behavior, values, beliefs, and the assumptions that lie behind them. Among other concepts, the course covers social systems, role and status, rites of passage, enculturation, acculturation, and culture shock. Also discussed are cultural values on time, thinking, decision-making, morality, individualism, conflict, logic, and ambiguity. It deals with the complexities of culture change and how worldview affects that change. Students will discover many of their own cultural values through the course, an essential element in understanding and working with a second culture. PM 8810, IM 8810, MI 6410. Three hours.

DI 8150 Contextualization for Meaningful Ministry

This course prepares the student to fit evangelism, church planting, church development, and relief ministries into the social and cultural context of the receiving people. It majors on preparing missionaries to plant Christianity in the soil of the targeted people group so it will grow up within their context rather than to spread a veneer of Christian values over that culture. The contextualization of methodology, theology, and forms and expressions in the local church is discussed. The danger of Western values being expressed in biblical interpretation and the importance of taking into consideration the religious worldview and the definitions used in the receiving culture are discussed. Consideration is given, as well, to the differences of the cultural context within which the biblical text was written. This course also prepares pastors for multicultural situations in preaching and teaching ministries. MI 6090. Three hours

DI 8160 Church Planting and Growth

An intensive study of the biblical definition of a local church and how that becomes the goal in church planting. New Testament early church forms and methods of expansion are investigated. An examination of the spiritual foundation and the principles and methods of evangelism and discipleship is undertaken with a special emphasis given to the training of nationals and the transfer of leadership to them.

DI 8180 Cross-Cultural Leadership Development

Students who complete this course should be able to: (1) evaluate the models demonstrated and teaching given on leadership development in the Old and New Testaments, including the concept of servant leadership, (2) distinguish the cultural factors that impact on the development of effective Christian leaders in a specific culture, (3) compare and contrast different cultural leadership styles and development processes, and (4) design a leadership development process appropriate to a specific culture. Three hours.

DI 8240 Directed Research and Writing (Online Seminar)

Learners will engage in exploration of potential supporting themes related to their future dissertation topic. This involves designing a detailed topic-driven outline, then conducting a targeted research project under the direction of a DICS faculty member. The online class research project will involve the identification and use of quality digital, print, and other research, resulting in a comprehensive annotated bibliography, then a formal precedent literature draft paper. Three hours

DI 8280 Doctoral Research Methods

Essential techniques of qualitative and quantitative research are taught and practiced. The appropriate uses of social research are explored through research reports and case studies. Students use practice exercises to demonstrate their ability to conduct research, interpret the results, and apply findings to practical situations in ministry settings. MI 6200. Three hours.

DI 8520 World Religions

In this course the belief systems of major religions are studied with a view to understanding why the tenets make sense and drive behavior for the adherents. How each religion affects the host culture and how the culture affects the religion will be explored. The inadequacies of each belief system will be discussed in light of the adequacy of Christianity, thus, an introductory understanding of biblical theology is assumed. IM 7020, MI 6420. Three hours.

DI 8530 Biblical Theology of World Mission

A course on the biblical basis and theological framework for world mission showing how that endeavor is the purpose of God as he reaches out to his creation. God is a missional God and all theology has a missional purpose since it concerns the God of mission and the mission of God. The course develops the concepts of how theological categories are inherently missiological and missiological categories intensely theological. The missio Dei is scrutinized in terms of the nature, goal, story, and methods of that mission. Three hours.

DI 8580 World Religions in Mission

This course provides a clear introduction to the major world religions, examining their religious traditions of the world in light of their history, worldview, practices, places, philosophies, and ideals. These include the Primitive religions, Zoroastrianism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Cheondoism, Shintoism, Confucianism, and Daoism. In addition, by identifying these major religions of the world, this course challenges students to familiarize themselves with these religions and contextualize efficiently within the diversity of religiosity for a more effective mission. Three hours.

DI 8980 Professional Research Project: Intercultural Studies

DICS candidates must successfully complete a major research project at the conclusion of their course work. This project should involve the research of an actual intercultural ministry situation problem, program need, or missiological question and incorporate significant theological and missiological, theoretical research. The proposal for the research will be approved by the advising faculty. A dissertation of 225–250 pages must be submitted. For details and deadlines, consult the Doctor of Intercultural Studies Handbook. Eight hours.

PM 8260 Current Theological Issues

This seminar coordinates study and discussion of current theological issues and trends that are impacting the church. Special attention is given to the application of these issues and trends to real life settings. This course is team taught. TH 7101. Three hours.

PM 8610 Pastoral Counseling

This course considers various needs that occur in the context of pastoral ministry and offers insights to understand the complexity of people's emotional and spiritual problems in the church. The psychological approaches with Biblical and theological perspectives provide effective solutions for those people in need.

ELECTIVES

DI 8060 Cross-Cultural Education

An emphasis is put on educational principles and then relates them to teaching and learning styles of other cultures. Traditional learning styles will be explored for other cultures with a view to the best formal, informal, and non-formal methodologies that might be applied in the various situations. Planning for learning outcomes and meeting expectations for both the teacher and the educational process in the second culture will be discussed. MI 7030. Three hours.

DI 8080 Modern Trends in Global Mission

This course examines recent developments in Christian mission against a four-fold backdrop. First, God's divine governance of his world is a foundational reality to be acknowledged. Second, under God's ultimate reign the world changes, as do its various contexts. Third, God specially directs and empowers his redemptive mission throughout the earth. Fourth, historically Christian mission efforts have arisen within settings determined by the three facets just listed. Modern mission trends can thus best be examined by keeping in view this four-fold backdrop of God's governance, changing world contexts, Spirit-led mission, and mission history. MI 6210. Three hours.

DI 8200 Encountering Islam

This course is intended to give the student an understanding of the true nature of the religion of Islam. It has become the second most influential religion in the world, next to Christianity itself. In our day Islam has taken on the reputation of a terrorist organization that is only a short way from holding the world hostage to its demands. How much is true? Where does this emphasis come from? What does Islam say about itself? And what should our response be? IM 8300, MI 5300. Three hours.

DI 8220 Cultures of the Old Testament

Students will seek to understand how people thought, communicated, and lived in the ancient world during the Old Testament period. Special emphasis will be placed on key people groups and political, cultural, theological, and literary developments that form the background to the Bible. Students will learn to use insights from geography, cultural anthropology, sociology, philosophy, politics, literature, and history for the interpretation of Scripture in light of the history and culture of the people to whom it was addressed. Three hours.

DI 8230 Cultures of the New Testament

Students will seek to understand how people thought, communicated, and lived in the ancient world during the New Testament and Intertestamental periods. Special emphasis will be placed on key people groups and political, cultural, theological, and literary developments that form the background to the New Testament. Students will learn to use insights from geography, cultural anthropology, sociology, philosophy, politics, literature, and history for the interpretation of Scripture in light of the history and culture of the people to whom it was addressed. PM 5060. Three hours.

DI 8300 Ethics and Morality Across Cultures

All Christians hold values derived from their culture. Many, if not most of these values, shape the expression of Christianity in their culture. Much of this is good as it reflects how Christianity is relevant in their context. In many cases, cultural norms define what obedience to God's Word should look like in that particular context in regard to expressions of God's will such as "honor your father and your mother," and "husbands love your wives," or yet "steal no longer...." These culturally defined behaviors seek to respect God's will and honor His name, but they depend on cultural definitions and therefore change from culture to culture. Obedience to God's will is, to some extent, relative to the context in which it is practiced. It is not a question of whether a man should love his wife or not, but rather a question of how he should do that. Issues of ethics and morality often cause conflict between people of different cultures. This course seeks to reveal and discuss God's Word on these vital issues. Three hours.

DI 8310 History of Missions

The backgrounds and development of the mission enterprise from the apostolic period until the present are analyzed in view of their benefit to the intercultural task before us today. A proper understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit in this endeavor is emphasized. To give the student a good grasp of present-day major movements, significant current trends in missiological thought and practice will be examined. Three hours.

DI 8330 Biblical Apologetics

This course seeks to persuade men, women, and children individually and corporately to consider, to compare, to clarify, and hopefully to believe in the exclusive truths and uniqueness of the person of Jesus, the Christ, in the midst of and often in direct opposition to their current faith system. Three hours.

DI 8410 Spiritual Conflict

The purpose of this course is to expose the student to a range of approaches to spiritual warfare and to explore and explain the biblical data on the subject. Biblical teaching and examples in Old and New Testaments will be explored. Various authors will be examined in their approach and models for spiritual warfare. At the end of the course the student will be able to discuss issues within spiritual conflict with clarity and address issues of concern with wisdom and tact. Finally, the student will be able to explain and apply a biblical approach to spiritual warfare in life ministry, which will be demonstrated through a class project. Three hours.

DI 8500 Discerning God's Will

The purpose of this course is to expose the student to traditional ways of "finding" God's will for one's life and then to explore and explain the biblical data on the subject. Biblical teaching and examples in Old and New Testaments will be explored. Various authors will be examined to determine their approach and models for decision making and the will of God. At the end of the course the student will be able to discuss the normally illusive subject of God's will with clarity, speak to the subjective nature of popular theories on the subject, and own a personal theology of God's will for the believer. PM 8500, MI 7090. Three hours.

DI 8515 Biblical Teamwork in Ministry

The student will study the biblical principles that mandate teamwork in the world mission task concentrating on God's approach to man in general and the models and teachings of the Gospels and the Book of Acts. The biblical perspectives on training leadership, as well as the cultural aspects involved in doing that in a second culture, are studied. Various leadership-training models are presented and evaluated. Three hours.

DI 8900 Independent Research Elective

Students in the DICS program may receive permission to do independent study relating to a specific intercultural situation. A research paper including related materials will be the final product of the study. Only one independent study of this nature may be considered as meeting the requirements of the program. The research may take one of two tracks: missiological research or an area study. Missiological research is in-depth study in an area in the field of missiology. It is reserved for upper-level students upon approval of the Director of the DICS Program and is pursued under his supervision. A research paper, accounting of time, and a reading report with annotated bibliography are required.

Area studies are an examination of the secular and ecclesiastical history, the present social, economic, political, educational, and religious situation, and the cultural themes of a country that are of import to the student. A research paper and a reading report with annotated bibliography are required. Three hours.

IM 8150 Mission Strategy

This course will provide examples of the application of strategic planning from the New Testament, in particular from the ministry of the apostle Paul. Throughout the course we will attempt to keep our focus on the supreme purpose of human history, the calling out and perfecting of the Bride of the Lord Jesus Christ. A clear vision of the glory of the Church is our main asset for effective ministry. MI 6140. Three hours.

IM 8960 Research in Intercultural Ministry

This course is an Independent Study which takes place under the supervision of a Grace Seminary Professor. Students desiring to complete an Independent Study must have proven previous ability to complete doctoral level work, apply to the Director of the Doctoral of Intercultural Studies program in writing, and submit a written proposal. Three hours.

PM 8030 Gospel Centered Ministry

The gospel is not merely the door that gets us into the Christian life, but the means by which we continue to experience all that God is and has done for us in Jesus Christ. As such the central task of ministry is to articulate and apply the gospel to every area of life. This class will explore the nature of the gospel and how to make it the functional center of all that we do in ministry. PM 7050. Three hours.

PM 8190 Evangelism and Discipleship

This course considers such issues as: a) the context of society which we are called to disciple and the need to think cross-culturally in order to impact America for Christ; b) the responsibility of the church and the perspectives she must embrace in order to obey God, as well as continue to exist; c) the responsibilities and priorities of the church, which emphasizes the call for churches to be about the business of evangelism and discipleship; d) different styles for church ministry; and e) strategies for personal and corporate evangelistic and discipleship efforts. PM 6720. Three hours.

GRACE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY FACULTY

The faculty for Grace Theological Seminary brings a breadth of academic and ministry experience to the task of training men and women for effective ministry. The team that has been formed brings together a diversity of gifts, ministry experience, and academic preparation to form a strong composite whole.
