Program Description

Program Distinctives

The Master of Science in Nonprofit Management program will be introduced to valuable concepts, practical information and expertise in every class session. Coursework and application projects will help students answer, “What will help me do a better job of serving others now?”

Nonprofit management is about developing employees and protecting your clients. Students will develop the knowledge and skills to be confident that the organization is doing just that. Instructors will emphasize the application of technology for the best results, how to effectively raise funds, how to create and train staff, and how to improve efficiency within the organization.

Throughout the MSNM program, the latest technology and techniques on the web, in the world of nonprofit organizations, teaching donor management software, and how to use social media effectively will be highlighted. In addition, classes in the ethics of fundraising, advocacy, and strategic planning will give the student a broad range of knowledge for leading and managing a nonprofit.

The Master of Science in Nonprofit Management degree is offered fully online, allowing students to maintain professional responsibilities and keep family commitments while earning their Master’s degree. Upon completion of the MSNM degree, students will graduate with the ability to take newly acquired knowledge and skills, combined with the innate compassion for something greater than the individual, to effectively manage a nonprofit organization.

Classification of Graduate Students

Full-time Students: Full-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for at least 6 semester hours of credit during a regular semester.

Part-time Students: Part-time students are those enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program for at least 3 hours of credit during a regular semester.

Auditors: Students who desire to hear the lectures in a course without undertaking the coursework for credit may be admitted as auditors to selected courses by making proper application with the Online Admissions Office. Though no credits or grade points are involved, auditors are required to pay the appropriate fees and to meet class attendance requirements. Those who do not meet attendance requirements will receive the “grade” of “W,” whether or not they have officially withdrawn.

Auditing is not permitted for some courses. (This policy is at the discretion of the department or professor involved.) For some courses, auditing is permitted only if the student completes the course assignments as specified by the professor. An auditor may enroll for only one semester as a “full-time” auditor.

Note about the Catalog

Each program at the institution maintains a catalog in which basic academic information related to the program’s goals, expectations, admission, policies, accreditation, and other pertinent information is described. This applies to undergraduate, non-traditional (e.g., online, adult degree completion), graduate, and seminary programs.

Grace makes every attempt to provide information that, at the time of publication, most accurately describes the policies, procedures, and requirements of the institution and its individual programs.

The provisions of the academic catalogs are, therefore, to be considered a guide and not to be regarded as a contract between any student and the institution. Course content and institutional policies governing admissions, tuition, and campus life are under constant review and revision.

Grace reserves the right to change any statement contained within the catalog at any time and without prior notice including academic provisions, policies, or requirements (e.g., modifications to classes, fees, personnel, academic policies, and programs) and the right to withdraw or amend the content of any courses described in the catalogs as may be required or desirable by circumstances. Grace will, however, make every attempt to give students reasonable prior notice to changes in policies and other catalog content when possible and rarely implements policy changes during an academic year.

Courses of study for non-traditional, graduate, and seminary programs and check sheets for undergraduate students may undergo revisions; however, these are typically implemented in the fall of the new academic year.

All students are expected to be familiar with the catalog(s) associated with their selected program(s) of study with the understanding that policies and procedures of their selected program(s) may change from year-to-year. The current year’s catalog should, in most situations, be considered the catalog applicable to the student.

In some programs, students are asked to acknowledge in writing their receipt of the program's catalog.

Changes to an academic catalog that are necessary following the start of the fall semester will be noted as an addendum to the original catalog.

Archived catalogs are maintained on the institution's Web site.

It is each student's responsibility to schedule regular meetings with his or her academic advisor and to be knowledgeable about institutional requirements, academic regulations, and calendar deadlines specified in the catalogs and academic program publications. Students should read the catalog carefully and consult with an advisor to determine how these policies relate to their individual circumstances.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

NPM 5015 Nonprofit Management as a Career

People view nonprofits from different perspectives, some considering them to be social institutions and others considering them to be more like business firms with a social purpose. This course attempts to blend these perspectives and to provide a balanced overview of the field.

Although some people portray nonprofits as less well-managed than businesses, that perspective is often inaccurate. This course will encourage students preparing for careers in nonprofit management to proceed with pride and confidence that their field is as distinguished as management in business or government. Together we will thoroughly pursue an understanding of how a nonprofit management career brings challenges but also rewards.

NPM 5010 Foundations of Nonprofit Management

This course will provide an orientation to the nonprofit sector and a theoretical foundation for the more applied topics that will be covered later in MSNM Program. Students will begin to develop their personal philosophies of management as it applies to the unique environment of the nonprofits. This course seeks to engender an overview of nonprofit management that is both conceptual and practical in nature. Three hours.

NPM 5020 Governing and Leading Nonprofit Organizations

This course provides learners with the opportunity to learn the many dynamics involved in leading an organization under the auspices of a governing board. Best practice strategies and activities will be utilized regarding effective and ethical leadership, managing an organization, and recruiting, developing, evaluating and retaining human capital within the organization. Three hours.

NPM 5030 Obtaining and Managing Resources for Nonprofit Organizations

Introduces students to the major financial management concepts and techniques required for effective management of nonprofit organizations. Offers students an opportunity to learn about nonprofit accounting, budget management, cash flow management, financial statements and reports.

NPM 5040 Managing the Nonprofit Organization

Nonprofit organizations can thrive only when there is a clear understanding of the internal and external realities that impact a company's present status and potential for growth. This course will examine various ways to ensure accountability to external stakeholders and effectively measure performance. The strategic planning process will also be examined in depth, and students will learn how to utilize planning skills in a practical exercise with a company of their choice. Students will also examine ways to help nonprofit companies build capacity and explore opportunities for collaboration. Three hours.

NPM 5050 Marketing, Communication and Special Topics for Nonprofit Organizations

This course is a guide through four topics that can easily be confusing or too new for nonprofit leaders to handle without help. 1) Leaders, must know the values and pitfalls of marketing so that the mission remains the primary focus. 2) Advocacy includes education of the public in addition to the challenging topic of lobbying that few nonprofits engage in with confidence. 3) Globalization affects many local nonprofits as there may be chapters abroad. Leaders must be aware of the management and board 'best practices' that come from globalized nonprofits. 4) Social entrepreneurship is a newer topic that covers innovation to provide new income streams for a target population, social impact or both. Business for missions, community development, and micro finance are related topics. Three hours.

NPM 5065 Nonprofit Management Analysis I

This course allows the learner to demonstrate their capacity for understanding and applying the first year of the nonprofit management course work. Learners will examine and contrast a current and relevant nonprofit management issue, then compose and construct a strategic, viable, credible, and synergistic solution to such an issue. Three hours. Prerequisites: NPM 5010, NPM 5020, and two (2) graduate elective courses in year one.

NPM 5075 Nonprofit Management Analysis II

This course allows the learner to demonstrate their capacity for understanding and applying the second year of the nonprofit management course work. Learners will examine and contrast a current and relevant nonprofit management issue, then compose and construct a strategic, viable, credible, and synergistic solution to such an issue. Three hours. Prerequisites: NPM 5040, NPM 5050, and two (2) graduate elective courses in year two.

NPM 5080 Finances for Nonprofit Organizations

Nonprofit management is becoming a recognized specialty, and there is a growing number of individuals and entities specializing in nonprofit financial management as well. With this growth in numbers comes a comparable growth in the demand for sophisticated management. No longer is it enough just for one's financial records to be in order; one must be able to demonstrate good financial systems to meet all the other rising demands on today's nonprofit. That will be our main focus. (cross listed as MHE 5110)

NPM 5090 Grant Writing for Foundations and Corporations

This course will focus on identifying private foundations and corporations whose philanthropic mission aligns with the vision a non-profit organization chosen by the student. Students will conduct research on foundations and corporations and craft letters of inquiry and grant proposals. Students will develop a basic knowledge of grant writing process and display understanding of the content through the development of a grant proposal. (cross listed as MHE 5100)

NPM 5100 Philanthropy & Fundraising Fundamentals

This course provides an overview of the history and theories influencing philanthropy. Students will develop their own theoretical framework for fundraising. The culminating project will be the creation and presentation of a case statement for a non-profit organization of student's choice. (cross listed as MHE 5120)
