Department Purpose

To be human is to be in relationship to others. The relationships created through language, culture, literature, history, and politics profoundly shape our views and experiences while influencing every aspect of society. We believe that sustained study of these relationships enhances our understanding of our Creator, others, and ourselves. Moreover, we recognize that learning from diverse individuals and civilizations, both past and present, equips students to be future shapers of cultural and societal forces in both their personal lives and their varied careers. To that end, the Department of Humanities exists to promote the value of the humanities and the study thereof. Our department comprises four distinct yet interrelated programs: English and Journalism, Communication, History and Political Science, and Modern Languages. Additionally, our department is the academic home of Grace's unique interdisciplinary studies major as well as the Graduate Certificate in Corporate Communications Strategy.

Department of Humanities Grace Core Requirements

The humanities are a strong component of the Grace Core curriculum. Grace Core courses offered through the Department of Humanities include ENG 1100 Effective Writing, COM 100 Public Speaking, HIS 1350 Current Issues in Historical Context, HUM 2000 Global Perspectives, and French and Spanish courses that may be used to fulfill the language and culture proficiency requirement for the Bachelor of Arts degree. For more information about the B.A. language proficiency requirement, see the Modern Languages Program section below.

English and Journalism Program

Recognizing that God is the creator of language, Grace's English and Journalism Program seeks to deepen students' understanding of the complexities and creative potential of language. Our English curriculum acquaints students with a wide variety of literature and interpretive approaches and enhances students' critical thinking, research, and communication skills. The journalism major and minor equip students for careers in journalistic media. Both the English and journalism majors provide opportunities for practical, hands-on experience through involvement with our campus newspaper, literary magazine, and other publications, as well as off-campus internships and experiential learning.

The English and Journalism Program offers a major in English, a major in English education, a major in journalism, a minor in English, a minor in creative writing, a minor in linguistics, and a minor in journalism.

History and Political Science Program

Our purpose is seen in our motto: Memores acti prudentes potest, meaning: "Mindful of what has been done, aware of what is possible." Through our program's common experience curriculum, a variety of elective offerings, engaging applied learning experiences, and a capstone seminar, we encourage our students to think incarnationally about their field of study. This means we engage with them in the fascinating yet messy endeavor of studying the record of past and present civilization in all of its humanness. As apprentice scholars, students are not to rush to judgment, but are to understand other cultures within the context in which they are situated. Along with this, they are to become ready to engage in the type of social responsibility befitting a citizen both of this world and of Christ's Kingdom. In this way, we hope their time in the History and Political Science Program will be a transformational experience that prepares students for a life of service in an engaging profession.

A major in history prepares students for a number of professions and/or graduate work in museums, archives, historic preservation, public history, journalism, government service, law, business administration and management, and research. The pre-law program equips students for law school where they can prepare for a career in advocacy. Careers in political science include legislators, legal investigators, lawyers, mediators, law librarians, judges/judicial workers, judiciary interpreters and translators, public affairs specialists, labor relations managers, and management analysts. The social studies education major prepares students for many of the same careers as the history major while also equipping them to teach economics, geography, US and world history, political science, psychology, and/or sociology at the upper elementary, middle, and high school levels once they are certified.

History and Political Science Common Experience

The program's common experience is an integrated set of courses shared by our majors and minors. This consists of the following courses:

HIS 1130 World History and the Historical Method
HIS 2050 American Journeys
GEO 1010 World Geography
POS 2200 American Government
HUM 4900 Humanities Capstone Seminar

The majors take all 15 credit hours plus an experiential learning component; the minors (except pre-law) take 6 credit hours from this list.

PRE-LAW MINOR

Our pre-law program complements virtually any major including those preferred by many law schools and the American Bar Association (such as history, political science, communication, English, business, criminal justice, psychology, information technology, mathematics, biology, and Spanish). The ABA and most law schools do NOT recommend that pre-law students take a pre-law major - therefore, we do not offer one at Grace. In addition to their major advisor, students are assigned a pre-law advisor.

Students must complete 21 credit hours for this minor.

Pre-Law Requirements (9 hours):

HUM 4900 Humanities Capstone Seminar
LAW 4400 Selected Topics: LSAT Preparation

Choose one of the following:

Modern Languages Program

The purpose of the Grace College Modern Languages Program is to equip individuals to serve Christ in a global community. Program goals include helping students to communicate effectively in another language, gain knowledge and understanding of other cultures, and live intentionally as global citizens. These goals are supported by our integrative approach to language learning, which emphasizes authentic language environments and cultural as well as linguistic knowledge. In addition to courses from the beginning to advanced levels, we offer a number of co-curricular opportunities for language development and, for language majors, an immersive study abroad component to enhance language learning.

The Study Abroad Program

Grace's Study Abroad Program requires qualified language majors to study abroad. Through this cross-cultural, immersive language experience, students become more proficient speakers while learning to appreciate other cultures. They are placed with a host family, participate in the life of a local church, and are enrolled in some of the world's best-known universities, with which Grace has transfer and credit agreements. Students sign a language pledge committing to speak the target language throughout their experience and therefore attain near-native fluency by the end of the program. With the help of the Institute for Global Studies and in consultation with their advisor, students select a program of study covering a wide variety of areas and disciplines in the target language.

Language majors may satisfy their study abroad requirement by taking courses at the following approved member universities:

STA 0400 Universidad de Belgrano - Buenos Aires, Argentina

STA 0460 Universidad Antonio de Nebrija - Madrid, Spain

STA 0430 Université de Bourgogne - Dijon, France

STA 0540 Université Laval - Quebec, Canada

Students typically register for 16–18 credit hours during a fall and spring semester and 12 credit hours during a summer term.

Students can participate in the following programs for languages not offered on campus (Korean, Arabic, Hungarian, German, etc.).

- STA 0620 Middle East Program
- STX 3000 Handong Global University Exchange
- STA 0560 Sommerhochschule of the Universität Wien – Vienna, Austria
- STX 4000 Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary –Budapest, Hungary

For further information regarding current member institutions and courses offered, please contact the Modern Languages Program Director or Institute for Global Studies. Study Abroad Program locations and institutions are subject to change, based upon availability.

Language students are required to take the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPIc) to evaluate their proficiency in their target language. For students in the language education program, the minimum level for graduation is Advanced Low.

Bachelor of Arts Language Requirement

The Bachelor of Arts degree requires that students demonstrate proficiency in a single language. This may be accomplished in the following ways:

- Students complete two courses (6 hours) in a single modern or ancient language (e.g., Spanish, French, Hebrew, Greek, or any language currently offered through Go Study or Go Exchange). Students with prior language instruction and/or strong language skills may take the online Foreign Language Placement Exam (FLPE) to determine in which course level to enroll.
- Students who place into the 2020-level of a language (e.g., SPA 2020) based on the online Foreign Language Placement Exam (FLPE) may contact the Modern Languages Program Director and arrange to take the department exam. The fee for the department exam is $120. Students who score in the "Intermediate Mid" level on the department exam may receive credit for 2010 (3 hours), and enroll in 2020 (3 hours) to satisfy the B.A. language requirement. Students wishing to pursue this option should schedule the department exam within the first four weeks of their first semester at Grace College and Seminary.
- Students who place beyond the 2020-level of a language (e.g., SPA 2100) based on the online Foreign Language Placement Exam (FLPE) may contact the Modern Languages Program Director and arrange to take the department exam. The fee for the department exam is $120. Students who score in the "Intermediate High" level on the department exam may receive credit for 2010 and 2020 (6 hours), thereby satisfying the B.A. language requirement. Students wishing to pursue this option should schedule the department exam within the first four weeks of their first semester at Grace College and Seminary.
- Students may earn language credits based on their Advanced Placement (AP) language exam score. Students with a score of 4 or 5 on an AP language exam receive credit for 1020 (3 hours) and enroll in 2010 to satisfy the B.A. language requirement.

Foreign Language Placement Examination (FLPE)

Students with previous language experience in Spanish or French should complete the Foreign Language Placement Examination (FLPE) prior to arriving on campus. There is no cost for the placement exam. Go to <http://bit.ly/2P9yP76>. You will need to enter your Grace Student ID. Each question is selected based on previous responses and the test is usually completed within 30 to 45 minutes. Please note that the online Foreign Language Placement Exam (FLPE) is a placement exam only; no credits will be awarded based on the FLPE.

Department Exam

Students who place into or beyond the 2020-level on the Foreign Language Placement Examination (FLPE) may contact the Modern Languages Program Director to arrange to take the department exam, which is the ACTFL OPic. Unlike the FLPE, the department exam is a credit-bearing exam that tests oral proficiency. The fee for the department exam is $120. Students who score in the "Intermediate Mid" level on the department exam receive credit for 2010 (3 credits). Students who score in the "Intermediate High" level receive credit for 2010 and 2020 (6 credits). Students who score below the "Intermediate Mid" level on the department exam receive no credits. Students must schedule the department exam within the first four weeks of their first semester at Grace College and Seminary.

CLEP Examination

CLEP Examination Credits may not be used to satisfy the B.A. language requirement. Students who complete a foreign language CLEP exam will receive general elective credit that will count toward overall credits needed to graduate.

International Students and Foreign Transfer Credits

Students who have received the equivalent of a high school diploma in a country in which the primary language is other than English may be granted the language requirement for a B.A. through transfer credits. In order to receive the 6 transfer credits, students must submit the foreign high school transcript to the Modern Languages Program Director for approval.

Modern Languages Majors

The French and Spanish majors provide an opportunity for focused study in a single language. The requirement for the language majors is 40-42 credit hours in the department. A minor is required. For most language majors, at least 12 credit hours must be taken through an approved study abroad program.

Communication Program

The Communication Program promotes awareness of the complexities of the human communication process, cultivation of communication skills, and the free and responsible use of communication abilities and mediums. The study of communication is ideal for students who are considering occupation as a communication specialist at any size or type of organization, or in preparation for graduate work. The major is also beneficial for those considering work in public relations, management, human resources, missions, journalism, counseling, marketing, consulting, law, media communications, personnel management, or ministry.

The program consists of a variety of majors and minors that approach the discipline through different methodologies. The communication foundation of each major introduces students to the theories and techniques of modern communication and prepares them for communicative competency with a wide array of media, audiences, and purposes. Majors include communication, professional communication, and digital communication. All communication majors select three credits of experiential learning, such as an internship or workshop. Communication majors may be pursued as part of a B.A. or B.S. degree. Minors offered through the Communication Program include public relations, communication, digital communication, political communication, and international communication.

Interdisciplinary Studies

Housed within the Department of Humanities, the interdisciplinary studies major effectively allows students to create their own major with a total of 54 credit hours. Students in this major will integrate a variety of disciplines as part of their work at Grace College in pursuit of either a B.A. or B.S. degree. Students will graduate with knowledge that spans the curriculum yet is tailored to fit their specific interests. Designed to promote creativity, original problem solving, and greater curriculum flexibility, this unique major requires completion of 15 credit hours in each of three curricular areas with the goal of synthesizing these areas into a unifying interest. The resulting integration will culminate in a substantial senior project and related internship. Students must have a 3.0 GPA and successfully complete a curriculum proposal and interview process to be eligible for admission into the program. Students who are in good academic standing following their first year of study at Grace may apply for acceptance into this major. A minor is not required. For more information and sample curricula, contact the Interdisciplinary Studies advisor, Dr. Jared Burkholder.

Graduate Certificate in Corporate Communications Strategy

The Grace College Department of Humanities, in partnership with the Brian Lamb School of Communication at Purdue University, offers a Graduate Certificate in Corporate Communications Strategy as a dual degree/certificate program. This innovative program gives Grace students access to a convenient, affordable graduate-level credential that can be completed simultaneously with their undergraduate degree. It is ideal for students seeking to distinguish themselves in the job market as well as those who are considering graduate school in communication or a related field. Students in this program complete four online, graduate-level courses through Purdue University, which they typically take during their final year of undergraduate study at Grace College. After graduation, students who complete the certificate have the option to apply at Purdue and roll their certificate credits into Purdue University's online MS in Communication program; at that point, students only need six additional courses to graduate from Purdue University with a full master's degree. For more information on the Graduate Certificate in Corporate Communications Strategy, contact the Grace College School of Arts & Sciences Director of Partnership Programs, or Communication Program Director.

Admission Process and Requirements

To apply for entry into this program, students must notify the School of Arts & Sciences Director of Partnership Programs of their intent to apply at least 45 days prior to the start of the academic term in which they plan to begin the program. Students must demonstrate a high degree of readiness for graduate-level coursework and submit the following evidences of eligibility to the Director:

1. An official transcript of coursework reflecting a minimum of sixty (60) undergraduate credit hours earned and a minimum undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.0.
2. An endorsement and contact information from a current Grace College faculty member attesting to the student's readiness for graduate-level coursework in this program.
3. A 500 to 750-word written Statement of Purpose demonstrating the student's readiness to pursue graduate level coursework in this area and strong alignment of the program with their professional and/or academic goals.

Additionally, it is recommended that students seeking entry into the program have taken relevant communication-related coursework, possess strong oral and written communication skills, and have a professional experiential base such as a communication-related internship, part-time job, or extracurricular activities.

Applications expire one year from the date the application was received for admission. If applicants do not enroll in the program within that period, they will be required to complete a new application.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS STRATEGY

*Additional fees may apply. For more information, please contact the School of Arts and Sciences Director of Partnership Programs, Cliff Staton at statoncq@grace.edu.

NOTE: Course descriptions for Graduate Certificate in Corporate Communications Strategy courses can be found through the Purdue website: <https://online.purdue.edu/programs/communication/masters-in-communication/courses>.

Students must earn a B or better in each course for it to count toward the certificate. Students earning less than a B may retake the course once, if necessary, to achieve a B or better in the class. All courses taken, whether the certificate requirements are completed or not, will be awarded Purdue academic credit and appear on the student's transcript.

Satisfactory Progress Policy

Students are required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in both their graduate and undergraduate courses to continue in the program. Students whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 will move to probationary status for one session. If their GPA remains below a 3.0 after the probationary session, they must stop taking graduate courses until their cumulative GPA has returned to a 3.0 or higher.

Research conducted for this course may include primary and secondary research, archival work, observation, and/or other methods appropriate to the student's topic and project. The Interdisciplinary Senior Research Project, in conjunction with the Humanities Capstone Seminar, constitutes a substantial, original, scholarly project. Three hours.

OTHER HUMANITIES COURSES

HUM 2000 Global Perspectives

The purpose of Global Perspectives is to bring students into contact with world cultures through literature and film. In this interdisciplinary course, students engage divergent outlooks from around the world and grapple with secular and scriptural perspectives on cross-cultural interactions. Students enhance their oral and written communication skills as they learn to analyze authors' and filmmakers' representations of culture, and to assess the motives behind their aesthetic choices. This course also introduces students to complex contemporary issues such as post-colonialism, cultural hybridity, immigration, and cultural hegemony, and helps them navigate these issues with a redemptive theological framework. Three hours.

HUM 4900 Humanities Capstone Seminar

This team-taught and interdisciplinary seminar is among students' final educational experiences before degree completion. As such, its components allow students to showcase the academic abilities they have acquired through their degree program (through a thesis or project) and to think about and prepare for the next steps in their professional careers. Students participate in both interdisciplinary plenaries and discipline specific seminars. Students give a final presentation of their theses or projects at an interdisciplinary symposium. Three hours.

Department of Humanities

GRADUATE LEVEL COURSEWORK

Graduate Badge in Technical Writing

This graduate badge comprises 9 credit hours offered through Purdue University Online*.

The Grace College Department of Humanities, in partnership with Purdue University, offers a Graduate Badge in Technical Writing. This innovative program gives Grace students access to convenient, affordable, graduate-level coursework that can be completed simultaneously with their undergraduate degree. It is ideal for students seeking to distinguish themselves in the job market as well as those who are considering graduate school. Students in this program complete three online, graduate-level courses through Purdue University, which they typically take during their final year of undergraduate study at Grace College. After graduation, students who complete the program have the option to apply at Purdue and roll their graduate credits into one of Purdue University's online Master's programs. For more information on the Graduate Badge in Technical Writing, contact the Grace College Director of Partnership Programs.

The Technical Writing Badge includes three hands-on, practical courses that help you communicate effectively in numerous professional capacities. These courses will train students to convert complex ideas into simple prose, explain cause and effect relationships, and advocate for truth and reason.

Courses are 8 weeks each and begin in the Fall 2022 semester.

English 60311 – Medical and Healthcare Writing (3 credits)

English 60411 – Writing Proposals and Grants (3 credits)

English 60511 – Editing and Publishing (3 credits)

This innovative program gives Grace students access to convenient, affordable graduate-level coursework that can be completed simultaneously with their undergraduate degree. It is ideal for students seeking to distinguish themselves in the job market as well as those who are considering graduate school in communication or a related field. Students in this program complete four online, graduate-level courses through Purdue University Online, which they typically take during their final year of undergraduate study at Grace College. After graduation, students who complete the courses have the option to apply to Purdue and roll their credits into Purdue University's online MS in Communication program; at that point, students only need six additional courses to graduate from Purdue University with a full master's degree. For more information on Corporate Communications Strategy, contact the Grace College Director of Partnership Programs, or Communication Program Director.

Admission Process and Requirements

To apply for entry into this program, students must notify the Director of Partnership Programs of their intent to apply at least 45 days prior to the start of the academic term in which they plan to begin the program. Students must demonstrate a high degree of readiness for graduate-level coursework and submit the following evidences of eligibility to the Director:

1. An official transcript of coursework reflecting a minimum of sixty (60) undergraduate credit hours earned and a minimum undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.0.
2. An endorsement and contact information from a current Grace College faculty member attesting to the student's readiness for graduate-level coursework in this program.
3. A 500 to 750-word written Statement of Purpose demonstrating the student's readiness to pursue graduate level coursework in this area and strong alignment of the program with their professional and/or academic goals.

Additionally, it is recommended that students seeking entry into the program have taken relevant communication-related coursework, possess strong oral and written communication skills, and have a professional experiential base such as a communication-related internship, part-time job, or extracurricular activities.

Applications expire one year from the date the application was received for admission. If applicants do not enroll in the program within that period, they will be required to complete a new application.

Satisfactory Progress Policy

Students are required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in both their graduate and undergraduate courses to continue in the program. Students whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 will move to probationary status for one session. If their GPA remains below a 3.0 after the probationary session, they must stop taking graduate courses until their cumulative GPA has returned to a 3.0 or higher. All courses taken, whether the requirements are completed or not, will be awarded Purdue academic credit and will appear on the student's Purdue transcript.

*Additional fees may apply and coursework is subject to change. For more information, please contact the Director of Partnership Programs, Cliff Staton at statoncq@grace.edu.
