Position	Department
Assistant/Associate Professor of Computer Science	School of Science and Engineering Department of Science and Math

---

Grace College invites applications and nominations for the full-time position of Assistant/Associate Professor of Computer Science. The successful candidate will demonstrate strong interest in teaching in a Christian liberal arts context, be able to make connections with other disciplines, include students in research, and have interest in active learning and student-centered pedagogy. We encourage candidates in all areas of Computer Science to apply, including related areas such as Software Engineering and Data Science.

Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate courses in computer science, mentoring students as both Christians and computer scientists, department and college service, contributing to research in your field, facilitating student research, and professional development. The candidate would take over the duties of the program director of Computer Science immediately or after a year, depending on experience. Full time faculty are offered development funds for conferences and continuing education, as well as sabbaticals.
