Position: Visiting Assistant Professor of Communication (1 year)	Report to: Dr. Patrick Loebis
--	---

Grace College and Seminary welcomes diversity, and makes employment opportunities available to all applicants and employees without regard to race, color, pregnancy, age, ancestry, national origin, disability, citizenship status, military status, genetic information, or any other legally protected category.

Grace College invites applications and nominations for the position of Visiting Assistant/Associate Professor of Communication. Responsibilities include teaching; attending school, department, program meetings; and contributing to the mission and culture of the Department of Humanities and the Communication Program.

Grace College is a Christ-centered Liberal Arts College informed by pietist and evangelical traditions. Located in the resort community of Winona Lake, near Warsaw, Indiana (36 miles west of Ft. Wayne), Grace College offers 52 academic majors (38 minors). Central to the mission is developing character, sharpening competence, and preparing for service. Our goal in Christian living and teaching is to make Christ preeminent in all things. The programs of the college, as well as its community lifestyle commitment, are designed to encourage serious academic inquiry, a biblical worldview, spiritual understanding, and social conscience, all in the context of God's grace.

The successful applicant will teach courses in interpersonal communication, public speaking, intercultural communication, social media communication, and/or other communication courses. The successful applicant will have a strong commitment to liberal arts undergraduate education and will help support the program's Public Speaking in Society general education course.

Qualifications: This position offers an opportunity to develop strong teaching experience and contribute to a growing Communication Program. The successful candidate will have:

- A master's degree or higher (including ABD) in communication or a related field.
- Willingness to assist in the continued development and growth of the Communication Program.
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness.
- A desire to integrate faith with learning in all areas of life.
- A willingness to collaborate with colleagues and students.

Application Process: Applications may be found at www.grace.edu/about/employment/faculty/staff-applications

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. The start date for this position is August 2024.
