

Head of School

Willard, Ohio | 2027/2028 School Year

Celeryville Christian School is seeking a proven teacher or administrator to serve as its next Head of School. CCS has a rich history and an exciting future serving families in northeast Ohio.

Our mission is to assist parents in providing a Christ-centered, quality education for their children, thereby preparing them to live a life of service to God.

Responsibilities

The Head of School provides leadership for the school's mission and vision and oversees:

- Implementation and administration of all educational programs
- Oversight and evaluation of all faculty and staff
- Financial oversight and stewardship of school resources
- Overall management of the school

Qualifications

- A personal relationship with Jesus Christ
- A commitment to Christian education
- Regular worship and membership in a Bible-teaching church
- Alignment with the school's mission, vision, and values
- Proven leadership, administrative, and organizational abilities and experience
- Experience leading students and staff with wisdom and discernment
- A master's degree in education or administration (required)
- Experience in fundraising, donor advancement, and community relations
- Experience in fiscal management of school resources

Leadership development

Training and support will be offered to a current teacher or administrator interested in obtaining certification in school leadership.
